Haskell's Colori Capilli
RESTITUTOR.

THIS article restores grey hair permanently to its original color and condition, as result of which the possibility has heretofore been universally denied. This effect it produces by removing the obstructions to the natural secretions of the hair, thus restoring healthy action to the scalp and not only causing the hair to resume its original hue, but producing a permanent moisture, and by the use of the brush, a lustre which oils or preparations cannot give. Warranted to give satisfaction or money refunded. For sale only at McCORKLE & DELLETT.

THE GIANT OF THE MONTHLIES, Harper's New Monthly Magazine.

EACH number of the Magazine will contain 144 octavo pages, in double columns, each year thus comprising nearly two thousand pages of the choicest Miscellaneous Literature of the day. Every number will contain numerous Pictorial Illustrations, accurate Plates of the Fashions, a copious chronicle of current events, and impartial notices of the important books of the month. The volumes commence with the numbers for June and December; but subscriptions may commence with any number.

TERMS.—The Magazine may be obtained of Booksellers, Periodical Agents, or from the Publishers, at Three Dollars a year or Twenty-five Cents a number. The semi-annual volumes, as completed nearly bound in Cloth, are sold at Two Dollars each, and muslin covers are furnished to those who wish to have their back numbers uniformly bound, at Twenty-Five Cents each. Fourteen volumes are now ready, bound in Cloth, at $2 00 each, and also in Half Calf, at $2 50 each.

The Publishers will supply specimen numbers gratuitously to agents and Postmasters, and will make liberal arrangements with them for circulating the magazine. They will also supply clubs, of two persons at Five Dollars a year, or five persons at Ten Dollars. Clergymen and Teachers supplied at Two Dollars a year. Numbers from the commencement can now be supplied. Also the bound volumes.

The Magazine weighs over seven and not over eight ounces. The postage on each number, which must be paid quarterly in advance at the office where the Magazine is received, is three cents.

The most Popular Monthly in the world.—N Y Observer

No Magazine in Europe or America is so well known; none has half as many readers; and, we may safely say, none has received so large a tribute of admiration from the cultivated classes, that delight in a healthy, diversified, elevating periodical literature. It is the foremost Magazine of the day. The fireside never had a more delightful companion, nor the million a more entertaining friend, than Harper's Magazine.—Methodist Protestant. (Baltimore)

Twenty-five cents buys it—the cheapest, richest, and most lasting luxury for the money that we know. Three dollars secures it for one year, and what three dollars ever put out so much? Put the same amount in other things, eating, drinking, furniture and how much of a substantial thing is obtained? If ideas, facts, and sentiments have a monetary value—above all, if the humor that refreshes, the pleasantries that bring a gentle smile, and brighten the passage of a truth to your brain, and the happy combination of the real and the imaginative, without which no one can live a life above the animal, are to be put into the scale opposite to dollars and cents, then you may be certain that if Harper were three or four times as dear, it would amply repay its price. It is a Magazine proper, with the idea and purpose of a Magazine—not a book, not a scientific periodical, not yet a supplier of light gossip and chatty anecdotes—but a magazine that takes every form of interesting, dignified, and attractive literature in its grasp.—Southern Times.

The volumes bound constitute of themselves a library of miscellaneous reading, such as cannot be found in the same compass in any other publication that has come under our notice.—Boston Courier.

Blackwood's Magazine and the British Reviews.

L. SCOTT & CO., NEW YORK, continue to publish the following leading British Periodicals, viz:

1. The London Quarterly (Conservative.)
2. The Edinburgh Review (Whig.)
3. The North British Review (Free Church.)
4. The Westminster Review (Liberal.)
5. Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (Tory.)

These Periodicals ably represent the three great political parties of Great Britain—Whig, Tory, and Radical,—but politics forms only one feature of their character. As Organs of the most profound writers on Science, Literature, Morality, and Religion, they stand as they ever have stood, unrivalled in the world of letters, being considered indispensable to the scholar and the professional man, while to the intelligent reader of every class they furnish a more correct and satisfactory record of the current literature of the day, throughout the world, than can be possibly obtained from any other source.

EARLY COPIES.

The receipt of ADVANCE SHEETS from the British publishers gives additional value to these Reprints, inasmuch as they can now be placed in hands of subscribers about as soon as the original editions.
