KANSAS.—The Kansas Herald of Freedom, September 8th, contains a full account of the Kansas Free State Convention which assembled at Big Springs on the 5th inst. The resolutions declare that the interests of the inhabitants require that Kansas should be a Free State; that free labor will best promote its happiness, the rapid population, the prosperity and the wealth of Kansas. They approve the admission of free negroes and mulattoes into the territory, declare that they owe no obedience to the acts of the present spurious Legislature, and call the citizens to meet and hold an election on the second Tuesday of October, to choose a Delegate to Congress. The Convention nominated Gov. Reeder for the Territorial Delegate, and that gentleman has accepted the nomination.

☞ A movement in Barley is noticed in the Rochester (N. Y.) papers, the demand principally being from Philadelphia. Agents are buying the crops on the ground. The brewers of New York keep out of the market, in consequence of the Maine law, and a desire it is said, to show the farmers that the effect of the prohibitory liquor law would be to depreciate this description of grain, and thus influence their votes at the next election.

"It shall be the duty of the several assessors of each district to attend at the place of holding every general, special or township election, during the whole time said election is kept upon, for the purpose of giving information to the inspectors and judges when called on in relation to the right of any person assessed by them to vote at such election, or such other matters in relation to the assessment of voters as the said inspectors or either of them shall from time to time require.

"No person shall be permitted to vote at any election as aforesaid, than a white freeman of the age of twenty one years of more, who shall have resided in the State at least one year, and in the election district where he offers his vote at least ten days preceeding such election, and within two years paid a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election. But a citizen of the United States, who has previously been a qualified voter of this State, and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the election district, and paid taxes aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in the State six months; PROVIDED, That the white freeman, citizens of the United States, between the age of twenty one and twenty-two years who have resided in an election district ten days as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote although they shall not have paid taxes.

"Every person qualified as aforesaid, and who shall make due proof if required, of his residence and payment of taxes as aforesaid, shall be admitted to vote in the township, ward or district in which he shall reside.

"If any shall prevent or attempt to prevent any officer of any election under this act from holding such election, or use or threaten any violence to any such officer, or shall interrupt or improperly interfere with him in the execution of his duty, or shall block up the window or avenue to any window where the same may be holding, or shall riotously disturb the peace at such election, or shall use or practice any intimidating threats, force or violence, with design to influence unduly or overawe any elector, or to prevent him from voting or to restrain the freedom of choice, such persons on conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars and be imprisoned for any time not less than three nor more than twelve months, and if it shall be shown to court, where the trial of such offence shall be had, that the person so offending was not a resident of the city, ward, district or township where the offence was committed, and not entitled to vote therein, then on conviction he shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned not less than six month nor more than two years.

"If any person or persons shall make any bet or wager upon the result of any election within the Commonwealth, or shall offer to make any such bet or wager, either by verbal proclamation thereof, or by any written or printed advertisement challenge or invite any person to make such bet or wager, upon conviction thereof he or they shall forfeit and pay three times the amount so bet or to be bet.

"If any person not by law qualified, shall fraudulently vote at any election in this Commonwealth, or being otherwise qualified shall vote out of his proper district, or if any person knowing the want of such qualifications, shall aid or procure such person to vote, the person offending shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not exceeding two hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three months.

"If any person shall vote at more than one election district, or otherwise fraudulently vote more than once on the same day, or shall fraudiently fold or deliver to the inspector two tickets together, with the intent illegally to vote, or shall procure another so to do, he or they offending, shall on conviction be fined in any sum not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for any term not less than three nor more than twelve months.

"If any person not qualified to vote in this Commonwealth, agreeably to law, (except the sons of qualified citizens) shall appear at any place of election for the purpose of issuing tickets or of influencing the citizens qualified to vote, he shall on conviction forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars for every such offence, and be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three months."

Agreeably to the provisions of the sixty-first section of said act, every General and Special Election shall be opened between the hours of eight and ten in the forenoon, and shall continue without interruption or adjournment until seven o'clock in the evening, when the polls shall be closed.

And the Judges of the respective districts aforesaid, are by the said act required to meet at the Court House, in the borough of Carlisle on the third day after the said day of election, being Friday the 12th day of October then and there to perform the things required of them by law.

Given under my hand, at Carlisle, this 13th day of September A. D., 1855.
