THE DEMOCRATIC WATCHMAN.

BELLEFONTE MAY 19, 1859.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

THE DROP GAME AND HOW IT WORKED.—We witnessed last week rather an amusing affair in this place. A few of our citizens purposely dropped a pocket book on the pavement for the benefit of a little fun and entered the Clothing Store of our friend, Mr. Wm. McClelland, to watch the movements of whoever might be victimized. A few moments elapsed, and a company of rowdies engaged in conversation near to the pocket book. One of the party discovered it. His eyes sparkled,—his countenance brightened, and his face glowed with a more ruddy expression. His cupidity was evidently working itself to an astonishing degree of intensity. Natural instinct began to develop itself, and exhibit character in its true colors. A cautious movement of the foot and a little inclination of the body, brought him in close proximity with the treasure. Quickly the enormous dimensions of his "understanding," was placed upon the pocket book, and he still conversed with his friends until they finally separated and moved off. That moment the treasure found a lodgment in the pocket of his "unmentionables and he went doubtless on his way rejoicing. We know not that he discovered the "Sell," but suppose the value of a fictitious, check, on the Banking House of Humes, McCallister, Hale and Company, to the amount of only fifteen hundred dollars; will not be materially effected if the man who found that pocket book, is a reader of the Watchman.

MILITARY ELECTIONS.—The elections for all commissioned officers, of the Volunteers throughout the State, except Major Generals, will take place on the first Monday in June next. These officers are elected for five years. The Major Generals are elected in July following by the commissioned officers. An oversight existed in the late militia law, by which all the Major Generals were continued in office for one year succeeding the election of commissioned officers. It being deemed desirable that the terms of the Major Generals and other commissioned officers should be nearly uniform, an amendment to the law was passed by the Legislature a day or two before the close of the session, providing for the election of Major Generals in the month following the election of the commissioned officers. Centre County has a number of candidates for military honors in the field. We wonder whether the "Defense of Armageddon," might not put a check to some of their aspiring ambition if warlike demonstrations in reality, partook of so terrible an aspect.

ANOTHER SHOOTING AFFAIR.—A young man named Jackson Yeager, delivered himself up to the hands of the authorities on last Monday evening, stating as a reason for so doing that he had shot a Mr Reuben Richards at Juniata Furnace on that day. The statement lacked confirmation until Tuesday evening, when a constable from that township made his appearance in search of Yeager. It appears that a difficulty has existed between the parties for some time, and that Richards endeavored to force Yeager to leave the vicinity by following him with a horse pistol. Yeager took refuge in the house of a married sister, where he obtained a loaded rifle, and while Richards was approaching fired from a window and shot him in the shoulder. We have not learned the particulars in relation to the condition of the wounded man.

OUR POLICE made several important arrests last week, among which was a young gentleman who had been out unusually late on a courting expedition. The young man of course denied all criminal charges, and our worthy police knowing him to be an honest upright citizen, gave him an honorable discharge, but not without reprimanding him on the impropriety of late hours. Another young man who had doubtless been engaged in a similar enterprise, found himself hotly pursued at a late hour by several watchman, but being blessed with very good locomotion facilities out ran his pursuers and made good his escape. Truly our night police are a great institution.

BOROUGH ORDINANCE.—At a recent meeting of our City fathers, an ordinance was passed to the effect that all persons found on the street after eleven o'clock at night, should be arrested and held to answer.—Minors found lounging about Hotels, Ale houses, or any description of grog shops, should be arrested and dealt with according to rigid requirements in such cases. This latter feature is a most excellent law, and should have been established long ago.

NEW BRIDGE.—The old bridge across Spring Creek has been torn down, and workmen are now busily engaged in rebuilding. The new bridge is to be erected of stone and will be when completed according to the specifications, a most permanent and useful improvement. Mr. F. S. Wilson, the contractor is determined to push the enterprise to completion as speedily as possible.

ROWDYISM.—Several young men who were in attendance at the Circus on last Saturday night, got drunk—got into a fight—got nearly broken heads, and got into jail besides:—So much for Captain Whisky and seeing the "Elephant."

THE M. E. CHURCH of this place is now undergoing repairs. The outside has already been beautifully painted. The inside walls are to be papered, and other important improvements will take place.

AMBROTYPES, Photographs and Daguereotypes are taken at the Arcade picture Gallery under the latest improvements in the art. Rooms open during the Summer months from 8 o'clock A. M., to 5 o'clock, P. M.

NEW GOODS.—We refer the attention of our lady friends to the advertisement of Mrs. E. Grafius in another column. Mrs. G. has just received a fine lot of goods, calculated to please everybody. Call and examine, and our word for it you will not go away dissatisfied.

AN ELOQUENT EXTRACT.—"Generation after generation," says a fine writer, "have felt as we feel, and their lives were as active as our own. They passed away like a vapor, while nature wore the same aspect of beauty as when her creator commanded her to be. The heavens shall be as bright over our graves as they are now around our paths. The world will have the attractions for our offsprings yet unborn that she had once for ourselves, and that she now has for our children. Yet a little while and all this will have happened. The throbbing heart will be stilled, and we shall be at rest. Our funeral will wind its way, and the prayers will be said, and our friends will all return, and we shall be left behind in silence and darkness for the worm. And it may be for a short time we shall be spoken of, but the things of life will creep in, and our names will soon be forgotten. Days will continue to move, and laughter and song will be heard in the room in which we died: and the eye that mourned for us will be dried; and glisten again with joy; and even our children will cease to think of us, and will not remember to lisp our names. Then shall we have become, in the touching language of the Psalmist, 'forgotten and clean gone out of mind.'"

KEEP OUT OF DEBT.—Keep out of debt—Avoid it as you would war, pestilence, famine. Hate it with a perfect hatred. Abhor it with an entire abhorrence. Dig potatoes, break stones, peddle tin ware—do anything that is honest and useful, rather than run into debt. As you value good digestion, a healthy appetite, a placid temper, a smooth pillow, pleasant dreams, and happy waking, keep out of debt. It is the hardest of all taskmasters, the most cruel of all oppressors. It is a millstone about the neck: it is an incubus on the heart: it spreads a cloud over the firmament of man's being: it furrows the forehead with premature wrinkles, it plucks from the eye its light: it drags all nobleness and kindness out of the port and bearing of man, it takes all the soul out of his laugh and all staidness and freedom from his walk. Come not under its accursed dominion, nor ever be its slave. Owe no man anything."

Kerstetter, the man who was lately robbed in Philadelphia of $2,700, the 'Miltonian' says, was in Milton on Tuesday of last week on his way home. He was very much dejected. The whole case was most extraordinary. An alderman and several of the police of Philadelphia were engaged in relieving Kerstetter of his money. The principal witness against these parties—a man named Foy—was poisoned, in order to prevent his testifying. Kerstetter, when in Milton, stated that the wife of Mr Foy, who was poisoned and has since died, came to him one day while in the city, and with tears in her eyes begged him to release her husband as a witness against the party who robbed him, as they threatened his life, but he being the principal witness. Mr. Kerstetter could not well comply. Five of the party who robbed Kerstetter were convicted.

THE GENESEE FARMER.—The May number of this popular agricultural journal is received. It is unnecessary to commend the Farmer. It has been published for twenty eight years in the heart of the "Genesee country," and its friends and readers are legion.

The publisher offers to take subscriptions for the coming six months (July to December) for 25 cents. A specimen of the paper can be seen at this office, and we shall be happy to receive and forward subscriptions. Specimen copies are sent free to all applicants. See advertisement in another column.

THE CROPS.—We have been making considerable observation on the crops in different portions of the county and were highly pleased to see how promising they looked. We have never witnessed a better prospect for a bountiful harvest. From every quarter the most gratifying intelligence reaches us. Our farmers are in fine spirits.

☞A disastrous fire occurred at Pittsburg on Saturday, by which ten steamers were totally destroyed. The fire originated on the "Henry Graff," and in a short time that boat, as well as nine others, were burned to the water's edge. The amount of freight on the boats was not large, but some little on the wharf was destroyed.

A CARD.

HEAD QUARTERS, "The Cent. Brigade."
SPRING MILLS, May 11, '59.

In answer to many enquiries I respectfully say to my military friends, that I am not again a candidate for their suffrages at the ensuing election. I shall always feel grateful for the generous support accorded me, and fondly hope that under my successor the Brigade may continue to extend its well-acquired reputation. I tender to all officers, soldiers and musicians a respectful farewell. Captains of Companies will please read this Card to their respective Companies.

GEO. BUCHANAN, Bri. Gen.

[For the Watchman.]

Brigade Inspector.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—You will please announce in your valuable paper the name of Capt. Geo. M. Kepler, as a candidate for Brigade Inspector at the approaching election. The Captain is a military man, and has always taken an interest in the military of Centre County, and would, if elected, make one of the best officers we ever had.—He does not seek the office for the purpose of making money out of it, for we all know that he is too liberal—liberal to a fault. He would no doubt distribute the income of the position for the benefit of the several companies in the Brigade. In this section we all go for him, and we hope that his claims will be taken into consideration in other parts of the county. FERGUSON.

Philadelphia Markets.

May 18.—WHEAT.—The market is very poorly supplied, and prices have again advanced 10a15c per bu. Sales of 15,000 bus Southern Pennsylvania, and Western, at 2a210c per bus. for ordinary to good and prime red, and 190a195 for white, as in quality. Rye is in good demand at a further advance. Sales of 6,000 bus Pennsylvania, at 105a108c. Corn has been in good request, and prices have advanced, with sales of 20,000 bus. yellow at 1 00 in store and afloat, closing at the latter figure; and 85a90c for damaged lots. Oats are better and in demand; sales of 12,600 bus, at 57a58c for Southern, and 58a60c for Pennsylvania, closing at the highest figures. Barley and Malt continue inactive.

A COMMERCIAL COLLEGE OF THREE HUNDRED AND FIFTY SEVEN STUDENTS.—Prominent among the reasons why the Iron City College has four times as many students as any other Commercial School in the United States are the following: It is the only College in Pittsburgh that gives three daily lectures on Book Keeping; three daily recitations and an examination in Commercial Calculations; the only one which requires weekly exercises in Composition, and Commercial Correspondence of all its students; the only one which employs teachers whose qualifications are recognized by literary men, or are experienced educators, and the only one that grants Diplomas to those only of its students who are competent and skillful accountants. Pittsburgh True Press.

MANY SUFFER, rather than take nauseous medicines. All such who suffer from coughs, and colds, irritation of the bronchial tubes, and tendency to consumption, have in Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, a remedy as agreeable to the palate as effectual in removing disease.

☞Buy none unless it has the written signature of "I. Butts," on the wrapper.

ANOTHER POETIC FRAGMENT.

'Tis sweet to turn out the wreck of years,
To call each withered token
To gather up a flood of tears,
To cheer the heart when broken,
But sweeter far it is to look
On each and every face,
To view the tokensses that's took,
With magic skill and grace
Where Genius Sol whose rays convene
Like some mysterious Elf
Works mighty wonders by machine
Transfers the second self
Go to the Arcade Picture rooms
Cheer up your homely 'phiz'
Let Barnhart take your Ambrotype—
The cash will brighten 'his'"

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

Where the above preparation is known, it is well established as an infallible Remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Bronchitis Spitting of Blood, Pain in the Breast, Croup, Whooping Cough and every form of PULMONARY COMPLAINT, that it were a work of supererogation to speak of its merits.

Discovered by a well known physician more than twenty years since, it has by the wonderful cures it has effected been constantly appreciating in public favor, until its use and its reputation are alike universal, and it is now known and cherished by all (and their "name is legion") who have been restored to health by its use as the GREAT REMEDY for all the diseases which it professes to cure.

Sir James Clark, physician to Queen Victoria, has given it as his opinion that

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED!

The whole history of this Medicine fully confirms the opinion of that eminent man. Thousands can testify, and have testified, that when all other remedies had failed, this completely cured, that when the sufferer had well nigh despaired, this has afforded immediate relief, that when the physician had pronounced the disease incurable, this has removed it entirely.

The virtues of this Balsam are alike applicable to cure a slight Cold or a Confirmed Consumption and its power as a safe, certain, speedy, pleasant and effectual remedy cannot be equalled.

The only genuine has the written signature of "I BUTTS" as well as the printed name of the proprietor upon the wrapper.
