Plainfield Classical Academy,

FOUR miles West of Carlisle. Tenth Session commences on Monday, May 5th, 1851.

This Institution has been established nearly five years, during which time such additions and improvements have been made as to render it one of the most commodious and convenient in the State.

In regard to healthfulness it may be mentioned that no case of serious sickness has occurred in the Institution since it was founded. Its moral purity is attested by the fact that depraved associations, scenes of vice, and resorts for dissipation have no existence in the neighborhood.

The course of instruction comprises all branches required by the merchant, professional man or collegian. Also modern languages, vocal and instrumental music, &c.

It is the determination of the Proprietor that the Institution shall sustain the reputation it has already acquired for imparting thorough instruction, and inculcating and establishing virtuous principles in the minds of the youth submitted to his charge.

Terms (per session of five months) $50 00.

For catalogues containing references, &c., address

Virginia Farms for Sale.

THE WINCHESTER VA., LAND AGENCY.

A. BAKER & L. T. MOORE, having formed an Agency for the sale of Lands lying in all sections of Virginia and other States, are now prepared to offer for sale a number of very DESIRABLE FARMS, located in the fertile and most remarkably healthy valley of Virginia. A number of these farms are of the best Limestone Land, well improved, and convenient to Winchester, which place is celebrated as being the best flour market distant from the seaboard. This Agency possesses facilities for procuring all the best land for sale in this section of the country, and persons desiring to purchase a good farm, at moderate rates, can avoid much loss of time and expense of travelling through the country in search of a farm, by addressing them, post paid, and getting one of the Agency's circulars, giving an accurate description, location, and price and conditions of payment of each farm they offer for sale.—There is now residing in the county of Frederick, towards of seventy families recently removed from various parts of Pennsylvania, and the Pennsylvanians instead of travelling into a strange land, may find his friends and neighbors settled on the valley which skirts from the Susquehanna through Maryland and Virginia, and terminates only in the sunny plains of Tennessee.

Agents will use great precaution to see that all title to all lands they sell are good.

Merchants, mechanics and tradesmen, wishing to procure a good location in this section of country for a paying business, would do well to apply to this Agency.

BAKER & MOORE, Agents,
Winchester, Frederick co., Va.

Capt. P. H. FRENCH'S Overland Expedition to California.

NOW published and for sale by the subscriber, a "Journal of French's Overland Expedition to California, by WM. MILES;" which left New York city, May 13, 1850, in the steamship "Georgia," and landed at San Francisco, December 14, following, by way of New Orleans, Lavacca, and San Antonia, Texas, El Paso on the Rio Grande, Gila River, to San Diego, on the Pacific, a distance of 1800 miles over land; from thence by water to San Francisco, after 7 months of the most unparalleled trials, sufferings and hardships. The "Journal" needs no description, every line speaks for itself. It is published in pamphlet form—price 15 cents for single copy.—Agents, Book Sellers, Merchants, &c., abroad, by remitting the cash in advance, will promptly be furnished with the "Journal" at a very liberal discount. As this is the first "book" put out by any one of that fatal "Expedition," and as there were 230 men besides, who accompanied it, from different States of the Union, it will be read with interest by their friends, neighbors, relatives, &c.

GREAT ARRIVAL!

JENNY LIND, the astonishing Vocalist, whose name draws the attention of the world, will no doubt soon visit this State. Every one having this chance and the means should not fail to hear her sweet voice. Prepare at once, and go to M. & L. STEINER'S Clothing Store, next door to Burkholder's Hotel, where you can fit yourself out and out at a very low rate. They have just received their which they will warrant to be equal in quality and as low in price as any other establishment. They have good Cloths on hand which will be made up at short notice. They particularly invite the attention of the public to their Vest and Pantaloon patterns.

Spring Stock,

Don't forget the place.

M. & L. STEINER.
