Anti-License Law.

Below we publish the Law regulating and prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors in this Commonwealth, as it passed the Legislature finally. The Bill has received the signature of Gov. POLLOCK, and is therefore a law. Liquor dealers will regulate themselves accordingly:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the first day of October next, it shall be unlawful to keep or maintain any house, room, or place where vinous, spirituous, malt or brewed liquors, or any admixtures thereof, are sold and drank except hereinafter provided; and all laws, or parts of laws, inconsistent with the provisions of this act be, and the same are hereby repealed.

SEC. 2. That if any person or persons within this Commonwealth shall keep for sale and sell, or in connection with any other business or profitable employment give, receiving therefor any price, profit or advantage, by any measure whatever (and at the same time voluntarily afford a place or any other convenience or inducement, by which the same may be used as a beverage) any vinous, spiritous, malt or brewed liquor, or any admixture thereof, he, she or they, and any one aiding, abetting or assisting therein, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding fifty dollars, and undergo imprisonment not exceeding one month; and for a second or any subsequent offence shall pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, and undergo imprisonment not exceeding three months.

SEC. 3. That if any two or more persons conspire or act together, by which one may sell and the other provide a place or other convenience for drinking, with intent to evade the provisions of this act, each one so offending, upon conviction, shall be punished as provided in the second section of this act.

SEC. 4. That it shall be unlawful for any person to sell or keep for sale any vinous, spiritous, malt or brewed liquors, or any admixtures thereof, in cases not hereinbefore prohibited, in a less quantity than one quart, nor without license granted by the court of quarter sessions of the proper county, on petition presented for that purpose, to be advertised according to the first section of the act of the twenty-ninth of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, supplementary to the various acts relating to tavern licenses; but no such license shall be granted to other than citizens of the United States, of temperate habits and good repute for honesty: Provided, That no certificate shall be required or published as mentioned in the act herein referred to: Provided, That no license for the sale of liquors as aforesaid shall be granted to the keeper of any hotel, inn, tavern, restaurant, eating-house, oyster-house or cellar, theatre, or other places of entertainment, amusement or refreshment.

SEC. 5. That the said court by their rules shall fix a time at which applications for said licenses shall be heard, at which time all persons making objections shall be heard.

SEC. 6. That it shall not be lawful for the clerk of said court to issue any license, as aforesaid, until the applicant shall have filed the bond hereinafter required, and the certificate of the city receiver or county treasurer that the license fee has been paid to him.

SEC. 7. That the appraisers of licenses under this act shall be appointed, as provided by existing laws, except in the city of Philadelphia, where on the passage of this act and thereafter, at the beginning of every year, three reputable and temperate persons shall be appointed by the court of quarter sessions to appraise dealers in spiritous, vinous, malt or brewed liquors as aforesaid, and of distillers and brewers, and to do and perform all duties now enjoined by law, not inconsistant herewith; and said appraisers shall be citizens of the United States, in no manner connected with or interested in the liquor business and shall be compensated as now provided by law.

SEC. 8. That no license shall be granted without the payment to the receiver of taxes of the city of Philadelphia, or to the treasurers of the other counties of the State, for the use of the Commonwealth, three times the amount now fixed by law to be paid by venders of spiritous, vinous, or malt liquors, or brewers and distillers: Provided, That no license shall be granted for a less sum than thirty dollars.

SEC. 9. That the bond required to be taken of all persons who shall receive a license to sell spiritous, vinous, malt or brewed liquors, or any admixtures thereof, shall be in one thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful observance of all the laws of this Commonwealth relating to the business of vending such liquors, with two sufficient sureties and warrant of attorney, to confess judgment, which bond shall be approved by one of the judges of the court of quarter sessions of the peace of the proper county, and to be filed in said court, and whenever a judgment for any forfeiture or fine shall have been recovered against the principal therein, it shall be lawful for the district attorney of the proper county to enter judgment against the obligors in the said bond, and proceed to collect the same of the said principal or sureties.

SEC. 10. That every person licensed to sell spiritous, vinous or malt liquors, as aforesaid, shall frame his license under glass, and place the same so that it may at all times be conspicuous in his chief place of making sales; and no license shall authorize sales by any person who shall neglect this requirement, nor shall any license authorize the sale of any spiritous, vinous, or malt liquors on Sunday.

SEC. 11. That any sale made of any spiritous, vinous, or malt liquor contrary to this act, shall be taken to be a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction of the offence in the court of quarter sessions of the proper county, shall be punished in the manner prescribed by the second section of this act.

SEC. 12. That the provisions of this act as to imprisonment and license shall not extend to importers, who shall vend or dispose of said liquors in the original cases or packages as imported, nor to duly commissioned auctioneers, selling at public vendue or outcry, nor to native producers, brewers or distillers selling in quantities not less than five gallons, nor shall anything herein contained prohibit the sale by druggists of any admixtures of intoxicating liquors as medicines.

SEC. 13. That it shall be the duty of every constable of every town, borough, township, or ward, within this Commonwealth, at every term of the court of quarter sessions of each respective county, to make return, on oath or affirmation, whether, within his knowledge there is any place within his bailiwick kept and maintained in violation of this act, and it shall be the especial duty of the judges of the said courts to see that this return is faithfully made, and if any person shall make known to such constable the name or names of any one who shall have violated this act, with the names of witness who can prove the fact, it shall be his duty to make return thereof on oath or affirmation to the court, and upon his wilful failure so to do, he shall be held guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon indictment and conviction, shall be sentenced to imprisonment in the jail of the county for a period not less than one nor more than three months, and pay a fine not exceeding fifty dollars.

SEC. 14. That this act shall not interfere with any persons holding license heretofore granted until the time for which the same was granted shall have expired; nor shall any license which may be granted before the first day of July next authorize the sale of said liquors, or admixtures thereof, after the first day of October next, contrary to the provisions of this act.

KNOW-NOTHING TACTICS.—According to the Portland Argus, the Asst. Assessors in that city, who were zealous Know-Nothings and friends of Neal Dow, left off the lists the names of six or seven hundred voters known to be opposed to Dow. This trick was not discovered till within a day or two of the election.

At Cincinnati, when the Know-Nothings discovered that they were in the minority, they sent their bullies to two Wards that had given heavy Democratic majorities, who broke into the room containing the ballot-boxes, seized them and destroyed the ballots. Such is Know-Nothingism—nothing is too mean for the followers of Ned Buntline and Bill Pool to be engaged in. Fortunately for the people of Cincinnati, several of these Know-Nothing desperadoes are now lodged in prison.

☞ The Rev. Theodore Parker, and others, accused of participating in the Burns slave riot at Boston, have been discharged by Judge Curtis, on the ground that the indictments were void through informality.

☞ THE POST somewhere speaks of "winter lingering in the lap of spring," but it needs no poet to tell us it is the case here this season, the last few days having been decidedly wintry. Nor does it need a poet to inform the public that for all sorts of weather there is a very abundant provision of suitable and fashionable clothing at ROCKHILL & WILSON'S cheap store, No. 111 Chestnut street, corner of Franklin Place, Philadelphia.—1y

Markets.

Proclaim the news from shore to shore;
Great bargains sure, are on the wing,
Rare wonders then we now will sing:
At first we'll speak of CLOTHING rare,
Such trophies, sure will make you stare,
Of broad and narrow cloth so cheap
We'll take a moment's time to speak.
Delighted too you can't but be
With prices and their quality;
Dress and Sack Coats—aye, Vestings too,
What bargains now for all of you!
The Gents will our compliments receive,
And call they must the wonders to believe.
In Pants we have all kinds of styles,
One dollar and upwards, piles on piles.
In Summer Goods—for soon 'twill come—
We'll give you bargains all for fun.
Frocks and Over-coats so very fine,
Great wonders you shall see in every line,
Hosiery, Suspenders, Under-shirts for all,
All kinds of Gloves to please all who call.
But we cannot stop to enumerate,
We have bargains both good and great.
