The election in the district composed of that part of Southampton township, not embraced in the Newville and Shippensburg districts, will be held at the house formerly occupied by Wm. Maxwell, in Leesburg.

The election in the district composed of that part of Newton township, not embraced in the Newville district, will be held at the school house in Jacksonville.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN.

That every person, except Justices of the Peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the United States, or if this State, or any city or incorporated district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise, a subordinate officer or agent, who is or shall be employed under the legislature, executive, or judiciary departments of this State, or of the United States, or of any city or of any incorporated district; and also that every member of Congress and of the State Legislature, and of the Select or Common Council of any city, of commissioner of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time, the office or appointment of judge, inspector, or clerk of any elections of this Commonwealth, and that no inspector, judge or other officer of such election shall be elligible to be then voted for.

And the said act of Assembly, entitled an act relating to elections of this Commonwealth, passed July 2d, 1839, further provides as follows, to wit:

"That the inspectors and Judges shall meet at the respective places appointed for holding the election in the district to which they respectively belong, before 9 o'clock in the morning of the second Tuesday of October, and each of said inspectors shall appoint one clerk, who shall be a qualified voter of such district.

"In case the person who shall have recieved the second highest number of votes for inspector, shall not attend on the day of the election, then the person who shall have recieved the second highest number of votes for judge at the next preceeding election shall act as inspector in his place. And in case the person who shall have received the highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend, the person elected judge shall appoint an inspector in his place; and in case the person elected a judge shall not attend, then the inspector who received the highest number of votes shall appoint a judge in his place; or if any vacancy shall continue in the board for the space of one hour after the time fixed by law for the opening of the election, the qualified voters of the township, ward or district for which such officer shall have been elected, present at the place of election, shall elect one of their number to fill such vacancy.

"It shall be the duty of the several assessors of each district to attend at the place of holding every general, special or township election, during the whole time said election is kept open, for the purpose of giving information to the inspectors and judges when called on in relation to the right of any person assessed by them to vote at such election, or such other matters in relation to the assessment of voters as the said inspectors or either of them shall from time to time require.

"No person shall be permitted to vote at any election as aforesaid, than a white freeman of the age of twenty one years or more, who shall have resided in the State at least one year, and in the election district where he offers his vote at least ten days preceeding such elections and within two years paid a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election. But a citizen of the United States, who has previously been a qualified voter of this State, and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the election district, and paid taxes aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in the State six months; PROVIDED, That the white freeman, citizens of the United States, between the age of twenty-one and twenty-two years who have resided in an election district ten days as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote although they shall not have paid taxes.

No person shall be permitted to vote whose name is not contained in the list of taxable inhabitants furnished by the commissioners, unless First, he produce a receipt for the payment within two years, of a state or county tax assessed agreeably to the constitution, and give satisfactory evidence either on his oath or affirmation, or the oath or affirmation of another that he has paid such a tax, or on failure to produce a receipt shall make oath to the payment thereof. Second, if he claim a right to vote by being an elector between the age of twenty-one and twenty-two years, he shall depose on oath or affirmation that he has resided in this State at least one year next before his application, and make such proof of residence in the district as required by this act and that he does verily believe from the account given him that he is of the age aforesaid, and such other evidence as is required by this act, whereupon the name of the person so admitted to vote shall be inserted in the alphabetical list by the inspectors, and a note made opposite thereto by writing the word 'tax,' if he shall be permitted to vote by reason of having paid tax, or the word 'age,' he shall be admitted to vote by reason of such age, shall be called out to the clerks, who shall make the like votes in the lists kept by them.

'In all cases where the name of the person claiming to vote is found on the list furnished by the commissioners and assessors, or his right to vote whether found thereon or not, is objected to by any qualified citizen, it shall be the duty of the inspectors to examine such persons on oath as to his qualifications, and if he claims to have resided within the State for one year or more, his oath shall be sufficient proof thereof, but shall make proof by at least one competent witness, who shall be a qualified elector, that he has resided within the district for more than ten days next immediately preceeding said election, and shall also himself swear that his bone fide residence, in pursuance of his lawful calling, is within the district, and that he did not remove into said district for the purpose of voting therein.

'Every person qualified as aforesaid, and who shall make due proof if required, of his residence and payment of taxes as aforesaid, shall be admitted to vote in the township, ward or district in which he shall reside.

'If any shall prevent or attempt to prevent any officer of any election under this act from holding such election, or use or threaten any violence to any such officer, or shall interrupt or improperly interfere with him in the execution of his duty, or shall block up the window or avenue to any window where the same may be holding, or shall riotously disturb the peace at such election, or shall use or practice any intimidating threats, force or violence, with design to influence unduly, or overawe any elector, or to prevent him from voting or to restrain the freedom of choice, such persons on conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars and be imprisoned for any time not less than three nor more than twelve months, and if it shall be shown to court, where the trial of such offence shall be had, that the person so offending was not a resident of the city, ward, district or township where the offence was committed, and not entitled to vote therein, then on conviction he shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned not less than six month nor more than two years.

'If any person or persons shall make any bet or wager upon the result of any election within the Commonwealth, or shall offer to make any such bet or wager, either by verbal proclamation thereof, or by any written or printed advertisement challenge or invite any person to make such bet or wager, upon conviction thereof he or they shall forfeit and pay three times the amount so bet or to be bet.

'If any person not by law qualified, shall fraudulently vote at any election in this Commonwealth, or being otherwise qualified shall vote out of his proper district, or if any person knowing the want of such qualifications, shall aid or procure such person to vote, the person offending shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not exceeding two hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three months.

'If any person shall vote at more than one election district, or otherwise fraudulently vote more than once on the same day, or shall fraudlently fold or deliver to the inspector two tickets together, with the intent illegally to vote, or shall procure another so to do, he or they offending, shall on convition be fined in any sum not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for any term not less than three nor more than twelve months.

'If any person not qualified to vote in this Commonwealth, agreeably to law, (except the sons of qualified citizens) shall appear at any place of election for the purpose of issuing tickets or of influencing the citizens qualified to vote, he shall on conviction forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars for every such offence, and be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three months."

Agreeably to the provisions of the sixty-first section of said act, every General and Special Election shall be opened between the hours of eight and ten in the forenoon, and shall continue without interruption or adjournment until seven o'clock in the evening, when the polls shall be closed.

And the Judges of the respective districts aforesaid, are by the said act required to meet at the Court House, in the borough of Carlisle on the third day after the said day of election, being Friday the 14th day of October then and there to perform the things required of them by law.

The return judges of the Representative district, will meet at Carlisle, at the time fixed by law.

Given under my hand at Carlisle, this 17th day of August, 1859.

Valuable Real Estate at PRIVATE SALE.

THE subscriber wishes to dispose of his valuable real estate, viz:

No. 1.—A first-class limestone farm, situate in Dickinson township, Cumberland county, about half a mile east of Centreville, containing 193 ACRES more or less, all of which are cleared and in a high state of cultivation, except 40 acres, which is well covered with thriving timber. The improvements are a good BRICK HOUSE, NEW BANK BARN, corn cribs, Wagon shed, &c. A large number of locust trees are growing on the property, and a never-failing stream of water runs through a portion of the farm. There is a very fine Apple Orchard on the premises, and a variety of other fruit trees, and a good spring of pure water near to the dwelling. The property is in excellent condition, having been carefully farmed, and is well worthy the attention of capitalists.

No. 2.—A valuable tract of 200 acres of what is called PINE LAND, also situated in Dickinson township, about three miles west of No. 1, and a few hundred yards south of the Walnut Bottom Road. About 140 acres of this tract is under cultivation, the balance is timber land.—The improvements are a log House, log Barn, and other out-buildings, a well of good water convenient to the dwelling, an Apple orchard and other fruit trees, &c.

For particulars please call on or write to the undersigned, residing at Centreville, Cumberland county.

Valuable Real Estate at PUBLIC SALE.

ON Friday, the 7th day of October, A. D. 1859, commencing at 10 o'clock, A. M.

In pursuance of an order of the Orphans' Court of Cumberland county, to me directed, will be sold at public sale, on the premises, about 5 miles east of Shippensburg, Cumberland county, Pa., on the south side of the Walnut Bottom Road, between the villages of Leesburg and Jacksonville, and near Parks' Tavern, the following Real Estate, late the property of Abraham Seavers, dec'd., to wit:

About 558 Acres of Pine and Gravel Land,

(about 100 acres thereof are Mountain Land,) divided into five or more tracts, but will be sold either the whole together, or in lots as may best suit purchasers. The improvements are a LOG HOUSE, &c. A large portion of the land is covered with thriving Chestnut, Pine, Oak, and other timber. A part, however, is cleared and fenced. A large portion of the whole will make good farm land when cleared and is susceptible of a high state of improvement. There is an excellent stream of water thereon. Also an ORE BANK, containing a good quality of Iron Ore, which is being worked, and being near the Iron Works, the ore is valuable.

This property is bounded by lands of Dr. W. W. Nevin, Schoch, Sons & Co., Buchanan's heirs, John Russell, D. Foreman, J. Washinger, Parks, Clever, and others.

The terms, which are reasonable, will be made known on the day of sale by
