The Star and Sentinel.

Gettysburg, Friday, Dec. 10, 1869.

A rich vein of iron ore has been opened on the farm of Col. D. M. Myers, in Oxford township—worked by the Thomas Iron Company.

SNOW STORM.—On Sunday last we were visited by an old fashioned "northeaster," the rain during the night changing to snow. All day Monday it snowed steadily, and then cleared with a cold north-west wind. Snow fell to the depth of 5 or 6 inches, but the previous rain left the roads in bad condition, making sleighing rather rough.

SHERIFFS' SALES.—The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has decided, Judge Sharwood delivering the opinion, that a mortagee, or a purchaser at Sheriff's sale, is not bound to look beyond the judgment docket to ascertain whether the entries thereon are properly made by authority, and that where there is a defective entry of a judgment, or an unauthorized entry of satisfaction, the Prothonotary is liable for damages to any injured party.

REORGANIZED.—The "Shakaperian Reading Association" has re-organized for the "winter's campaign." Their first meeting came off at the Springs Hotel on the evening of the 2d inst., and was signalized by a handsome entertainment gotten up by Mr. Hoppes, the gentlemanly proprietor of the Hotel, in his best style. Few, if any Hotel managers, know how to do up these things in better taste than Mr. H. We predict for the Springs Hotel under his management, marked popularity and success next season.

ENLARGEMENT.—We have frequently called attention to the Sunday School Times, edited by John S. Hart & J. Newton Baker, and published by J. C. Garrigues & Co., 608 Arch street, Philadelphia, as one of the best Sunday School publications issued from the press. On the 1st of January it will be enlarged from 12 to 16 pages, without any increase in price—$1.50 a year. The paper will hereafter be cut and stitched, so as to open freely, as any other periodical. We cordially commend the Times to Teachers and Sunday School workers generally, as an invaluable publication. No Teacher should be without it.

SALES.—H. J. Myers, Esq., as Executor, sold at public sale, on the 25th ult., the mansion property of Henry Myers, Esq., deceased, in New Chester—John Harbold purchaser, at $1,604. Also 28 acres of land, in Tyrone township—Jacob A. March purchaser, at $26 per acre.

Albert H. Parr has sold his property, in Mountpleasant township, to John J. Clapsaddle, at $1,175.

Mrs. Christian Musselman has purchased of Daniel King a house and lot in Fairfield at $1,100, and four acres of land near that town at $750.

Samuel Linn has purchased the property of Stephen Reilly, in Freedom township, at $1,100.

DR. MORRIS' READINGS.—Rev. Dr. Morris, of Baltimore, who had been delivering a course of Lectures, in the Theological Seminary on Pulpit Elocution and related topics, consented, at the request of the students, to give a public Reading in Agricultural Hall on Thursday evening the 25th ult. The announcement that the Dr. would read drew out a full Hall, as he is a popular lecturer. The selections were varied, in good taste, and capitally rendered. The closing piece, "Tom Pidge's Darius Green and his Flying Machine" brought down the house. The Dr. has rare capacity as a public reader, and judiciously intersperses his readings with occasional sallies of wit, which has the effect to keep his audiences in good humour. His readings are readings—not actings—natural, impressive, entertaining, and profitable—which is more than can be said of many professional elocutionists.

ACCIDENTS.—A few days ago, whilst David Emlet and Vincent Lawrence were engaged in putting up the cornice at the new house of Albert H. Parr, in White Hall, the scaffold gave way, precipitating them twelve or fifteen feet to the ground. Mr. Lawrence sprained his foot so badly as not to be able to do anything for some days. Mr. Emlet also had the instep bone of his foot severely cracked.

On the 27th ult., a small boy, between two and three years old, son of Mr. Ephraim Wilt, of Mountpleasant township, met with a strange and startling accident. Whilst undertaking to step across the rod driving a threshing machine, in motion, his arm was caught, and in the twinkling of an eye the little fellow was being carried around the rod with great rapidity, his head and body coming in contact at every revolution with the hard earth and stone of which the barn-bridge was composed. As soon as observed, he was extricated from his perilous position, more dead than a live, it was feared. He was terribly bruised, and his right arm broken.—Compiler.

On the 29th ult., as Mr. Harry Walkert, of Franklin township, was attending some of his stock, one of them stepped on the side of his left foot, and running against him threw him, dislocating the bones of the leg, outward, at the ankle, and severely spraining the foot.

On the 30th ult., as the little daughter of Mr. John Toot, of New Salem, was on her way from school, she tripped, and falling on her right arm caused a dislocation of the elbow-joint.

S. S. ENTERTAINMENT.—The Entertainment of the Sabbath Schools of St. James Church, in Agricultural Hall, on Friday night, was a marked success. These Schools have a well established reputation for getting up interesting exercises, and the programme on this occasion was judiciously arranged. Besides several well rendered Quartetes and excellent singing by the Schools, there were five special exercises—"Children's Home," represented by the Infant department; "The Busy Bee," by 36 Infant scholars; "Christian Armor," by 60 scholars of the Senior department; "The Temple," by 45 Infant scholars; and "Tribute of Praise," by 18 Girls from the Senior department. These exercises had evidently been prepared with much care, and commanded the close attention of the audience. The staging had been enlarged to accommodate the Schools, and was handsomely decorated with festoons and mottoes "Faith, Hope, Charity," "Stand up for Jesus," "Onward and Upward," "No Cross, no Crown," &c. The large Hall was crowded, the School realizing $60 over and above all expenses.

On last Sabbath the Annual meeting of the Schools was held in St. James Church, addresses being delivered by Rev. E. Breidenbaugh, Pastor, and several of the workers in the Schools. An interesting report was read, covering the operations of the Schools during the year from Nov. 13, 1868, to Nov. 8, 1869. This report shows the membership of the Senior Department to be 123 Scholars, with 24 officers and Teachers—Infant Department, Scholars 154, Teachers 4—total Scholars 286, besides 28 Officers and Teachers. The average attendance in the Senior department has been 95 Scholars and 17 Teachers; in the Infant Department, 90 Scholars—the Teachers of the latter being reported always in attendance, except when absent from town. The contributions for the year amounted to $148.09, $91.24 being contributed by the Senior, and $51.85 by the Infant Departments.

WINTER COMING.—Winter is coming, and CONRAD & CUNINGHAM have made arrangements to meet the wants of the public by their large assortment of all kinds of Ready-made Clothing, for Fall and Winter wear, for Men and Boys—also, Caps, Boots, Shoes, &c., which they are selling very low. tf

TEACHERS COUNTY INSTITUTE.—The third annual session of this body commenced in the Court-house on Monday last and will close on Friday evening. The Institute has been a marked success, a season of both pleasure and profit not only to the Teachers assembled, but to the citizens of Gettysburg and the vicinity. A number of new features have this year been introduced by J. Howard Wert, Esq., our efficient County Superintendent.

The exercises of both the day and evening sessions have been enlivened by music furnished by various choirs and bands organized for the occasion. A string band, composed of a number of amateur Musicians, has given excellent music at the evening sessions, as also a choir of Teachers assisted by Prof. Gundrum.

We go to press earlier this week than usual, and the Institute is still in progress. We give only a brief resume of the proceedings, up to the time of going to press. Notwithstanding the storm, nearly seventy Teachers were present at roll call on Monday. The Institute having been called to order by the County Superintendent, J. Curtis Hildebrand was appointed Secretary pro tem. The County Superintendent then welcomed the Teachers in a short but appropriate address, after which he appointed the various standing Committees for the session. Mr. Sheely made a report of the condition of the Library. Mr. Wert also reported the steps he had taken since the commencement of his term of office for the purpose of establishing a permanent Teachers' Library in the room occupied by the County Superintendent. On motion, the books which Mr. Sheely had previously purchased, were ordered to be placed in the Library.

The following Officers were chosen for the ensuing year:

President—Capt. John F. McCreary, of Gettysburg.

Vice President—Capt. H. N. Minnigh, of Menallen.

Secretary—J. Curtis Hildebrand, of Hamilton.

Assistant Secretaries—Miss Jennie Hamilton, of Straban, and Miss Ollie Heinard, of Menallen.

Treasurer—J. Howard Wert.

Executive Committee—J. Howard Wert, Miss Martha Warren, of Gettysburg, and Miss Julia Hollinger, of Cumberland.

After the transaction of some miscellaneous business, Prof. Robert Kidd was introduced to the Institute, and delivered the first of a series of lectures on Elocution, which have been the great attraction of the week.

Prof. Edsall Ferrier, of Penn's College, occupied the evening session with a very able address on "the Loneliness of Hamlet," which was interspersed with several fine Readings by Prof. Kidd.

On Tuesday morning, after the preliminary exercises. The Committee on Permanent Certificates, was elected as follows: Miss Martha Warren, Miss Mary McGrew, J. Curtis Hildebrand, Capt. John F. McCreary, and Hamilton Eckenrode.

The remainder of the morning session was occupied by the 2d lesson of Prof. Kidd's course, and by an interesting blackboard exercise on Words, conducted by Prof. Ferrier.

During the afternoon session there was a contest in Orthography, conducted by the County Superintendent, open only to those holding Provisional Certificates. One hundred words were dictated. The result was a tie between Miss Ada Ross and Wm. Chamberlain, in having the largest number of words spelled correctly.

Prof. Montgomery, of the Millersville Normal School, was introduced and gave an able lecture on Penmanship and Drawing, followed by Prof. Raub, of Lock Haven, on the subject of Grammar.

The evening was occupied by an Entertainment given by Prof. Kidd. The Court-room was filled to its utmost capacity and all went away delighted.

Two classes of children from the Gettysburg schools—one under the care Miss Warren, and the other in charge of Miss McCreary, deserve particular notice, for singing during a number of sessions of the Institute.

On Wednesday morning Prof. Raub lectured on Grammar, and Prof. Montgomery on Geography, while Prof. Kidd continued his Elocutionary exercises. In the afternoon Prof. Montgomery lectured on Practical Teaching, followed by another Elocutionary exercise by Prof. Kidd.

The attendance of Teachers, Directors and citizens is unusually large. On Wednesday morning 130 Teachers were present.

I. O. O. F. DEDICATION.—The ceremonies connected with the Dedication of the new Odd Fellows Hall in York Springs Borough, on Tuesday last, drew together a large crowd, notwithstanding the heavy snow storm and the bad condition of the roads. Five Lodges and three Encampments were represented in the procession,—York Springs Lodge and Lincoln Encampment, Hanover Lodge and Eagle Encampment, Mt Holly Lodge, Bendersville Lodge, and Gettys Lodge and Union Encampment. The Hall was dedicated by the the District Deputy, assisted by H. A. Sheeler acting as G. Herald, H. C. Peters as G. Marshal; J. D. Worly as Herald of the East, C. A. Peacock as Herald of the South, H. J. Stehle as Herald of the West, E. W. Mumma as Herald of the North, and John Wolford as G. Chaplain.

The dedication services being completed, a Procession of members of the Order, headed by R. W. Sadler, Chief Marshal, and the Mechanicsburg Silver Cornet Band, was formed and marched the streets, returning to the Hall, where brief addresses were delivered by Col. John Wolford and D. A. Buehler, in the absence of Mr. Nicholson, the invited orator of the day. The Hall was crowded to its utmost capacity by ladies and gentlemen, members of the Order and citizens, many others being unable to get in. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, the demonstration was a success. Had the day been pleasant, the attendance would have been much larger.

York Springs Lodge has reason to be proud of their new Hall. It is a large imposing three story building, the lower floor to be occupied as Stores, the second floor as a Town Hall, and the upper floor as a Lodge Room. It cost about $12,000. The Lodge Room has been handsomely furnished, and every thing arranged in good taste. It will compare favorably with the best in the State.

IMPORTANT TO EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS.—Under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Laws, "every administrator, executor, or trustee, having in charge or trust any legacy or distributive share, shall give notice thereof in writing, to the Assessor, or Assistant Assessor, of the district where the deceased grantor or bargainer last resided, within thirty days after he shall have taken charge of such trust."

The failure of executors, administrators and trustees to comply with the above provision of the Revenue law, often creates trouble and brings expense upon the estate which they represent, by compelling Assistant Assessors to enforce their attendance, and to make an investigation, though the estates may really not be liable to a tax. Personal property not exceeding $1,000 is exempt from taxation, but unless the proper representative of an estate takes the trouble to make the officer acquainted with its value, he must have an appraisement made, at the expense of the estate. By giving notice in time, this would be obviated.

FOR SALE.—A "Vulcan Heater," which can be used to heat a single room, or two rooms down and up stairs. Will be sold cheap. Enquire at "STAR & SENTINEL" office. tf

FARMERS' CLUBS.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—A Farmers' Club in every town of Adams county is a great necessity. Let us have these clubs. They are considered of the greatest importance in most other farming communities. Let us have weekly meetings, too, in comfortable rooms, with libraries of good books and the leading Agricultural Journals of the country for inspection, and have farm matters generally discussed, and the information of each given to the others. There is no class in our county among whom there is so little real concert of action as our farmers. They seem to have no conference or agreement on the subject of wages, or any other common interest. By means of these local Clubs and a County Club, all matters affecting their general welfare could be arranged. These Clubs would also have a tendency to interest the young men—farmer's sons—in the pursuits of agriculture. It would elevate the occupation in their estimation, and prevent many of them from going off to less nobler, less remunerative and less healthful occupations.

NOTICE.

The various Bible Socities, recently established in this county, are hereby notified that a considerable assortment of Bibles and Testaments remains on hand, as the surplus of those ordered for the re-supply. Any of the local Societies, desiring to replenish their stock on hand, would do well to send in their orders without delay to the subscriber, as they will thereby save the expense of transportation, the price of the books being everywhere the same. This surplus, embracing German and English Bibles and Testaments, of all sizes and styles of binding, will be returned to Philadelphia on the 15th instant. Any orders, sent in before that date, will be cheerfully filled by CHARLES A. HAY.

GETTYSBURG, DEC. 3, 1869.

THE BEST AND CHEAPEST ORGANS.—An illustration of the advantages of a large production of any article, enabling the manufacturer to avail himself of the aid of machinery and most complete division of labor, and so to produce the best work at lowest cost, is afforded, by what the MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO. are now doing. It is well known that Cabinet Organs of their manufacture have for some time enjoyed the reputation of being the best in the world; and the demand for them from all countries has so increased that the Company have now occasion to produce one hundred and fifty organs per week.

This has enabled them to introduce a variety of ingenious machinery for the production of the various parts of the instruments, by which they get increased perfection in their work, and make a considerable saving in the cost. It is a part of their system to sell always at least remunerative profit, depending on increased amount of business for a satisfactory result to themselves. Accordingly they have recently reduced prices, and it is said, are now selling their famous organs at even less than it costs a small maker to produce inferior instruments. The public are thus the gainers by getting the best article at less than, without such advantages, they would have to pay for inferior work. This Company will not make the so-called "cheap" organs at any price. All their work is of the very best.

Forever gone the well known form
That by our side faced death's dark storm;
The smile and voice have passed away
But we shall greet and brighten each dark day.
But why repine! a few more years,
A few more broken sighs and tears,
And we, enlisted with the dead,
Shall follow where his steps have led.

BEST CABINET ORGANS
AT LOWEST PRICES.

That the MASON & HAMLIN CABINET and METROPOLITAN ORGANS are the best IN THE WORLD is proved by the almost unanimous opinion of professional musicians, by the award to them of SEVENTY-FIVE GOLD and SILVER MEDALS or other highest premiums, at principal industrial competitions within a few years, including the MEDAL at the PARIS EXPOSITION, and by a sale very much greater than that of any similar instruments. This Company manufacture their reed-organ instruments, and will not make "cheap organs" at any price, or offer an inferior instrument to lower their name—having greatly increased their facilities for manufacture, by the introduction of new machinery and other aids, they are able to make BETTER ORGANS THAN EVER BEFORE, at increased economy in cost, which, in accordance with their fixed policy of selling always at least remunerative profit, they are now offering at PRICES OF INFERIOR WORK. FOUR OCTAVE ORGAN, Plain Walnut Case, $60. FIVE OCTAVE ORGANS, Double Reed, Solid Walnut Case, carved and paneled, with FIVE STOPS (Viola, Diapason, Melodia, Flute, Tremulant), $125. Other styles in proportion.

Circulars, with full particulars, including accurate drawings of the different styles of organs, and much information which will be of service to every purchaser of an organ, will be sent free, and postage paid, to any one desiring them.
