The miscellaneous articles embraced in the seven foregoing classes, must all be of the best quality, and must undergo a satisfactory inspection at the yard, and must be delivered at such time and place as the commandant may require. The government reserves the privilege to increase or diminish the several quantities specified ⅓ per cent. Bids must be unqualified, and must embrace one entire class—the price carried out against each article.

The contractors for the above materials will be allowed to deliver any of them except the lime, at earlier periods than above specified, should they wish to do so.

No offer will be considered for less than any one class.

The proposals must state the number of the bill and the number of the class, and be so endorsed on the outside.

The Department expressly reserves the right of increasing the quantity of materials in the several portions of the estimates here furnished for the use of the navy, and should the quantities of materials be increased beyond the estimates, the same price as is specified for that kind or description of materials shall be paid to the contractors, and no more.

The material must be subject to inspection and approval of persons to be appointed by and under instruction of the commandant of the yard; and none will be received or approved which shall not pass such inspection.

Contracts and bonds, with two approved securities in one third the amount of contract will be required; to be entered into within ten days after the notification of acceptance of the bid, and ten per cent. of the amount of all bills will be retained as collateral security for the faithful performance of the contract, which will be paid only on the satisfactory completion of it; and ninety per cent. of all deliveries made will be paid on all bills properly authenticated within thirty days after their presentation to the navy agent.

No bid will be considered unless accompanied with the guaranty required by the subjoined section of an act of Congress.

JOSEPH S. WATKINS, Navy Agent.

Memphis, Tenn., June 1st, 1847.

An extract from an Act of Congress, approved 10th August, 1846:

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passage of this act, every proposal for Naval supplies invited by the Secretary of the Navy, under the proviso to the general appropriation bill for the Navy, approved March third, eighteen hundred and forty-three, shall be accompanied with a written guaranty, signed by one or more responsible persons, to the affect that he or they undertake that the bidder or bidders will, if his or their bid be accepted, enter into obligation in such time as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy, with good and sufficient sureties, to furnish the supplies proposed. No proposals shall be considered unless accompanied by such guaranty. If, after the acceptance of a proposal, and a notification thereof to the bidder or bidders he or they shall fail to enter into an obligation within the time prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy, with good and sufficient sureties, for furnishing the supplies, then the Secretary of the Navy shall proceed to contract with some other person or persons for furnishing the said supplies; and shall forthwith cause the difference between the amount contained in the proposal so guaranteed, and the amount for which he may have contracted for furnishing the said supplies, for the whole period for the proposal, to be charged up against said bidder or bidders, and his or their guarantor or guarantors; and the same may be immediately recovered by the United States, for the use of the Navy Department, in an action of debt against either or all of said persons. june11-d1awtjy5

☞ The Nashville Union, Pittsburgh Post, and Cincinnati Enquirer, will publish the above once a week in Daily paper, till the 5th July, and forward accounts to navy agent's office, Memphis.

Transportation Lines.

Pittsburgh Portable Boat Line,

1847.

FOR the transportation of freight between Pittsburgh and the Atlantic cities, avoiding transhipments on the way, and the consequent risk of delay, damage, breakage and seperation of goods.

PROPRIETORS:

Burridge & Cash, 278 Market st., Philadelphia.
Taaffe & O'Connor, cor Penn and Wayne sts., Pittsburgh.

AGENTS:

O'Connors & Co., North street, Baltimore.
W. & J. T. Tapscott, 75 South street, New York.

Encouraged by increased business, the Proprietors have added to and extended their arrangements during the winter, and are now prepared to forward freight with regularity and dispatch, unsurpassed by any other Line. Their long experience as Carriers, the palpable superiority of the Portable Boat system, and the great capacity and convenience of the Warehouses at each end of the Line, are peculiarly calculated to enable the Proprietors to fulfil their engagements and accommodate their customers, and confidently offering the past as a guarantee for the future, they respectfully solicit a continuance of that patronage which they now gratefully acknowledge.

All consignments to Taaffe & O'Connor will be received and forwarded, Steam Boat charges paid, and Bills of Lading transmitted free of any charge for Commission, advancing or Storage. Having no interest directly or indirectly in Steam Boats the interest of the Consignors must necessarily be their primary objectin shipping West; and they pledge themselves to forward all Goods consigned to them promptly, and on the most advantageous terms to the owners.
