☞ A terrific storm, accompanied by hail, visited the southern portion of this county on Sunday last, and did considerable damage to the crops. At McConnellsburg, Fulton county, the Methodist church was moved from its foundation by the storm.

THE WEST BRANCH CAMP MEETING for 1870, will commence Tuesday, August 16, to continue 10 days. The grounds are located between Williamsport and Lock Haven, on the Philada. and Erie railroad. The plan of this Association, it is believed, is different from, and is perhaps an improvement upon any other now in existence. 360 homes, (each consisting of 2 rooms about 8x9feet in blocks 72 feet in length and two stories high, are now ready for occupancy. The houses are water-proof, having good shingle roofs; they have also solid floors, and bunks sufficiently wide to contain two beds. The price at which these homes are rented for ten days is $6,00 if the first floor is desired, and $5,00 if the second is chosen. The location of each renter will be determined by lot, upon a day set for the drawing, so that all will be fairly dealt with.

Boarding houses, abundance of clear cold water, and all the conveniences and comforts that could be desired have been provided. The charges in all cases will be moderate. Boarding for the term $7,50, single meal 50 cts., and $1.00 per day. Bread, meat and vegetables supplied at market rates to those desiring to board themselves.

Excursion tickets will be issued by the various railroads. Free homes are offered to all Methodist ministers and their families who will order them before the day of drawing. The time set for drawing this year is July 26, all orders received before that time will be supplied; those received afterward only if there are homes not rented. If more space should be desired than is contained in the two rooms an additional amount can be had at the same rate, though one person may not order for himself more than four homes, two on each floor.—All that families need to make them comfortable is sufficient bedding—(straw will be provided for their accommodation,) sheeting or muslin for curtains, and whatever else they may desire to bring with them, all of which may be packed in a box or two and will come at but little cost. Address, either for information, or to order homes, West Branch Camp Meeting Association, Lock Haven, Pa.

The Local Paper.—A sensible article is the following from a Chicago journal: "What tells us so readily the standard of a town or city as the appearance of its paper? And its youth or its age can as well be determined by the observing as by a personal notice. The enterprise of its citizens is depicted by its advertisements, their liberality by the looks of the paper. Some papers show a good, solid, healthy foundation, plethoric purses, and a well-to-do appearance generally: others show a striving to contend with the grasping thousands around them, trying hard to wrench an existence from their close fisted communities. An occasional meteoric display in its columns of telegraph or local, or of editorials, shows what it can do if it had the means; but it cannot continue in the expensive work until support comes, which ought to be readily granted. A newspaper is like a church—it wants fostering in the commencement, and for a few years; then, as a general thing, it can walk alone, and reflect credit upon its location. Take your home paper—it gives you more news of immediate interest than any other paper can possibly do; it talks for you when other localities belie you; it stands up for your rights; you always have a champion in your home paper; and those who stand up for you should certainly be well sustained. Your interests are kindred and equal, and you must rise and fall together. Therefore it is your own interest to support your home paper, not grudgingly, but in a liberal spirit; not as a disagreeable duty, but as an investment that will amply pay the expenditure."

Not Difficult to Understand.

A Missouri editor calls upon delinquent subscribers in this harrowing way: "Oh, oh! it's enough to sicken the soul, the heart, gizzard of the stoutest and smutty phizzed editor's devil. We need money to refit. We are poorer than Job's unfortunate turkey, whose bones rattled a castanet accompaniment when he gobbled. If whole grocery stores were selling for a blue postage stamp apiece, we could not buy an empty mackeral kit! Friend! good friend: Sweet, negligent friend! Don't lay this paper down and think we mean some other individual! It's only three dollars, but a thousand such trifles make $3,000; and that's a big thing for a newspaper, enough to put us firmly on our feet again. Pay up! pay up!"

PROMPT TREATMENT.
TO RENDER EXISTENCE DESIRABLE

If you are suffering, or have suffered, from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urine organs, or your kidneys, get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky or flocky, or is it ropy on settling? Or does a thick skum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling on this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver complaint?

Now, reader, self-abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering, successful business men are always those whose organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, of nervousness, of palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged, they are always polite and pleasant in company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or any other meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflated by running to excess. These will not only ruin their constitution, but those they do business with or for.

How many men, from badly cured diseases, from the effects of self abuse and excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in these organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease—idiocy, lunacy, paralysis, spinal affections, suicide, and almost every form of disease humanity is heir to—and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the right one.

ROSADALIS

THE Great American Health Restorer, purifies the blood and cures Scrofula, Syphilis, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Diseases of Women and all Chronic Affections of the Blood, Liver and Kidneys. Recommended by the Medical Faculty and thousand of our best citizens.
Read the testimony of Physicians and patients who have used Rosadalis send for our Rosadalis Guide to Health or Almanac for this year, which we publish for gratuitous distribution; it will give you much valuable information.
Dr. R. W. Carr, of Baltimore says:
I take pleasure in recommending your Rosadalis as a very powerful alterative. I have seen it used in two cases with happy results—one in case of secondary syphilis, in which the patient pronounced himself cured after having taken five bottles of your medicine. The other is a case of scrofula of long standing, which is rapidly improving under its use, and the indications are that the patient will soon recover. I have carefully examined the formula by which your Rosadalis is made, and find it an excellent compound of all alterative ingredients.
Dr. Sparks, of Nicholasville, Ky., says he has used Rosadalis in cases of scrofula and secondary Syphilis with satisfactory results—as a cleaner of the blood I know no better remedy.
Samuel G. McFadden, Murfreeboro' Tennessee, says:
I have used seven bottles of Rosadalis, and am entirely cured of Rheumatism; send me four bottles, as I wish it for my brother, who has scrofulous sore eyes.
Benjamin Bechtol, of Lima, Ohio, writes, I have suffered for twenty years with an inveterate eruption over my body; a short time since I purchased a bottle of Rosadalis and it effected a perfect cure.
Rosadalis is sold by John Read and S. S. Smith, Huntingdon, Pa., and Druggists generally.

COUGHS, SORE THROAT, ETC.
No medicine or treatment can excel the powerful curative power of
DR. SIMMS'
WHITE PULMONIC BALSAM.

It cures with a rapidity unequalled by any other remedy offered for throat and lung diseases. It is recommended by over 2,000 persons in Wilmington, and hundreds in Philadelphia, Baltimore and other cities and communities throughout the country. Mr. Pennington, of Wilmington, Illinois, writes that there is not (with a few exceptions) a family in that city who will be without it if possible to procure it. Such is its popularity wherever it is known—and this popularity arises from the fact that it universally cures all who use it. There is no case of
COUGHS, COLDS, SORE THROAT,
ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, CROUP,
BLOOD SPITTING, HOARSENESS, and even Pulmonary Consumption, where the system is not broken down with the wear of the disease, or pretended medicine, or inexperienced advice, that this Balsam will not cure if carefully used according to directions. We guarantee it all we represent it be, and invite a trial from the afflicted everywhere. Price 50 cts., medium size, and $1 for large size bottles. Prepared only by
