NO PAPER NEXT WEEK.—In accordance with our time-honored custom, and the custom of most all weekly papers, we will not issue a paper next week.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS.—Now is the time to buy Christmas presents. Don't put off your purchases until next week. Almost every one who makes the holidays a time of real solid happiness, by dispensing liberally, can remember many instances where they have seen some particularly appropriate gifts which they had intended to purchase for some loved member of their household or friend, but when the season week of Christmas came, somebody else had secured the prize, and that most appropriate token was lost, simply by postponement or procrastination. During the holiday week almost all kinds of desirable goods, suitable for these occasions are a little higher than in ordinary times, and the same money expended now will purchase a greater number of gifts, and hence more hearts will be made happy.—Therefore we say to all, begin to buy your Christmas and New Year's gifts now.

THE CASH SYSTEM.—It is now universally conceded that the credit system is a curse, alike to seller and buyer. It tempts men to wrong. It is the key to extravagance. Indifferent and irresponsible business men are created thereby; and in ninety-nine cases out of every hundred, bankruptcy is entailed on those who do a credit business. Every man in the community would be benefitted by the establishment of a stringent cash system, and there is no business now conducted but what could be more prosperously carried on if controlled by the same principle.

GRAND LODGE OF MASONS.—At the regular quarterly session of the Grand Lodge of A. Y. M., held at the Masonic Hall, Chestnut street, Philadelphia, on Wednesday, December 4th, the following were elected officers of that body: Richard Vaux, R. W. Grand Master; R. A. Lamberton, R. W. Deputy Grand Master; Samuel C. Perkins, R. W. S. G. Warden; Alfred R. Porter, R. W. J. G. Warden. These officers will be installed on St. John's Day, December 27th, at the Annual Communication, to be held on that day.

SLEIGHING.—The sleighing has been excellent during the last week, and the musical tintinnabulation of bells could be heard in all directions, as swiftly gliding "turn outs" passed in constant succession along our streets. If a sudden thaw does not occur we may anticipate a regular sleighing carnival, in which all who have the "means and appliances" will participate, to their own enjoyment and the pecuniary profit of livery stable proprietors.

A LOCAL cotemporary very timely and pertinently cautions its readers to watch the strolling beggars who are perambulating the country in unusual numbers. They are mostly thieves in disguise, and take the garb of poverty the better to afford them opportunities of pilfering. With the ample provision made for the poor by the county, there is no excuse for any person to beg from door to door, and none particularly for the class who give so much annoyance to our country residents.

A TRIBUTE OF PRAISE.—The German Reformed Sunday School will offer a Tribute of Praise to Jesus, on Christmas morning, at 10 o'clock, in the Ger. Ref. Church, in this place, where a couple of addresses will be delivered, and several carols, &c., will be sung by the School. A collection will be taken up for the benefit of the Orphans' Home. The friends of Sunday Schools, and orphan children, are cordially invited to attend. The Church will be handsomely decorated in honor of the occasion.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH—CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION.—There will be a Sunday School celebration at the Court House, on Tuesday evening next (Christmas eve,) at which a handsome Christmas tree will be displayed. The exercises will consist of the singing of carols, Scripture recitations, catechising and an address by the Rector. Service to commence at seven o'clock. Also on Christmas morning there will be Divine service at ten o'clock and a sermon by the Rev. Mr. Barrow appropriate to the occasion.

LUTH. SUNDAY SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY.—On Sunday evening next, there will be an interesting meeting of the Luth. Sunday School in the Church. Addresses will be delivered by J. M. Reynolds, H. J. Fisher and C. W. Schaeffer. Report of Sunday School operations, distributions of premiums, &c., will take place. The number of verses committed by the scholars, we understand, is rather extraordinary.

CHRISTMAS ANNIVERSARY IN SCHELLSBURG.—On Christmas night, in Lutheran Church: Speeches, Dialogues, Hymns, Chants Anthems Designs or Emblems, and instrumental Music. Church to be elegantly decorated in honor of Reformation Jubilee.

CARRIER'S ADDRESS.—Our Carrier will be around, on New Year's day, with his annual address. He has done his work well, and deserves to be liberally rewarded.

A CHRISTMAS GIFT.—Four Certificates of the Washington Library Company of Philadelphia, in aid of the Riverside Institute for educating orphans, costing four dollars, with the fine engraving "The Perils of our Forefathers," each certificate secures also one present at the Great Distribution by the Company, making four presents, one or more of which may be worth thousands of dollars. Such a gift will make a friend gay and merry perhaps wealthy too. Read Advertisement.

NOTICE.—The undersigned, intending to go West for the purpose of going into buisness, requests all persons indebted to the late firm of Geo. Blymyer & Son and B. M. Blymyer & Co., by Book account, to call and settle the same on or before the 10th day of January, 1868, as all open accounts will be left in the hands of a collector for settlement after that date.

dec20w1 JNO. F. BLYMYER.

DEAD LETTERS.—We see it stated in an exchange that the P. M. General has instructed Postmasters to treat all letters dropped into the office, directed with a lead pencil, the same as dead letters. The public will do well to make a note of this.

CHRISTMAS.—Reader, if you would make yourself or friends happy, on Christmas, call at Berkstressers' and purchase yourself or friend a new suit of good serviceable clothing. Their prices are reasonable and they guarantee satisfaction to all who may give them a call.

THE sweetest singer and the sweetest perfume of the day are Adalina Patti and Phalon's "Night-Blooming Cereus." Both are American! The fair singer enraptures everybody—the perfume is in demand everywhere.—Georgetown Union.

TO ASSESSORS.—All Assessors who have not yet received the duplicate assessments and blank notices had better come or send and get them at once, so as to be ready for the Appeals.

HOLIDAY PRESENTS.—You can get suitable presents, for old and young, at Keeffe's Book and Stationery Store. Be sure to call.

ELEGANT HOLIDAY GIFT BOOKS—for young folks and old, at city prices, at the Inquirer Book Store. Call and see them.

ALL the leading periodicals and Illustrated papers can be had, as soon as issued, at the "Inquirer Book Store."

SOME of the Radical members of Gov. Swann's "Maryland Guard" (which Forney and other Radicals swore were organized to assist President Johnson in putting down Congress) have come to grief. At the grand review in October last a few of them undertook to insult Gov. Swann, the commander-in-chief. They have recently been tried by a court-martial and the findings have been made public, as follows:—For gross violation of military discipline and unsoldierlike conduct, the 6th and 8th regiments, second brigade, first division Maryland National Guard, are hereby publicly reprimanded.—The officers of companies D, E and G, 8th regiment Maryland National Guard, are hereby dishonorably dismissed the service. The enlisted men of said companies are hereby dishonorably discharged the service.—Cumberland Alleganian.

—Gen. Hancock has revoked Mower's order for the removal of the State Treasurer and State Auditor of Louisiana. The old officials have been reinstated.

—Four important cities have been reclaimed from Radicalism by the Democracy—viz: Pittsburg, Pa., Boston, and Concord, the Capital of New Hampshire. Push on the column.

MARRIED.

HOKE—CARTER—In Atchison, Kansas, Dec. 3rd, 1867, at the Babtist Church, by Rev. John Bakewell, of the Episcopal Church, Mr J. S. Hoke, (formerly of Schellsburg, Bedford co., Pa.,) to Miss Emma L. Carter, of Buffalo, N. Y. No cards.

The Atchison Daily Patriot, says:—We heartily congratulate the happy couple upon the favorable prospects with which they enter upon the voyage of life together. Just in the prime of life, possessing the best of health, economical and blessed with an abundance of this world's goods, and friends,—nothing can be more propitious or flattering to them than their futre. At least we can join with their many friends in wishing them all the happiness and prosperity which they are justly entitled to.

PUBLIC SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.—The undersigned executors of the last Will and testament of Abraham Keagy, late of Middle Woodberry tp., deceased, by virtue of the said Will, will sell at public sale at "Keagy's Bank," in Bedford county, Penna., on FRIDAY, the 17th day of JANUARY, 1868, the following described valuable real estate, viz:

1. A tract of land known as the "Abraham Keagy Farm," adjoining lands of William S. Elder on the North, Peter Keagy and Christian Hoffman on the West, Andrew Bassler on the South, and other lands of the said decedent on the East, containing ninety-one acres and one hundred and fifty-five perches, net measure, of which eighty acres are cleared and the balance well timbered, with a two story frame dwelling house, a frame bank barn, with wagon shed attached and other outbuildings thereon erected. There is a very fine young orchard thereon, also, good water convenient. The land consists of the best of limestone.

2. A tract adjoining the above containing thirty-six acres and sixty-seven perches, net measure, having thereon erected a first-class Grist Mill, with three run of Stone, a Mill house and stable attached, a Country Carding Mill, dwelling house and stable attached, Iron Foundry and Machine Shop, with a chopping Mill, and three dwelling houses and two Stables attached, with the patterns, flasks, &c.' &., belonging to the said estate, and about four acres of timber land. The water power is ample to supply all the above improvements and any other that may from time to time be erected. The water right is as good as any in the country. All the above property lies on the turnpike leading from Hollidaysburg to Pattonsville, within one mile of Woodberry, in one of the best wheat growing districts in southern Pennsylvania and is one of the most desirable locations in the State. The railroad in contemplation from Hollidaysburg to Pattonsville must pass directly through it.

TERMS—One-half cash in hand, the balance in two equal annual payments with interest, secured by judgment bonds or bonds and mortgage.

Sale to commence at ten o'clock of said day.
