HAMMONTON LANDS.

NEW ENGLAND SETTLEMENT.

RARE OPPORTUNITY.—TO ALL WANTING FARMS—in a healthy place, twenty-five miles from Philadelphia, on the Camden and Atlantic Railroad, New Jersey. An old estate has recently been opened for sale, and the first division of 10,000 acres divided up into farms of twenty acres and upwards. The soil is of the best quality for the production of fruit, grains &c. The price is from $15 to $20 per acre, payable in easy quarter yearly instalments, within a term of four years with interest. The terms are made easy in order to insure the rapid improvement of the land, by enabling every industrious man to buy a farm. It is now being extensively improved by good roads, and some of the best citizens from New England and the Middle States are erecting large improvements. It is a scene of the greatest improvement out of Philadelphia. Seventy-five houses have been built in four months. Practical farmers and business men from the length and breadth of the Union are settling there. It is an important business place, on account of its being in the midst of a great market. Every article raised upon the land finds an immediate sale. The water is excellent, and no such thing as fever is known.

The soil is a sandy or clay loam, with a clay bottom and abundance of manures. It is free of stones and easily worked. It abounds largely in the phosphates, and such is its fertility that from the crops produced both upon this land and the large farm adjoining under cultivation, it will be found not to be excelled by any where in the production of crops most adapted to its market.

The reader may be well aware that the earliest and the best fruits and vegetables come from New Jersey, which are annually exported to the amount of millions of dollars. The land, besides being accessible in every way for fertilizers, has an abundant supply of the best quality of muck in mass.

Lumber and building materials can be had on the spot at a cheap price, from the mills. Other mills are now being opened, and brick yards being started on the ground. A person can purchase a frame tenement for present convenience for one hundred dollars. On account of the extensive emigration, this is the best course to pursue in order to get a place to live in at first. Carpenters and builders are on hand to put up houses on the best terms.

In selling here the emigrant has many advantages. He is within a few hours ride of the great cities in the Middle States and New England; he is near his old friends and associations, he is in a settled country, where every improvement and comfort of civilization is at hand, he is in a healthy place, and is not subject to the certainty of losing the greater part of his family and his own health by those malign fevers which make the graves of so many miles of the young and hardy in far off regions away from home and friends. Besides, he has a mild climate and open winter.

There are three trains daily to Philadelphia, and to all those who improve the railroad company gives a free ticket.

The reader will at once be struck with the advantages here presented, and ask himself why the property was not taken up before. The reason is, it was never thrown in the market, and unless these statements were correct no one would be invited to examine the land before purchasing. This all are expected to do. They will see the land under cultivation, they will meet persons no doubt, from their own neighborhood, they will witness the improvements, and can judge of the character of the population. Persons should come prepared to purchase, as many are leasing, and locations are not held on refusal.

The Hammonton Farmer, a monthly Literary and Agricultural sheet, containing full information of Hammonton, will be sent to each inquirer, and can be obtained at 25 cts. per annum.

Title indisputable. Warranty deeds given, clear of all incumbrance. When purchase money is paid. Route to the land.—Leave Vine street wharf, Philadelphia, for Hammonton by railroad at 7½ A. M. and 3½ P. M., when there inquire for Mr. Hyines. Boarding conveniences will be found. Letters and applications can be addressed to S. H. COUGHLIN, 262 South Fifth street, below Walnut, Philadelphia.—Maps and information cheerfully furnished.

HOUSEHOLD WORDS,

THE GIANT OF THE MONTHLIES,

Harper's New Monthly Magazine.

EACH number of the Magazine will contain 144 octavo pages, in double columns, each year thus comprising nearly two thousand pages of the choicest Miscellaneous Literature of the day. Every number will contain numerous Pictorial Illustrations, separate Plates of the Fashions, a copious chronicle of current events, and impartial notices of the important books of the month. The volumes commence with the numbers for June and December, but subscriptions may commence with any number.

TERMS.—The Magazine may be obtained of Booksellers, Periodical Agents, or from the Publishers, at Three Dollars a year, or Twenty-five Cents a number. The semi annual volumes, as completed, neatly bound in Cloth, are sold at Two Dollars each, and muslin covers are furnished to those who wish to have their back numbers uniformly bound at Twenty-Five Cents each. Fourteen volumes are now ready, bound in Cloth, at $2 00 each, and also in Half Calf, at $2 50 each.

The Publishers will supply specimen numbers gratuitously to agents and Postmasters, and will make liberal arrangements with them for circulating the Magazine. They will also supply clubs, of two persons at Five Dollars a year, or five persons at Ten Dollars. Clergymen and Teachers supplied at Two Dollars a year. Numbers from the commencement can now be supplied. Also the bound volumes.

The Magazine weighs over seven pounds, over eight ounces. The postage on each number, which must be paid quarterly in advance at the office where the Magazine is received, is three cents.

The most Popular Monthly in the world.—N. Y. Observer.

No Magazine in Europe or America is so well known, nor has half as many readers, and, we may safely say, none has received so large a tribute of admiration from the cultivated classes, that delight in a healthy, diversified, elevating periodical literature. It is the foremost Magazine of the day. The Brevoort never had a more delightful companion, nor the million a more entertaining friend, than Harper's Magazine.—Methodist Protestant (Baltimore.)

Twenty-five cents only—the cheapest, richest, and most amusing luxury for the money that we know. Three dollars secures it for one year, and what more dollars ever went so far? Put the same amount in clothes, eating, drinking, fuel, rent and how much or a small thing is obtained. If ideas, facts, and sentiments have a monetary value, and whoever sold the humor that refreshes, the pleasantries that bring a gentle smile, and brighten the passage of a truth to your brain, and the happy combination of the real and the imaginative, without which no one can live a life above the animal, are to be put into the scale opposite to dollars and cents, then you may be certainly of Harper were three or four times as dear, it would amply repay its price. It is a Magazine proper, with the idea and purpose of a Magazine—not a book, nor a scientific periodical, nor yet a supplier of light gossip and empty anecdotes—but a magazine that takes every form of interesting, dignified, and attractive literature in its grasp.—Southern Times.

The volumes bound constitute of themselves a library of miscellaneous reading, such as cannot be found in the same compass in any other publication that has come under our notice.—Bost. Courier.

Blackwood's Magazine and the British Reviews.

L. SCOTT & CO., New York, continue to publish the following leading British Periodicals, viz:

1.
The London Quarterly (Conservative.)
2.
The Edinburgh Review (Whig.)
3.
The North British Review (Free Church.)
4.
The Westminster Review (Liberal.)
5.
Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (Tory.)

These Periodicals ably represent the three great political parties of Great Britain—Whig, Tory, and Radical,—but politics forms only one feature of their character. As Organs of the most profound writers on Science, Literature, Morality, and Religion, they stand as they ever have stood, unrivalled in the world of letters, being considered indispensable to the scholar and the professional man, while to the intelligent reader of every class they furnish a more correct and satisfactory record of the current literature of the day, throughout the world, than can be possibly obtained from any other source.

EARLY COPIES.

The receipt of Advance Sheets from the British publishers gives additional value to these Reprints, inasmuch as they can now be placed in hands of subscribers about as soon as the original editions.
