The Democratic Watchman.

Brisbin on Curtin and "One of the File" on Brisbin.--A Radical Pickle.

James S. Brisbin, well known to the people of this county, (which is all the worse for him,) a young man whom Simon Cameron thought it worth his while to buy, when he was going to the highest bidder at an exceedingly low price, has lately published a letter on Ex-Governor Curtin's chances for the Vice Presidential nomination, in which he thus speaks of our distinguished townsman. We publish it in order that our readers may see a little truth, which always comes to light when there is a split in the Mongrel camp.—EDS. WATCHMAN.

"He came frequently to Washington, and after remaining some days at Willard's Hotel with boon companions, I am told, would return to Pennsylvania to weep in public, tell the mothers and fathers how he had visited the hospitals, ministered to the sick and wounded, and depict to them the suffering of their poor boys who he had not seen at all. I was in the army of the Potomac for three years, and although he said at home he was often there, yet I never heard of him and never saw him but once in the army when he came under the pretence of presenting some flags to the Pennsylvania Reserve regiments, but in reality to secure an indorsement from General Meade which he got and returned home to use it to get himself re-nominated for Governor.

Do you say that such a man can have no influence or friends? Nay, there you are mistaken, for so fine is his speech, so magnificent his presence, so winning his manners, that this fellow is a very Satan to beguile men, and those whom he had deceived once will even trust him again. Of the ten thousand officers within the gift and control of the President, if it would help him, Curtin would not hesitate to promise nine thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine to those who would serve him; for, like the Evil One of old, he is continually giving away that which he hath not to give.

With such a spectre as him in the Vice President's chair I would not consider the life of our comrade Grant safe for a single day.

I do not presume that there is any probability of Mr Curtin being nominated at Chicago for Vice President; nevertheless this bad man should not be allowed to impose himself on our soldiers' organizations in Pennsylvania, and I recommend that you acquaint Logan of the Army of the Republic; Edmunds of the League; Mitchell of the Legion, General Crittenden and such others as you may see proper, of the matter set forth in this communication, and request them to send Inspectors into Pennsylvania to inquire into the manner and process of selecting delegates to the National Convention, for otherwise I shall feel it my duty to enter a protest and demand a committee to investigate the case of the Pennsylvania delegates before they be allowed to sit down or vote in the Convention at Chicago on the 18th day of May next, and I should exceedingly regret the delay such proceeding would occasion in the business of the body.

Kentucky has elected most of her delegates, and will be on hand with a full delegation of two hundred.

Very respectfully, your most obedient servant

JAMES S BRISBIN,
Member Nat. Ex. Com

This much James has to say for Curtin, now for what is said for Brisbin by an old comrade of his, which we give below, first stating that it is altogether likely that Brisbin pretended to be a nephew of Gov. Packer, for he kissed the soles of the governor's shoes for an appointment; but that, if related to him at all, the relationship is very distant and doubtful —EDS. WATCHMAN.

Major James S. Brisbin.

To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial:

Through speeches and newspaper articles, I have read during the war, and since, of one General Brisbin, and as I never heard of his performing any noteworthy military act, and I had every facility of hearing it if he had, curiosity has prompted me to ask of you, who is this newspaper hero? Is he the same erratic genius who wrote poetry by the yard about the skies, and seas, and rocks, some ten or eleven years ago, for sundry periodicals? Is he the nephew of Ex-Governor Wm. F Packer, and is he the same who stumped Indiana and part of Westmoreland county for his uncle, extolling the beauties of Democracy, and soundly berating the "nigger party" for thinking of electing such a man as David Wilmot to be Governor of "this good old Democratic Keystone State?" If this be the man, Heaven help those who are influenced by his vaporings, for it was believed by all who knew him then, that he was of unsound mind, and his late performances would seem to strengthen that belief

I knew Brisbin well, and a more shallow-patch fellow I never met How he ever managed to maintain a position in in the army is beyond the comprehension of many true soldiers, and can only be guessed at by the fact that cunning grey headed senators select for their tools all manner of intellects—the weak and shallow as well as the strong and comprehensive. As he has just addressed a letter to the Soldiers' and Sailors' Union, relative to the action of the Republican State Convention of Pennsylvania, in which State he was always a rampant Democrat when he resided here, I beg leave to copy a sentence with a slight change

Comrades, I know this man Brisbin well; we lived together in in the same county and town, and on my honor as a soldier, "I tell thee across the bay one," (something that Brisbin never handled and knows not the use of,) he is not a fit person to receive the confidence of soldiers of proved valor. He is a vaporer, a slanderer, and when he praises he defiles the object of his praise I will not say he is a coward, but I have never heard of him having remarkable courage. Comrades, heed him not; he is unworthy respectful attention.

Hoofland's Bitters.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, as Indigestion, Dyspepsia. Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

Constipation. Flatulence, Inward Piles Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heart-burn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heart, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries possess true merit, is skilfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa. Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY

Resulting from any Cause whatever prostration of the system, induced by Severe labor, hardships. Exposure, Fevers, &c

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the week and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,

And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this Bitters or the Tonic, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE

It is a well-established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid devoid of all energy extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the Bitters, or the Tonic, is especially recommended

WEAK AND DELICATE CAILDREN

Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of marasmus, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.
