Postscript.

☞ This (Friday) morning, we learn that Mr. Coulter, one of the Judges of our Supreme Court, died a few days since while on a visit to his family. Mr. Coulter was the only Whig elected last fall, and drew the long term of fifteen years.

Married:

In Jessup, on the 15th inst., by O. S. Beebe, Esq., Mr. Harmon Weby, of Forest Lake, and Miss Emma T. Fessenden, of the former place.

The Printer Boys were bountifully remembered, which made them call for all kinds of blessings to follow the happy donors through life. If it was the handi-work of the fair bride, may her sun of life when declining in the West, be long setting and gently go down.

In Choconut, on the 14th inst., by Rev. S. E. Darrow, Mr. Perrin S. Ross, of Middletown, and Miss Anna Jane Thomas, of Choconut.

In Bridgewater, on the 6th inst., at the House of G. W. Crocker, by Rev. Mr. Mulkey, Mr. David Allen and Miss Abby L. Crocker, all of Bridgewater.

On the 20th inst., by the same, at the House of Rev. J. F. Deans, Mr. Simon G. Barker and Miss Phebe A. Deans, all of Bridgewater.

In Dimock, on the 15th inst., by Rev. E. W. Breckenridge, Mr. John N. Deans of Wisconsin, and Miss Ruth Ann Rosencrants, of Dimock.

By the same, on the 26th ult., Mr. Rosel Cook, of Jessup, and Miss Catharine Wagner, of Lathrop, at the Parsonage in Brooklyn.

In Harford, on the 17th inst., by C. Tiffany, Esq., Mr. Joseph Daniels and Sarah Shannon, all of Harford.

Died.

In Lenox, on the 1st inst., Ella Antinette, daughter of Alson and Fanny Tiffany, aged nine months, one week and three days.

A few more suns had rose and set
Behind the western hill,
When ah! another babe was called
An infants grave to fill.

On the 6th inst., after an illness of one week of the same fever, Cyntha Cordelia Tiffany, aged 3 years, 3 months, 3 weeks, and 2 days, was laid beside her little sister cold in the arms of death.

Days, weeks and months may pass away, and yet the fond recollection of Cyntha's voice will oft re-echo in the ear of those who were used to hearing her infant voice tuned in singing songs of praise. Here one consoling tho't arises to her surviving friends, that if they are as well prepared for Heaven and immortal glory, as those little ones that have gone before, they will soon meet them where parting will be no more. Com.

THE GREATEST HISTORICAL and Allegorical Print of the Age.

In commemoration of that most important event in the American revolution, the British Surrendering their Arms to General Washington after their defeat at Yorktown, Virginia, October, 1781.

THE engraving is executed by Tanner, Vallance, Kearney & Co., from an original drawing by J. F. Renault, and published by Benjamin Tanner, Engraver, Philadelphia. The size of the print is 25½ by 34 inches, and was originally published to subscribers at $12 in the sheet.

Explanation.

The History.—In the first and grand plan are exhibited three large groups of the principal officers, who were present at the transaction, with a faithful likeness of each.

In the first group is seen General Washington, General Rochambeau, General Lincoln, Colonel Hamilton, an old Farmer eager to contemplate the scene, Billy the servant, and the Horse of General Washington.

In the second group are American and French officers; General Knox, Secretary Wilson, the Duke de Lunzas, and the Marquis de La Fayette.

The third group is descriptive of the British surrendering their arms. Lord Cornwallis, General O'Hara, Commodore Simmons, Colonel Tarleton with two fingers cut off, Lieutenant Colonel Hyde Abercombie, Lieutenant Colonel Dundas, Lieutenant Chewton, &c. Lord Cornwallis appears presenting his sword to the first General Officer he meets, but General Washington is pointed out to him as the only person to whom he is to surrender his sword.

On the heights and in the distance are the different armies and crowds of spectators. The House of Secretary Wilson, occupied by Lord Cornwallis and his staff, which was bombarded and pierced with balls; the Marquis de Lafayette having remarked that they were carrying shells for the dinner of Lord Cornwallis, asked leave of General Washington to serve him a dish of his own cooking, and immediately after several bombshells fell through the roof on the table, and exploded some and dispersed the party.

In Allegory.—On the left is erected a monument in honor of those illustrious heroes who sacrificed their lives and fortunes to insure to their children the liberty and independence they now enjoy.

Published at $3 by Wm. B. Lane, Philadelphia, and to be had at the office of the "American Courier," No. 141 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, (premiums to that paper.

THE FLYING SHIP.

A chance to secure a cash income of $10 to $20 per week for twenty years, by the investment of five dollars in advance.

IT is extensively known that the undersigned has by theory and practical experiments so fully demonstrated the practicability of aerial navigation that all who have duly examined the subject are convinced; and no person, even those whose interests are adverse to its success, can offer a word of rational argument against it. Several model machines have been constructed, and each of them has operated successfully; and one of them, 16 feet long, carried a small steam engine, by the power of which the machine was propelled; and, being guided by its own helm, travelled rapidly through the air, even against a breeze of wind, in direct lines, or circles, according to the adjustment of its helm. This machine was witnessed and applauded by hundreds in New York and Boston; and notices thereof were published in several newspapers of those cities at the time. Since those experiments were made, the inventor has made additional improvements whereby the invention is now perfected. And it appears certain that a safe and durable aerial ship (or aeroport) capable of carrying one hundred and fifty passengers at a speed of ninety miles an hour with more perfect safety than either steamboats or railroad cars, may be constructed for $15,000, and that the expense of running it will not exceed $25 per day. This aeroport will make the trip to California or to Europe in two days; and will be patronized with abundance of business (more than 50,000 persons are now ready to engage passages) at 200 per passage, which will amount to 30,000 per trip, each way; or 60,000 per week, besides 4,000 for carrying the mails.—If this aeroport is owned in shares of 5 dollars each, a single share will produce an income of 20 dollars per week.

It is ascertained, by a minute and careful estimate, that an aeroport 150 feet long and capable of carrying five persons at a speed of 60 miles an hour, may be constructed for 1,500 dollars. Now, having been disappointed of the funds requisite to put this invention in operation on a scale of practical utility, I propose that if 300 persons will subscribe five dollars each, payable when the whole amount of 1,500 shall have been subscribed, I will forthwith construct this pioneer aeroport, (which may be done in six weeks;) and when this is put in operation I can readily command the requisite funds for constructing a large aeroport as above mentioned. And I will so arrange that each subscriber, on the payment of the said five dollars, shall be furnished with a regular title deed, which shall entitle the holder thereof to one three-hundreth part of the first large aeroport that shall be constructed, and of all benefits and emoluments that may be derived therefrom for twenty years; the said aeroport to be kept in repair without expense to the shareholders. Subscribers will not be restricted to single shares, but each may hold as many as he is disposed to subscribe for at the first; and will receive dividends accordingly, which, according to the foregoing estimate, will be 20 dollars per week on each share, payable weekly or monthly. Subscribers may send their names to my address by mail, (prepaid,) and the same will be duly entered on the subscription book, (which already contains about fifty names of subscribers in this city,) and notice will be sent (prepaid) to each when the three hundred shares shall have been taken; and the money may be sent either to me or to the firm of Sheldon, Withers & Co., (well known bankers of this city,) who will on the receipt thereof forward to each subscriber a title-deed, as above stipulated, and will act as treasurers for the shareholders, and transfer the money to me as the progress of the work requires. Each subscriber will be furnished semi-monthly with a printed news-letter, reporting the progress of the work.

Editors or publishers of newspapers who will give the foregoing prospectus an insertion within three weeks, and send a copy thereof to the undersigned, shall be entitled to one share in the large aeroport, and be furnished with a title-deed or five dollars in cash forthwith.

RUFUS PORTER.

Washington, April 1, 1852.

P. S. It is confidently believed that by this invention unexplored regions may be examined, and the light of civilization and Christianity may be disseminated through benighted lands with facility; and that the world will honor the names of those who now subscribe to aid the introduction of an invention calculated to confer immense benefits upon the entire human race.

FRUIT TREES FOR SALE.

THE SUBSCRIBER will be at Hatch's Hotel in Montrose during April court, with Fruit Trees, Grape Vines, Ornamental Trees &c., all of which will be fresh from the celebrated Nursery of H. Snyder, Kinderhook, N. Y.; and for size and thrift equal if not excel any ever sold in Susquehanna County. This nursery contains some 40 or 50 acres, and the owner gives his whole time and attention to this business alone; and as he grafts from bearing trees on his own grounds, he does not hesitate to warrant them true to their names. The Apple Trees are from 7 to 9 feet; Peach 5 to 7; Pear 6 to 9; some of which fruited last year in the nursery. Among the Apples will be the Baldwin—fruit large, bright red, juicy and rich—trees very vigorous and productive—large trees having produced from 40 to 50 bushels in one season, and considered in New England the best winter apple; Northern Spy, one of the largest, most beautiful, long-keeping apples yet known—juicy, rich, highly aromatic, retaining its freshness of flavor and appearance till July; Fall Pippin, first in size and quality, has been known to weigh 23 ounces; R. I. Greening, a favorite everywhere; Vandevere, E. Spitzenberg, W. Seek-no-Farther, Ladies' Sweet, Sweet Bow, Red Astracan, Roxbury, Russet, &c.

Among the Pears are the Bloodgood, considered the best early Pear—fruit of medium size, buttery, melting and rich—ripens in August; Bartlett—large, buttery, with a rich musky flavor—it is a fair, erect grower, and bears young and abundantly, and the fruit ripens perfectly in the house if gathered two or three weeks before ripe—(this is a desirable variety for those who are liable to have their fruit stolen; Mr. Thomas, author of the Fruit Culturist, says he has taken a peck of ripe fruit from a tree of this variety but 6 or 7 feet in height)—ripens in September; Seckel, the richest of all pears; Virgalieu or Whale Dayenne—ripens in October. These 4 varieties are selected from over a hundred, having been pronounced the best in cultivation. Peaches: Red Rareripe Yellow Alberge or Yellow Rareripe Early York, Royal George and Bergina Yellow. These are fine varieties very early, except the last, which ripens about the middle of September making it desirable for use often the other kinds are gone. The trees are twice the size of those sold in Susquehanna County, within the last two years from New Jersey; and being brought from the north are much less liable to be injured by our severe winters than those from the warm sandy soil of that State. The Grapes are the Isabella and Catawba the two best, hardy varieties. Ornamental Trees, Horse Chestnut, European Mountain Ash, &c., are of good size. The subscriber will also attend to all orders received by mail or otherwise for Apples, Peach, Plum, Cherry, Quince, Apricot Nectarine, and all kinds of Ornamental trees, both deciduous and evergreen, also Gooseberries, Raspberries, currants strawberries &c. to be delivered next autumn or spring.
