Folger's Successor.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Judge W. Q. Gresham, postmaster general, received a telegram from the president after 11 o'clock last night informing him of his appointment to the secretaryship of the treasury. He immediately qualified and sent to the president his resignation as postmaster general. At 1.40 o'clock this morning Mr. Gresham went to the treasury department with Secretary Chandler. His appointment from the president was given to him by Mr. O. L. Pruden, assistant private secretary to the president, and his commission by Third Assistant Secretary of State A. A. Adee. The two assistant secretaries of the treasury, French and Coon, were present and tendered him their congratulations. The new secretary will leave here this afternoon to consult with the president. Under the law First Assistant Postmaster General Hatton becomes acting postmaster general for ten days.

Three Questions.

Why is it that at present so many manufacturers are idle, business depressed, wages low and thousands of laborers out of work, when we have had a republican tariff for the last 24 years?

What is the reason that real estate only sells at one half its value and that the price of the finest farms is barely up to what the buildings alone cost, while we enjoyed a republican protective tariff for 24 years?

Can you tell why farmers who are not entirely free of debt can hardly maintain an existence and in spite of abundant crops can not meet expenses, and at the same time we enjoyed a republican tariff for the last 24 years?

BLAINE is a "Great Dodger." He managed to dodge the Prohibition amendment in Maine—but he can't dodge the Mulligan and Fisher letters.

Always doing his Duty.

The principal motive of Governor Cleveland in all positions of life always was to do his duty, not like some men with the same opportunities, to fill his pockets and live on the fat of the land, but in a conscientous and unselfish way. As a son and brother, as mayor, as sheriff, as governor he never shirked his duty and if elected president he will not fail to act in accordance with this strong sense of duty, and will never forget that he is the servant of his people. By their fruits ye shall know them.

THAT agreement which Mr. Blaine wished to be made between his chief organ, the New York Tribune and the Labor Union of that city was "no good." Mr. Reid, the editor, in answer to the respectful request of the Union to modify certain points in his proposition, shamefully snubbed that body and in consequence Mr. Geary, president of the Printer's Union, when asked what action the Labor organizations would now take in the matter, said that they would "fight the Tribune with all their might, and unless the Republican party boycotts the Tribune we will fight the Republican candidates with all the workingmen of the country at our back to help us. We have gone into the fight to stay, and on November 5 Mr. Blaine and Mr. Reid will discover the mistake they have made."

GROVER CLEVELAND has no desire to make a travelling show of himself, like his magnetic opponent, the Plumed Knight. Cleveland stays in his office and does his duty. The decent class of voters opprove of his action and will cast their vote for the honest and dutiful governor. The difference is—Blaine seeks the office, while the office seeks Cleveland.

TAMMANY IN THE FIELD.

A Straight Ticket Nominated by the Convention.

Kelly Makes a Speech Declaring that Tammany will Support the Democratic Ticket.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Tammany hall held its county convention to-day and nominated a straight ticket. The hall was crowded and John Kelly was greeted with extraordinary enthusiastic applause. In calling the convention to order Kelly said: "So far as I understand you propose to hold this convention as representatives of the democratic party without regard to other organizations. [Loud applause.] Before, when we conferred with other bodies we bartered away our rights, in one instance by means of a lottery in a hat. Our party has lived through good and evil reports and to-day stands preeminently high before the people. I mean the people who are willing to look at both sides and decide according to their consciences. Truth is truth in the light of heaven and will prevail. Gentlemen, in selecting your candidates remember the words of Thomas Jefferson: 'Is he honest? Is he capable? if so he will do to send before the people.' The world may say what it pleases about us. We believed that the nomination at Chicago was an unwise one but Grover Cleveland is the nominee of the Democratic party and we will not separate from the party we have all known and loved so long. We shall give Cleveland and Hendricks a full, fair and honorable support."

Young MacVeagh on Cleveland.

Franklin MacVeagh's Interview in N.Y. Times.

It seems to me that Cleveland's sense of a public office being a public trust is just about perfect. In conversing with him on public matters you do not seem to be listening to a politician or a candidate for office and loose sight of the fact that you are talking to a man who will probably be our next President in his interesting and instructive ideas on the subject of good government. His political convictions are as firmly grounded and clear cut as possible and every letter, even speech or other utterance bearing on public matters proves how consistant he is in living up to those convictions. His idea of his duty to the public whom he serves transcends every other consideration. I consider Cleveland the best fitted man for the occasion of any nominee of either party since Abraham Lincoln. So we Independents have not only the motive for putting him against our own candidate, which is a sufficient motive, but the desire of supporting a man who we feel is in every way fitted for the position. There is an augean stable to be cleaned out. Cleveland is the Hercules of present public life.

The Prohibitionists in Convention.

The Prohibition county convention met on Thursday morning Sept. 25, at 10:30 o'clock in the audience hall of the Y. M. C. A., about 15 persons being present. Organization was effected by the choice of Rev. J. M. Graham, for President, W. W. Reese, Secretary, and Cleyan Dinges, assistant secretary. The following nominations were made: Associate Judge, Henry Spotts, of Union township; Assembly, Wm. H. Musser, of Milesburg, and G. W. Currin, of Centre Hall.

Mrs. Reese, State lecturer of the W. C. T. U., of Ohio, was called on for a speech and responded in a vigorous and entertaining manner. She said that the W. C. T. U., which society she represents, is essentially non-political. The members are the wives and sisters of Democrats and Republicans, and it would injure the cause for which they work for some of their members to ally themselves with a third party. They must elevate public sentiment. If public sentiment were on a level with themselves there would be no occasion for their existence. Individually, however, she is a prohibitionist, and believes the cause is growing.

Hon. A. A. Barker, of Ebensburg, chairman of the Prohibition State Committee, was introduced and spoke with force and eloquence. He is one of the original abolitionists and labored with Wm. Lloyd Garrison and other such worthy and honored men. Mr. Barker is considered to be one of the most prominent advocates of prohibition in the State.

At 12 o'clock the convention adjourned until 1:45 p. m.—Bellefonte Daily News.

Conference of the thirteenth Congressional District.

Met at St. Mary's Pa., on Tuesday night and reached their twenty-sixth ballot without a result, there being one delegate abscent from Mifflin, Union and Clinton counties each.

WHEN the Mason & Hamlin Company announced the accomplishment of a great improvement in Upright Pianos, which they would soon give to the public, much was expected, because of the vast improvements which had been effected by them in reed instruments, and the acknowledged superexcellence of their organs. These expectations are fully justified by the pianos which they are producing, which have extraordinary purity and refinement of tone. Every mechanic will see that the peculiarities of their construction must add greatly to their durability and especially their capacity to keep in good tune.

This company have as great a future in their pianos as they are already realizing in their organs, which are confessedly unequaled among such instruments.—Boston Traveller.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 30, 1884.

The attention of politicians hereabouts is largely turned towards Ohio just now, and the greatest interest centres in the campaign in that state. In no previous presidential campaign within my recollection has this been the case. Heretofore Ohio has been conceded in advance to the Republicans, and Indiana, a more doubtful State in the past, has been the focus of special interest at this stage of the contests. But now there is little question about Indiana, and the Republicans are scared nearly to death about one of their own States. Pension Commissioner Dudley has left his office and gone to Ohio to take charge of the corruption fund and direct the movements to buy the State. Having been first lieutenant under Dorsey in Indiana in 1880, he is considered well qualified for such a mission. Mr. Dudley resigned his office here because it was the wish of the Secretary of the Interior that he should do so. They have not been in accord for some time, and now Dudley goes to Ohio to work for Blaine, under promise from the latter that he shall have Teller's place if he succeeds in buying the necessary number of votes to carry that State.

I had a talk last evening with a gentleman who knows the inside plans of the Blaine managers and learned from him the plan upon which Dudley is to operate. The seven counties of Cuyahoga, Sandusky, Lucas, Erie, Hamlinton, Montgomery and Butler, which gave Mr. Hoadley 12,472 majority, have been selected as a special battle ground. In these seven counties there are 397 voting precincts, with an average of a fraction over 400 votes each. They also include every large city, except Columbus and Springfield. In each of these precincts a reliable worker is to be placed, and he is to be supplied with the amunitions of war, and each of these 397 workers is expected to make an average of forty conversions." The arguments used to secure those conversions, are bribery and chicanery—the only weapons of the party in latter years. It is possible that by these means the Blaine managers may succeed in holding the State, If they don't the jig is up with them. If they do they will simply hold what has never been counted in the Democratic column, and will still be a mighty long ways from final success. The fact that there is such a scare about Ohio, shows the position and desperation of the Blaine cause. As Col. Dudley's resignation does not take effect until Nov. 10th he is doing all this dirty work while an officer of the Government, and as the head of the Pension Bureau he has taken with him as aides a large number of special agents, who are on the rolls of that office. Dudley would make a nice Secretary of the Interior—just as James. G. Blaine would make a sweet-scented President of the United States. PHONO.

Chronic Dysentery.

Mr. James Brannan, Second avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa., writes: "For two years I have been constantly troubled with a chronic diarrhœa, or dysentery, having had, on an average, from twenty to twenty-five passages every twenty-four hours, and every one bloody. I had thoroughly tried all the prominent physicians in Pittsburgh, was twice in the West Penn Hospital, the first time thirteen weeks, and though I left it much better, yet in five days I was as bad as ever. I then tried two other great doctors in this city, and one of them finally assured me I was not long for this world, and advised me to write to my friends about it. I next went to Dr. Hartman, without the least confidence that he could do anything for me. He examined me, smiled, and said, he could stop the bloody discharges in less than two weeks, which he did with PERUNA, and I have now been entirely well for several weeks, and never felt better in my lif, though I am still taking his PERUNA. I will take it whenever I need medicine.

Mr. Patrick Burns, Pittsburgh, writes: "I have suffered intensely from piles and chronic diarrhœa. I was treated by five of the best physicians and surgeons in the city of Pittsburgh, and with all grew constantly worse. Finally three of them said my only hope was an operation. This frightened me, and I went immediately to Dr. Hartman, who has entirely cured me with PERUNA. I have been at work now for three months, and never in my life felt better. Call and see me at corner of Twenty-seventh and Mulberry streets, Twelfth ward, Pittsburgh."

Mr. Patrick Cunningham, S. S, near Sidney street, Pittsburgh, Pa., writes: "For five years I have suffered inexpressibly from internal and external piles. I have tried the best physicians of Pittsburgh and Allegheny without relief. I went to Dr. Hartman, who cured me without detention from work with PERUNA."

Charles Frank, of Emrichville, Jefferson county, Ohio, writes: "I had piles and fistula in ano for four years. I had suffered constantly with a discharge of matter from the parts, and sometimes from the contents of the bowels through it. I could not have borne it much longer. I had heard so much of the ill effects of a knife operation that I resolved to go to Dr. Hartman. He ridiculed the silly idea of cutting it, and at once performed his own original operation without the knife, and without pain. I am thoroughly cured, though of course I took PERUNA."
