What hath magic power to trace
Beauty's lovely form and grace,
Or the plainest, homeliest face?
Daguerreotype!

What can infant smiles engage—
Duplicate life's middle stage,
Or the hoary hairs of age?
Daguerreotype!

What attracts the lover's eye,
Calling forth a tell-tale sigh,
Though the loved one be not nigh!
Daguerreotype!

What gives comfort to the heart
When our dearest friends depart?
'Tis this wonder-working art—
Daguerreotype!

This a hallowed feeling lends,
And for absence makes amends,
When we hold some cherished friend's
Daguerreotype.

Then why need you longer stay?
Come! there's danger in delay;
Have your pictures drawn to-day,
And you'll be prepared to say

That there is truth, if not poetry, in the above lines; and that at the

DAGUERREOTYPE ROOMS OF W. B. DEANS

is the place to get a faithful and pleasing portrait. The artist takes this opportunity to tender his grateful acknowledgments to the patrons of his Art—trusting that his efforts to please, in the past, will ensure his success in the future.

To his former facilities he has now added an improved Half-size Camera, by the aid of which he is prepared to take groups, or single pictures, in a superior manner.

A new and beautiful variety of plain and fancy cases—Tortle shell, Papier Mache, and other splendid styles, of various sizes and patterns; gold and plated Lockets, &c.

You who have beauty! come and let me take it! You who have none! pray come and let me make it.

☞ Odd Fellows' Hall, corner of Turnpike and Chestnut streets.

June 23, 1852.

NOTE.—A good Quarter Camera for sale at a very low price.

☞ The artist, when not in his rooms, may be found by inquiring at the Candy Shop.

NEW GOODS

At the Upsonville Exchange.

THE subscriber, with many thanks to his numerously increasing patrons, would respectfully inform his friends, that he is now receiving a choice selection of goods direct from New York, which he intends to sell upon the good old fashioned principle of "live and let live." Wanted, in exchange for goods, all kinds of produce. Cash not excepted. JOS. L. MERRIMAN.

Upsonville, April 30, 1852. 18tf

THE LIGHTNING LINE!

C. TILLMAN, Barber and Hair Dresser, returns his thanks to his numerous friends and patrons; and having, as he hopes, convinced all of the great danger and risk of cutting their throats by shaving themselves, he begs that they will discontinue that barber-ous practice, and encourage home industry by calling on him for a shave. Col. Crockett's uncle was said to be so smart that he shaved himself with sheet lightning, and C. Tillman will perform the same feat on any who prefer that to a good razor, if they will call at his shop in Searle's Hotel basement. If you don't believe it, call and see.

Montrose, May, 6, 1852 C. TILLMAN.

NEW HAT, CAP, AND FUR STORE.

M. D. WASHBURN would respectfully announce to the citizens of Montrose and vicinity that he has opened and intends to keep a large and general assortment of all kinds and qualities of Beaver, Moleskin and Silk Hats of the latest styles; Kossuth, Hungarian and other styles and qualities of fur and wool Hats; Panama, Leghorn, Palm-leaf, and the various kinds of braided hats for Summer wear; Cloth, Silk, Glazed, Silk Plush and all kinds of Caps for gents and boys and youth's wear, Gents Patent-leather Shoes, &c. &c., together with all kinds of goods generally kept in a hat store. The subscriber being largely engaged in the above trade at the East, will always enable him to keep at his store in Montrose a larger and more fashionable assortment than can be found elsewhere. His terms are ready pay, which will enable him to sell all goods in his line at least 15 per cent. lower than others in the same trade. The citizens are respectfully invited to call and see for themselves. P. S. Washburn will always be on hand to exhibit the goods, whether people wish to purchase or not. M. D. WASHBURN.

Montrose, April 23, 1852.
