ANOTHER CARD.

EXTRAORDINARY ARRANGEMENT!

THE undersigned respectfully informs his customers and the public generally, that he has made arrangements with several competent persons in Philadelphia who are well acquainted with the wants and tastes of mankind generally, who will devote their whole attention in the selection of choice and desirable goods, which will be received daily or otherwise, if required, for all who may favor the Peoples Cash Store, with their patronage. The great advantage of this arrangement over those who have but one person engaged in the city, will be apparent to all, and we feel assured in saying to the public, that novelties as well as great bargains may be expected in every description of Dry Goods.

Another special opening of New Goods next week. For further particulars see "our book." Very thankful for past favors, the undersigned asks a continuance of the same. H. C. FONDERSMITH,

☞ TO THE PUBLIC.—As there are many Gift Book Stores advertised throughout the country, Mr Evans deems it just to himself and his duty to the public—inasmuch as he originated the Gift Book business—to state, as evidence of the instability of many of such concerns, that they conceal their real name from the public, and are advertising their business under assumed names. Mr E is aware that these various concerns published as Gift Book Stores, are called into being to bring the business established by himself into disrepute. He asks of the public a correct judgment in regard to his Gift Book Enterprise, for the honor, integrity, and success, of which he refers to all the prominent publishers in the United States Read his Catalogue.

Blackwood's Magazine and the British Reviews.

L. SCOTT & CO., New York, continue to publish the following leading British Periodicals, viz:

1. The London Quarterly (Conservative.)
2. The Edinburgh Review (Whig.)
3. The North British Review (Free Church.)
4. The Westminster Review (Liberal.)
5. Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (Tory.)

These Periodicals ably represent the three great political parties of Great Britain—Whig, Tory, and Radical,—but politics forms only one feature of their character. As Organs of the most profound writers on Science, Literature, Morality, and Religion, they stand as they ever have stood, unrivalled in the world of letters, being considered indispensable to the scholar and the professional man, while to the intelligent reader of every class they furnish a more correct and satisfactory record of the current literature of the day, throughout the world, than can be possibly obtained from any other source.

EARLY COPIES.

The receipt of Advance Sheets from the British publishers gives additional value to these Reprints, inasmuch as they can now be placed in hands of subscribers about as soon as the original editions.

PEOPLE'S MARBLE YARD.

SHOP in North Queen street, half square south of the Railroad, and 3rd door north of M'Grann's White Horse Hotel, Lancaster city.

LEWIS HALDY, Marble Mason, respectfully informs the public that he has now in his yard the largest and best assortment of ITALIAN AND AMERICAN MARBLE ever offered to the citizens of Lancaster, and greater than any other establishment west of Philadelphia. Having made arrangements in the East to receive marble at reduced prices, he announces that he will sell much cheaper than any other establishment in this city or county can do. He is prepared to execute in the best style, MONUMENTS, TOMBS AND GRAVE STONES, MANTELS, DOOR AND WINDOW SILLS, STEPS, &c., &c., of every variety and price.

His facilities for furnishing articles in the Marble line are unsurpassed by any other establishment in the city, while he assures all who may favor him with their patronage that his work shall be executed in the very best style and on the most reasonable terms.

LETTER CUTTING in ENGLISH and GERMAN, done at the shortest notice, and on the most moderate terms.

He respectfully invites the public to call and examine his work, being fully satisfied to rest his claim to public patronage upon its merits.

Thankful for the many favors bestowed upon him, he hopes by strict attention to business to merit and receive a share of the public patronage.
