WHITE HALL ACADEMY.

3 miles west of Harrisburg, Pa.

THE third session of this new and flourishing Institution will commence on Monday, the 3rd of May next. Parents or Guardians having sons or wards to educate, or young men wishing to educate themselves, will do well to inquire into the merits of this school, as it is believed to possess advantages which may not be found elsewhere. The number of students is necessarily limited, the course and means of instruction are extensive, and the surrounding country is noted for the morality of its citizens and the healthfulness of its climate.

TERMS:

Boarding, washing, odging, and tuition, per session, (five months) $50 00

Instructors: DAVID DENLINGER, Principal and Teacher of Ancient and Modern Languages and Mathematics.

AMOS ROW, Assistant Teacher of Mathematics and Natural Sciences.

LEMUEL SIMMONS, Teacher of Vocal and Instrumental Music.

NEW STORE.

FILED to overflowing with NEW GOODS, and the cash system adopted—the pass-book system abolished—therefore, bring on your "ding bats" and save from 25 to 40 per cent., that otherwise you are required to pay where the credit system is in vogue.

The subscriber announces to the public that he has returned from the city with a large and complete stock of GOODS, all new, which have been selected with great care, from first hands, and with special reference to the wants of the people and for this market. They will be sold at 10 per cent. advance on first cost.

The merchant who does business on the cash principle has quick returns, and consequently can purchase his Goods to better advantage and sell at smaller profits than he who sells on time and has to make his paying customers pay the losses on the credit system. Buyers consider well this fact before you purchase.

Farmers, mechanics, laboring men and others, awake to your interests and free yourselves of the enormous tax under which you have been and are still laboring. This you can do by purchasing your Goods at the cheap cash store of the subscriber, at the old stand in South Hanover street, near Scott's hotel. My stock of goods consist of the prices of which will astonish every one. In the Ladies department will be found changeable and fancy Delaines, Berage Delaines, Silk Poplins, Ginghams, Prints of the latest patterns and the most fashionable French styles, together with a magnificent assortment of Laces, Edgings & White Goods. Swiss and Mull Muslins, plain, figured, striped and barred Muslins, of the best makes, latest designs and very low. In addition to the above I have a large supply of such as Coffee, Tea, Sugar, Spices, &c., the prices of cannot fail to please; Segar and Tobacco.

Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings,

Fresh Groceries,

By strict attention to business and a desire to please, I hope to receive a share of public patronage.

Plainfield Classical Academy,

FOUR miles West of Carlisle. The Twelfth Session commences on Monday, May 3, 1852.

This Institution has been in successful operation 7 years, during which time such additions and improvements have been made as to render it one of the most commodious and convenient in the State.

In regard to healthfulness it may be mentioned that no case of serious sickness has occurred in the Institution since it was founded. Its moral purity is attested by the fact that depraved associations, scenes of vice, and resorts for dissipation have no existence in the neighborhood.

The course of instruction comprises all branches required by the merchant, professional man or collegian. Also modern languages, vocal and instrumental music, &c.

It is the determination of the Proprietor that the Institution shall sustain the reputation it has already acquired for imparting thorough instruction, and inculcating and establishing virtuous principles in the mins of the youth submitted to his charge.

Terms (per session of five months) $50 00.
