SCHOOL BUILDING DEDICATED.—With imposing ceremonies the new school building at Baileyville was dedicated last Friday evening. It was handsomely decorated with flags, bunting and ferns and presented a most attractive appearance. The meeting was called to order promptly at 7:30 o'clock with J. B. Stahr, of Pine Grove High school, presiding. The opening chorus was "My Country 'Tis of Thee," and Rev. Aikens asked for the Divine blessing. M. E. Heberling read a carefully prepared paper on the duty of parents to scholars and that they were legally and morally responsible for the training of the children. He contended that it was far cheaper to build a comfortable school house than it was to maintain poor houses. Rev. A. A. Black was the next speaker and the Misses Maud Houser and Helen Lytle sang a song of welcome. County Superintendent Gramley was the orator of the evening. He congratulated every person and object in sight. He dwelt at some length on the attendance and the compulsory law which requires 70 per cent. of attendance. Mr. Gramley though stated that in several districts only 10 per cent. of the boys and girls under the age of 16 were in school. John Reishe followed with a declamation entitled "Land of Perfect Liberty." Rev. C. T Aikens followed with a speech in which he urged the scholars to fit themselves to fill higher spheres. Rev. Black pronounced the benediction and the services were ended.

The building is of Gothic architecture, one and a half stories high, 54 by 26 feet. The vestibule is 9 by 26 feet and the two school rooms are each 26 by 25 feet. There are nineteen windows and the belfry is 6 by 6 and 9 feet high. The building is painted white with green trimmings. Wilson Gates has charge of the grammar school and Miss Bessie Schuyler, of Centre Hall, is teaching the primary school during the illness of Miss Annie Heberling, the regular teacher.

Hublersburg.

Mr. Charles Harshbarger, of Montandon, is paying his parents a visit.

James Love, of East Pittsburg, has come home to visit his mother and to spend the hunting season.

Our sports have purchased a trap and blue rock pigeons and are trying their luck, which is nothing to brag of.

Forest fires raged during Saturday and Sunday, devastating a mile or more of good wood-land belonging to Tillman.

Jacob Dunkle passed peacefully away after a prolonged illness due to heart disease on Monday, aged seventy-two years. He leaves a wife to mourn his loss.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Rev. H. I. Crow, on Thursday, when Miss Jennie Garbrick, of Zion, became the bride of Samuel Clevenstine.

Foot-ball is the rage among our high school scholars and all seem to enjoy it immensely. The ball was a present from one of the club men and is highly appreciated.

A large surprise party was given in honor of Mabel Kessinger, of Nittany, Tuesday evening. The guests went home from here in a large wagon filled with straw. It was a pleasant surprise and all report having a fine time.

Spring Mills.

Clinton Musser, of Jewel City, Kansas, John Dale and family and Miss Lillie Dale, of Lemont, Pa., and David Bradford and wife, of Centre Hall, were guests of Dr. P. W. Leitzell, last week.

C. L. Finkle's sale on Friday last was quite a large one, and everything sold well. Horses and cows—good stock—commanded high figures. Mr. Finkle will now enter into the mercantile business in our village.

Last week several of our hunters complained of a scarcity of game. I presume this accounts for some of them shooting their neighbors chickens—on the absurd pretense that half a dozen devoured large quantities of corn. Of course this is the veriest bosh, and the shooting of chickens under the circumstances is exceedingly small business.

What has become of our supervisors, are they lost on egg hill or have they resigned? Our roads are in a shocking condition and have been for months. The roads in George's Valley are in a particularly scandalous condition, rut follows rut for miles, and to drive faster than a walk would simply ruin most any kind of a vehicle. Why this procrastination?

Several of our young men got up a dancing party and supper at the Old Fort hotel on Friday evening last, and the occasion proved a very delightful one. The supper, waffles and chicken, was gotten up in an elegant and inviting manner. The table was lavishly furnished with choice dishes and beautifully set. Landlord Schaeffer won golden opinions by his courteous reception of visitors, and his pleasant and agreeable manners, soon made all feel at home. Guests were present from Lewistown, Potters Mills and Centre Hill. The sun was faintly illuminating the east, when the party separated and departed to their respective homes.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by orphan's court clerk, A. G. Archey, during the past week:

David B. Cox and Margaret Lyon, both of Bellefonte.

Harry A. Tressler, of Fillmore, and Dora M. Stephy, of State College.

Jeremiah E. Alters and Lizzie Shamp, both of Mingoville.

John Kuricy and Mary Scunizer, both of Clarence.

Clarence W. Colyer, of Linden Hall, and Amanda E. Floray, of Tusseyville.

John R. Allen and Bessie B. Adams, both of Philipsburg.

Myron D. Smith, of St. Johnsonbury, Vt., and Ella C. Johnson, of Bellefonte.

L. Frank Mayes, of Lemont, and Lucy Margaret Keller, of Houserville.

John W. Allen, of Boalsburg, and Annie M. Calderwood, Penna Furnace.

Edgar Lutz, of Zion, and Gertrude Deitrick, of Hublersburg.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

Arthur Foley Winnington-Ingram, Lord Bishop of London, contributes an interesting paper to the November Cosmopolitan on "The Overcrowding of Great Cities and Remedies for It." Apropos of the discussion of the invasion of England by Americans, Edmund Gosse furnishes in the same number an essay scoring Englishmen for their narrowness of intellect. Incidentally he has a hit at American intellectual life in the twentieth century.

IT'S HERE.

We keep studying the needs of people. That's why we so seldom lack the item you want. The loss of a sale is a trifle, but the customer is disappointed. Several disappointments and he may not come again. The loss of a customer is a serious loss to any store. Not merely a loss of profit, but a loss of prestige.

We try to make our store useful and helpful. We want it to be known as a place where everything that a druggist ought to sell may be found, and where little accommodations are given—and not grudgingly. When we don't quite please you, tell us— it will help us to make our store better.
