sion to result in much good. Quite a number of young people have been seeking the salvation of their souls and the good work is still progressing.

HALF CENT CASE.—John Binge, lately put up at Steidham's tavern, Elkton. Horse feed cost 12½ cents.—He tendered a ten and five cent piece, and received two cents change. Binge brought suit to recover the half cent, and the case was decided by a non-suit—prosecutor to pay costs, amounting to $1 45.

☞ If you have a sore or painful disease, go and get a bottle of Du Vall's Gideonic Oil, and you will not rue it—no! you will purchase more; this has been the case, and will be so in time to come.

THE

NEW YORK LEDGER

FOR 1858!

THE BEST FAMILY PAPER IN THE WORLD!

All the Favorite Writers retained, and New ones added.

Still Greater Attractions for the New Year.

The circulation of THE NEW YORK LEDGER is now Three Hundred and Thirty Thousand Copies, which is greater than that of any Ten other Literary Papers in America.

The profits on this unparalleled circulation enable the proprietor of THE LEDGER to expend sums upon it which would soon swamp any ordinary publication.

A paper with a circulation of only a hundred thousand or so would sink under the expenses of THE LEDGER in less than six months.

All of the old and favorite Contributors will continue to write for THE LEDGER as heretofore.

No expenses will be spared to secure others whose pens shall be considered competent to add to THE LEDGER'S attractions and usefulness.

MRS EMMA D E N SOUTHWORTH writes only for THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

FANNY FERN writes only for the NEW YORK LEDGER.

SYLVANUS COBB Jr., writes only for THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

EMERSON BENNETT writes only for THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

ALICE CARY, Mrs SIGOURNEY and Dr NELSON writes only for THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

GEORGE D PRENTICE, JOHN G SAXE, and all the other best writers, contribute to THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

THE LEDGER is devoted to POLITE LITERATURE ORIGINAL ILLUSTRATED TALES, ESSAYS, POETRY, SKETCHES, BIOGRAPHY, NEWS, &c.

THE LEDGER is everywhere acknowledged to be the best paper in the world, hence its extraordinary and unbounded popularity.

The Proprietor of the LEDGER employs the best talent, and by so doing makes the best paper in the country.

THE NEW YORK LEDGER is printed on beautiful white paper, and is composed of eight pages, making the handsomest weekly paper in the Union. [illegible] Subscribers are requested to [illegible] promptly. Subscribers will find it to their interest to form clubs, as we make very liberal terms to clubs. Specimen copies are sent for $4. Any person sending eight subscribers at $3.00 each (one being to our lowest club rates) and receiving an $12 will be entitled to one copy free. Terms invariably in advance. Address all letters to

Publisher of the
NEW YORK LEDGER,
44 Ann street, New York.

N. B. Newspapers copying this advertisement or giving it a place in their columns, will be entitled to a copy of THE LEDGER for one year, provided they send a marked copy of their paper containing the advertisement, and also notify us of the fact by letter. Remember, the name of the paper must also be written in full, and not merely initials or abbreviations, and the paper must be addressed to us, and not to any of our agents.

A high premium will be given to any active man who will devote his whole time to the business of obtaining subscribers for THE LEDGER. Persons who are not well acquainted with the business, and who wish to make a trial, can do so at small expense. Full directions, with specimens, sent free to any person who writes for them. Address as above.

HOWARD ASSOCIATION,

PHILADELPHIA

[illegible]

TO ALL PERSONS AFFLICTED WITH Seminal Weakness, Spermatorrhœa, Mental Weakness, Impotence, Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Syphilis, the Vice of Onanism, &c. &c. &c.

The HOWARD ASSOCIATION, in view of the terrible fatality attendant upon these diseases, and the fearful extent to which they are practiced, have established a Consulting Department, under the care of a Physician of the Institution, who has been appointed by the Association, and who will give his undivided attention to the treatment of these diseases. Such a medical office, and such treatment, is believed to be unprecedented in the history of the profession, and the success attending it, unparalleled by any other system of treatment. The Physician, in consulting with patients, has the advantage of the experience and observation of a practitioner who has devoted his whole attention to this class of diseases, and who has had under his care more than Twenty Thousand cases of Seminal Weakness, Spermatorrhœa, and Syphilis, of every variety and degree, contracted in the practice of his profession
