WHAT THE PRESS SAYS OF US:

Arrandale & Co., of this city are now selling out a great variety of Dress Goods, Gaiters, Balmoral Skirts, Boots, Shawls and many other valuable articles, in dry and fancy goods, at a dollar each.—Sunday Times.

We confess our inability to see how this is done. We know, however, that it is done to go by all questions. The firm has had a long and honorable career, and is not to be by no means confounded with the host of swindling and bogus concerns which infest this metropolis so much abounds. We know the proprietors well and can personally vouch for their honorable and upright dealings in all their contracts.—National Workman, New York, Feb. 2, 1867.

EXTRAORDINARY GOOD FORTUNE.—Day before yesterday, at the Jewelry store of Messrs. Arrandale & Co., two Gold Watches were drawn by two gentlemen known to this community, whose names we will not mention. Parties curious on this subject can be informed at the store in King street, nearly opposite the Bank. We were curious on the subject and inquired the names of the parties, and carried on one of them, and were shown the watch he drew. It was a large double case Gold Watch, and we were informed that it had kept time to a second since it had been in the possession of our fortunate friend. It would have been very natural to suppose that after one watch was drawn there was no chance for another for at least a month; but, strange to say, in less than an hour another gold watch rewarded the worshipper of Fortune. Go all and do likewise.—Daily South Carolinian, Charleston, February 25, 1868.

A QUARTER WELL INVESTED.—Mr. Eugene B. Carter, of the Monticello House, called in the Jewelry Emporium, 78 Main street, yesterday, and after paying his 25 cents, suddenly found himself entitled to a Musical Box, valued at $200.

We understand that he was offered $200 for the instrument before leaving the store but refused to part with it. We should call this a quarter well invested.

We understand a number of other valuable articles were received, amongst which was a gold watch valued at $75, by one of the attaches of the Enquirer office.—Richmond Times, September 21, 1866.

PIANO CHEAP.—Mr. John D. Redford, at Old Dominion Saloon, No. 312 Broad street, yesterday got one dollar's worth of certificates, and on opening them, found one called for a Gold Composite Hunting Watch and another for a Rosewood Piano, valued with cover and stool, at $600.—Richmond Daily Examiner, November 27, 1866.

DOUBLE-BARRELED FOWLING PIECE CHEAP.—We understand Mr. G. W. Wilkinson, of this city, yesterday drew from the certificate box at Arrandale & Co.'s, 78 Main street, a very fine double barreled fowling piece, valued at one hundred dollars, for which he was required to pay the very moderate sum of one dollar.—Richmond Whig, September 29, 1866.

In sending orders please state what proportion of certificates you require from each department. Where no special instructions are given, we send one-half from the Dry and Fancy Goods Department, and one-half from the Jewelry and Silverware Departments.

Whenever desired, we will send articles

BY EXPRESS, C. O. D.,

So that the money need only be paid

ON DELIVERY OF THE GOODS.

We accept the entire responsibility of money sent by Express, Post Office Order, or Bank Draft. We want agents EVERYWHERE to whom a liberal compensation will be paid, which can be learned on application.

Take care to write your name and address in a clear, distinct hand, and address

LOOK OUT DRY GOODS MEN!

TO THE PUBLIC.

I have just returned from the East with my Spring Stock, and as usual...am selling Goods a little cheaper than any other Dry Goods House in town. I do not think it necessary to occupy a column of newspaper to endeavor to keep up my reputation for selling Cheap Goods, nor do I wish to resort to any other clap-trap to gull the public. All I ask of them is to call and examine for themselves, and if not satisfied with the prices, not to buy. Remember the stand, No. 32 North Hanover street, next door to Dr. Kieffer's, and Miller & Bowers' Hardware store.

WM. A. MILES.

P. S. I will say nothing about my third and fourth grand openings.
