CITY AND SUBURBAN.

(FROM SATURDAY'S EVENING GAZETTE.)

Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society

The annual election of the Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society took place at Harrisburg, on Tuesday, January 17th, 1865. After the usual meeting of the Executive Committee, composed of some of the most prominent horticulturists of the State, the regular yearly meeting of the society occurred.

The business in order was the election of officers.

John Murdock, Jr., of Allegheny county, was appointed chairman.

After keeping open the polls from 3 until 4 o'clock P. M., as required by law, the gentlemen named were unanimously elected—the charter of the society requiring that one Vice President shall be elected from each Congressional district of the State, and other executive officers at large: President—A. Boyd Hamilton, Dauphin county. Vice Presidents—1st district, James A. McCrea, Philadelphia; 2d district, Craig Biddle, Philadelphia; 3d district, V. L. Bradford, Philadelphia; 4th district, James E. Mitchell, Philadelphia; 5th district, Adrain Cornell, Bucks; 6th district, William H. Holstein, Montgomery; 7th district, Isaac W. Van Leer, Chester; 8th district, Tobias Barto, Berks; 9th district, J. M. Dunlap, Lancaster; 10th district, John H. Cowden, Schuylkill; 11th district, Joseph Sigman, Northampton; 12th district, Daniel G. Driesbach, Luzerne; 13th district, John C. Morris, Susquehanna; 14th district, Amos E. Kapp, Northumberland; 15th district, George H. Bucher, Cumberland; 16th district, D. O. Gehr, Franklin; 17th district, Lewis W. Hall, Blair; 18th district, B. Morris Ellis, Lycoming; 19th district, Willard Russell, Erie; 20th district, Michael C. Trout, Mercer; 21st district, John S. Goe, Fayette; 22d district, John Murdock, Jr., Allegheny; 23d district, William Bissell, Allegheny; 24th district, Joshua Wright, Washington.

Additional Members of the Executive Committee.—Wm. Colder, Dauphin; J. R. Eby, Dauphin; B. G. Peters, Dauphin; John H. Ziegler, Dauphin; Peter Hurdick, Lycoming; Frederick Watts, Cumberland; James Gowen, Philadelphia; David Taggart, Northumberland; J. S. Haldeman, Thos. P. Knox, Montgomery.

Corresponding Secretary.—J. Young, Dauphin. Chemist and Geologist.—S. S. Haldeman, Lancaster.

A proposition inviting the Society to hold its next exhibition at Easton was received.

On motion of Mr. Kapp, of Northumberland, Messrs. A. B. Hamiltoon, J. B. Rutherford, A. B. Longaker, A. E. Kapp, Joseph Wright, Wm. Colder, D. G. Driesbach and John H. Zeigler were appointed a committee to advertise proposals for holding the next State exhibition, which was fixed to take place September 27th, 28th, 29th and 30th.

On motion of J. S. Haldeman, it was resolved to petition the Legislature to make provision for taxing all dogs in the State, and ask the attention of the Governor to the same subject.

The Gamblers.

The Post, of this morning, contains the following: "A correspondent desires to know why the gamblers of this city were not arrested at the time information was lodged against them. We are not able to furnish our friend with police secrets nor the name of the party who advised the immediate 'skedaddle' in time to save them. There was not the same kind feeling towards the lottery venders, and they must therefore suffer."

The inference from the above "squib" is that Mayor Lowry, who recently put his hand down so promptly upon the lottery dealers, (and for which act he has the thanks of the honest portion of the community,) has extended some special favor to the gambling fraternity. As the Post intimates, there are some "police secrets" connected with the "skedaddle" of the gamblers, but so far as Mayor Lowry and his police are concerned, the gamblers were treated precisely as the lottery dealers. As soon as the informations were placed in his hands, the police made simultaneous visits to all the gambling rooms, only to find them vacant. The informations were only returned to Court, so that true bills might be found, and held over the heads of the parties, to deter them from making their appearance again in the city. How the gamblers got wind of the intention to arrest them is a "mystery" which time may yet develop. Any attempt, however, to cast suspicion upon the Mayor, in this connection, must signally fail. If the reporter of the Post wishes to be fully informed in regard to the action of Mayor Lowry in this whole matter, he has only to call upon him or his clerk, either of whom will take pleasure in making known all the facts.

A New Counterfeit Greenback.

We were shown to-day a counterfeit United States Treasury note, of the denomination of five dollars, which, although very coarsely executed, may deceive many persons—as it is a very common practice to take anything in the shape of a greenback, without awaiting to scrutinize it closely. The counterfeit, as we have stated, is very poorly executed, the engravings being quite coarse and rough in appearance. The "Goddess of Liberty," on the left hand end of the note, and the ground-work around the figure 5 on the upper right hand corner, are very poorly engraved, and present a dim and mixed appearance. The green on the back is of an indifferent shade, and unlike the genuine. The engraving is shorter than that of the genuine, by about a quarter of an inch. Good judges of money will have no difficulty in detecting this fraud at first sight, but many unsuspecting persons may be deceived by them. The fraud is a dangerous one, and the public should be on the look out for it.

The Neeson-Ott Homicide—Acquittal of the Defendant.

At ten o'clock this morning, the jury in the case of James Neeson, on trial for the murder of Frank Ott, came into Court with their verdict. The counsel in the case, together with the prisoners and a large number of his friends, were present. After the usual formality attendant upon the rendition of a verdict in cases of this character, the Clerk announced it from the record "that the defendant was not guilty." There was an attempt to applaud the verdict which was promptly checked by the officers of the Court. The prisoner was then discharged by proclamation, and after receiving the congratulations of his friends, left the court room.

The jury, we learn, had but little difficulty in arriving at a verdict. The first ballot was taken immediately after retiring to their room on Friday evening, and the vote stood eleven for acquittal and one for conviction. No other ballot was taken until morning, when the vote was unanimous for acquittal.

The Casualties in the Attack on Fort Fisher.

From a long list of the killed and wounded at Fort Fisher, we take the names of the following Pennsylvanians, officers and men, of the army and navy:

United States District Court.

The case of John F. Murdock, charged with perjury, was concluded yesterday evening. The jury returned a verdict of guilty. The counsel for defence moved for a new trial, and the motion will come up for argument at a future time.

Murdock was tried this morning on another charge of perjury, alleged to have been committed in the case of another institute. After hearing the testimony and the arguments of the counsel, the jury retired, and in a short time returned a verdict of not guilty.

POST OFFICE AFFAIRS.—The Postmaster General has ordered the following:

Establish a new office at Soho, Allegheny county, Pennsylvania, on the Connellsville railroad, about three miles from Pittsburgh, and appoint Gottlieb Gerner Postmaster. The rapidly increased community of the last few years renders this office very desirable, and hereafter four or five hundred families will receive regular mail facilities six days in each week.

THE GAME LAWS.—It should be borne in mind that it is unlawful to kill any quail, partridge, grouse, pheasants, or rabbits, between the fifth day of January and twenty-fifth day of October, and any woodcock between the fifth day of January and twentieth day of July. The penalty is five dollars for each offense, and persons offering the game for sale are liable to the penalty.

PROMOTED.—Governor Curtin has ordered a commission to be issued to Lieutenant Colonel Harry White, as Colonel of the 67th Pennsylvania Volunteers.

A CASE has just been decided in the Hartford courts, relative to the ownership of a grindstone. The expenses of the litigation are between three and four hundred dollars. A good many legal tools were sharpened on that grindstone, and the clients are deserving of great credit for turning so steadily and patiently.

IT is currently reported that Mosby has been removed to Lynchburg to keep him out of the hands of our cavalry, and that he is rapidly recovering from his wound. Kincheloe has command of the gang, but does not attempt the daring raids of his chief.

THE GREAT PURIFIER. HEMAPANAKA.

Since the introduction of medicine, the origin of disease has perhaps been the subject of more serious and scientific consideration by the most learned of the profession than any other connected with the laws of the Great Creator; not a few have contended that all diseases have their origin in the stomach; others, the solids of the body; others again, and by far the greatest number, contend and reason that the BLOOD itself is the very fountain of life—that if it becomes impure, then disease in its worst forms—Scrofula, Cancer, Ulcers, &c., appear; and indeed, experience in treating this class of diseases by purifying the blood and thereby effecting their eradication and cure, prove this to be the correct theory: acting upon which theory, the medicine now known as HEMAPANAKA, was composed and brought into practice, producing the most gratifying results.

Its use soon exercises such a mastery over SCROFULA, ULCERATIONS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, TETTER, SALT RHEUM, LIVER COMPLAINT, LOSS OF APPETITE, DYSPEPSIA, RHEUMATISM, GENERAL DEBILITY, &c., &c., &c., as to give, from the time it is first taken, encouragement to the patient, by making both seen and felt, the good it is about to accomplish. It was thought best to put it up in bottles at 50c. and $1.00 each,—as many persons are disposed to try an article but are often deterred at the expense,—so the trial here can be made at a moderate outlay, and satisfy the purchaser that the article is what is claimed for it to be, viz: the greatest HEALTH GIVER ever brought before the people. Delicate Females will find in it the medicine they need.

That the public may form some idea of its peculiar curative merits, we subjoin a list of the principal articles of which it is composed, with a short description of the uses and adaptation of each, taken from the highest authority known to medical science.

HONDURAS SARSAPARILLA is used with a beneficial effect in cases of Rheumatism, Scrofulous Affections, Cutaneous Diseases and other depraved conditions of health.

DANDELION is tonic, diuretic, and aperient. It has a specific action upon the liver, exciting it when languid, to secretion. It has been much used in Germany in diseases of the digestive organs.

IODIDE POTASSIUM. There are few diseases in which it has not proved beneficial; it is used in Scrofulous Affections with great benefit; it has also been used with much success in treatment for Inflammation of the Eye. It generally increases the appetite and flesh.

LAVENDER FLOWERS are aromatic, tonic and highly invigorating in cases of Nervous Debility.

WINTER GREEN is especially valuable in cases of Scrofula Rheumatism.

CHAMOMILE FLOWERS are advantageously used in cases of Enfeebled Digestion, but are especially applicable to cases of General Debility with weak appetite.

MEZEREON BARK. It acts favorably as an alterative in Chronic Affections, Chronic Rheumatism and obstinate Diseases of the Skin.

The balance of the formula is withheld as a protection against fraud.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL for the rapid cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the Relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease. So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten. We can only assure the public, that its quality is carefully kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all that it has ever done.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of our remedies, but space here will not permit the insertion of them. The agents below named furnish gratis our American Almanac in which they are given; with also full descriptions of the complaints they cure.

Those who require an alterative medicine to purify the blood will find AYER'S COMP. EXT. SARSAPARILLA the remedy to use. Try it once, and you will know its value.

HOMEOPATHIC. HUMPHREY'S SPECIFIC Homeopathic Remedies Stand confessedly at the head of remedial means for the use of the people. They are alike removed from the poisonous, dangerous, and repulsive doses of quackery, or Old School practice, the inconvenience of water-cure, or the intricate and perplexing obscurities of the usual Homeopathic books and medicines. Consisting of simple specifics for the various diseases to which they are related—put up in the form of simply sugar pellets—and prepared of ingredients neither dangerous nor disgusting, they are the ready aid of the parent or nurse, and the comfort of the complaining and invalid. They possess these positive advantages. They are harmless—no injury can arise from their use. They are simple—you always know what to take, and how to take it. They are convenient—you can give the proper Sugar Pills at a moment's warning, without hesitation or delay. They are efficient—in thousands of cases disease is arrested at once, and the system cured without prostration or delay.

MEDICAL.

DR. LIGHTHILL ON CATARRH.

DR. LIGHTHILL, THE AUTHOR OF "Letters on Catarrh," "A Popular Treatise on Deafness," &c., IS NOW AT THE ST. CHARLES HOTEL, PITTSBURGH, PA., AND CAN BE CONSULTED UNTIL FRIDAY EVENING, Dec. 23d, 1864, ON Deafness, Catarrh, AND ALL THE VARIOUS DISEASES OF THE EAR, THROAT AND AIR PASSAGES.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH:

The first sensation is usually a feeling of dryness and heat in the nose and a frequent inclination to sneezing. There is an inability to breathe freely, as the nose becomes stopped up, sometimes on one side, sometimes on the other.

Soon a clear, watery, acrid discharge makes its appearance, excoriating the nostrils, and edges of the lips, which become red and somewhat swollen. After a few days the discharge becomes thick, yellowish, extremely frequent and continues to be a marked feature of the disease, and a source of much danger, and the greatest annoyance. After more or less time, it becomes purulent, highly offensive, and assumes an extremely fetid odor. It is usually so profuse as to require, when confined to the nose, the frequent application of the handkerchief, or if it drops into the throat, which is more particularly the case, while the body is in a horizontal position, constant expectoration, and sometimes both.

Sleep is frequently disturbed by a sensation of choking, caused by the presence of the discharge in the throat. Owing to the heat in the head, the watery portion of the secretion often evaporates, and assuming a condition of solidity is deposited upon the membrane of the nose and upper part of the throat, in the shape of crests or hardened lumps. The accumulation of these incrustations produces a feeling of discomfort, and narrows the nasal passage so as to embarrass respiration. Therefore frequent efforts have to be made to remove them, either by forcibly blowing the nose or by persistent hawking—a practice so disagreeable to the one affected as it is to those around him. After the removal, that side of the incrustation which adhered to the mucuous membrane will sometimes be found bloody, a fact which explains the force required for its dislodgment. During sleep these incrustations accumulate more rapidly, and the feeling therefore is most uncomfortable in the morning. Sometimes the efforts to clear the throat are futile until after breakfast, or after something warm is swallowed. Some patients state that they are not successful until they have swallowed some whisky or brandy. The discharge, which is at first without smell, assumes, in the progress of the complaint, an excessively fetid odor, the breath participates in this, and becomes occasionally so revoltingly offensive as to render the patient an object of disgust to himself as well as to others. Ulceration of the mucuous membrane of the nose takes place frequently, sometimes even attacking the bones when small particles of substance will occasionally be found mixed with the discharge. The accumulation of the discharge, together with the thickened condition of the mucuous membrane, renders respiration through the nasal passages very difficult, and oftentimes impossible, necessitating respiration principally through the mouth, a method very deleterious to the general health, but more particularly to the lungs, as will be shown hereafter. The unpleasant noise produced during sleep, known as snoring, originates from the same cause. The voice loses its musical quality, and assumes a harsh and nasal character; the sense of smell becomes much impaired or entirely lost, and the same effect, though less frequent, is produced on the sense of taste. Occasionally, while blowing the nose, a crackling or bubbling sound will be heard in the ear, and hearing will be found to be thick and snapped up, but return suddenly with a snapping sound. This phenomenon is usually repeated until, at one time, hearing does not return, and remains permanently injured. Noises in the head of every conceivable description will make their appearance, and add to the distress of the sufferer, and hearing be lost so gradually that a considerable degree of deafness may exist before the person is really aware of the fact. Their eyes are apt to become weak, irritable and disposed to water on exposure to wind and cold, or after the slightest exertion. A pain more or less acute, or a distressing feeling of pressure is experienced over the eyes, and sometimes on the back of the head, and also pain in the face, closely resembling neuralgia, for which it is often mistaken. The distress in the head weakens the memory and produces irritability and moroseness of disposition. The stomach generally suffers more or less, is weak and irritated, the appetite capricious, and is nearly always back in the morning. In severe cases the system becomes feeble and prostrated, and there is an aversion or inability to either physical or mental exertion. Not unfrequently catarrh proves fatal either by debilitating the system or wearing out the patient, or by traveling upwards and producing sore throat affections, bronchitis, and finally consumption. It may be safely asserted, that hereditary predisposition, catarrh is the most frequent and important cause of this fatal complaint.

Catarrh has been considered an incurable disease, and on the strength of that supposition has been neglected by both the profession and the public. As it is the exciting cause in full half the cases of Deafness, Drs. Lighthill have for years past, made its proper treatment their special study, and have by their success fully established the curability of this complaint. That this is no mere assertion will be readily comprehended by the annexed testimonials from highly respectable parties who have been under their care.

TESTIMONIALS:

PITTSBURGH, PA., Nov. 5, 1864.

This will certify that I have been under the care of Dr. Lighthill, for the cure of Catarrh, and that, as though he has attended me for little over one week, I feel that a permanent cure is to be effected, and am so much better in all respects as to warrant me in giving publicity to these facts and recommending Dr. Lighthill to any one affected with Catarrh. JACOB FORSYTH.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2, 1864.

This is to certify that I have been afflicted with Catarrh for some years, which produced the usual disagreeable affections. I consulted Dr. Lighthill about nine or ten months since, and at once placed myself under his care. I am entirely free from Catarrh, my throat is perfectly healthy, and my health is very much improved. P. E. NOLAN, Office Erie Railroad, foot of Duane street.

From the Hon. Ira Fish, Patton, Maine.

DR. LIGHTHILL:—Dear Sir,—I send you a statement of my case, which you may use as you think proper. I have acquaintances in different parts of the States, have served three years as Senator of Penobscot county, and three years as Representative—in all six years—in our State Legislature. My statement may benefit some of those afflicted with my disease.

For several years I have been afflicted with Catarrh. I have tried many prescriptions for it without receiving any benefit therefrom. I have taken your medicine about ten months, and it has cured me. I would recommend to those afflicted with this disorder to apply to you. I am confident if they will strictly follow your directions that a cure will be effected, however inveterate the case may be.

Respectfully yours, IRA FISH.

From Rev. R. P. Russell, Dyan, Mass.

I have been much troubled with Catarrh of the worst type for some twenty years. It gradually grew worse, inducing cough and hoarseness, destroying the sense of smell and breaking down my general health to such a degree as to compel me to resign my pastorate and suspend public speaking. I made diligent use of the usual remedies, such as snuff of different kinds, nitrate of silver, tar water and inhalations, but without any very salutary effect. Last summer I heard of Dr. Lighthill's successful mode of treating catarrh, visited him, and put myself under his treatment. I began immediately to improve, and this improvement has gone on to the present time. My catarrh has gradually melted away, my cough has disappeared, my voice has become natural, and I am once more able to preach the blessed Gospel. Let me advise all troubled with catarrh afflictions to apply to Dr. Lighthill. Lynn, Mass., Feb. 1864. R. P. RUSSELL. oc31:lyMW&F
