LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

☞ Exceedingly Scarce.—Local items.

☞ "A good bit Scarcer."—Newspapers of the Union League.

☞ Maj. Goerge B. Fairlamb, of the 148th regt., P. V., has been visiting in town during the past week.

☞ If you want a good boot, a neat boot, and a boot that can't be beat, go to Peter McMahon's on Alleghany Street.

☞ At the WATCHMAN office is the place to get job work of all kinds done, with neatness and dispatch, at exceedingly low rates.

☞ The new pavement, in and around the Court House yard, is finished. It is quite an improvement, and helps the looks of our town considerable.

☞ Although the crops look promising, at present writing, yet if the drouth, with which we have been afflicted for the past few weeks, continues, there will, no doubt, be a very light harvest.

☞ Owing to the rapid increase of our subscription list, we were compelled, last week, to send half Sheets to many of our subscribers, and all of our exchanges. We hope none of them will complain.

☞ A mule team, belonging to Messrs. Linn & McCoy, of the Milesburg Forges took fright and run away, on Wednesday last, from the toll-gate below town. A little child narrowly escaped being run over.

☞ Ira C. Mitchell, Esq., of Wilkes Barre, formerly of this place, has been spending a few days in town. He gives a good account of the Democracy of Luzerne, and says they are ready for the coming contest.

☞ THERE will be a meeting of the Democracy of Walker, and surrounding townships, at Hublersburg, to-morrow afternoon at two o'clock. Let there be a grand outpouring of the people, let everybody and all their friends attend. Able and eloquent speakers will be present.

☞ We have never yet, during our residence in this place, on days of gatherings, witnessed the good order and quiet that prevailed on Friday last. No body seemed to be drunk, no fights or rows of any kind were "kicked up;" everything passed off quietly. Everybody appeared pleased with everybody else.

☞ On the 1st of June, the Excise Tax law, as regards stamps, went into full force. All papers and instruments of writing requiring stamps are declared to be null and void after this date, if not stamped. This stringent provision, with the penalties enforced in addition for violations of the law, will cause an almost universal demand and use for stamps.

☞ Since the streets have been cleaned, we suppose a "feller" will have to shake the dust off his shoes before he is permitted to enter town. We wonder if there is any danger of being reported to the town council for "chawin tobacker," or "blowin" ones nose on the street. One thing is certain, things are very "nice" just about now, but we very much fear that they will not be kept so till this time next week.

☞ The number of nine months' regiments mustered out of the service at Camp Curtin during the last month number fifteen in all. Calculating a thousand men to a regiment, this would give a total of fifteen thousand men; but, owing to disease and death, the average number in each regiment fell considerably below one thousand. Ten thousand effective men in the entire number of regiments discharged is pretty near the correct figures.

☞ On Friday last, Brien.s Circus, as advertised, exhibited in this place. It was decidedly one of the best conducted affairs of the kind that ever stopped in this place. Although the arena, which was large, was crowded to its utmost capacity, yet the best of order was kept, and all was pleasant and harmonious. The performers acted their parts well; and Kennedy, the clown got off some good jokes he sang several excellent songs, but as they were for "little Mac," we presume they were not appreciated very highly by some of the "pubs;" nevetheless, they suited our taste admirably, and from the way a majority of 'folks' cheered, we "kinder" thought they liked them too. All in all, it was a good performance, and every one seemed satisfied with what they got, seen and heard.

MARRIAGE—ITS LOVES AND HATES, sorrows and angers, hopes and fears, regrets and joys. MANHOOD, how lost, how restored, the nature, treatment and radical cure of spermatorrhœa or seminal weakness; involuntary emissions, sexual debility and impediments to marriage generally, nervousness, consumption, fits, mental and physical incapacity, resulting from SELF-ABUSE—are fully explained in the MARRIAGE GUIDE, by WILLIAM YOUNG, M. D. This most extraordinary book should be in the hands of every young person contemplating marriage, and every man or woman who desires to limit the number of their offspring to their circumstances. Every pain, disease and ache incidental to youth, maturity and old age, is fully explained; every particle of knowledge that should be known is here given.—It is full of engravings. In fact, it discloses secrets that every one should know, still it is a book that must be locked up and not lie about the house. It will be sent to any one on the receipt of 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps. Address DR. Wm. YOUNG, No. 416, Spruce street, above Fourth, Philadelphia.

STERNBERG HALL.

BY POMP SUNKINS, ESQ.

Some time ago, I told the folks,
How a man in town, sirs,
