"ALL THE YEAR ROUND."

DICKENS' NEW WEEKLY.

WE have the pleasure of announcing that we have entered into arrangements with Charles Dickens, for the issue of his new publication, entitled, "All the Year Round," each week, in New York, simultaneously with its issue in London, plates being taken from the English edition, and forwarded to us sufficiently in advance of publication for that purpose. The first number will appear in London and New York on Wednesday, May 4th, and will contain the commencement of a new story by Charles Dickens, to be continued from week to week during about eight months.

Thus, it will be seen that American readers of "All the Year Round," will obtain the stories and other contributions of Mr. Dickens, and the staff of writers associated with him, embracing an array of distinguished talent with which no other publication can compare, several weeks in advance of their reaching this country through ordinary sources, and at the same time they are given to the public in London.

We will state that this arrangement has been consummated by the payment of a large sum of money to Mr. Dickens, yet the extraordinary interest which the announcement of the publication has excited in literary circles, the assurance which Mr. Dickens has given that he shall devote to it all of his best energies, and the appearance of a new story from his pen, cannot fail to command for it at once a large circulation.

The following announcement from Mr. Dickens, will convey an idea of the character and aims of the work:

ADDRESS.

Nine years of Household Words are the best assurance that can be offered to the public of the spirit and objects of "All the Year Round."

In transferring myself, and my strongest energies, from the publication that is about to be discontinued, to the publication that is about to be begun, I have the happiness of taking with me that staff of writers with whom I have labored, and all the literary and business co-operation that can make my work a pleasure. In some important respects, I am now free greatly to advance on past arrangements. Those I leave to testify for themselves in due course.

That fusion of the graces of the imagination with the realities of life, which is vital to the welfare of any community, and for which I have striven from week to week as honestly as I could during the last nine years, will continue to be striven for, "all the year round." The old weekly cares and duties become things of the Past, merely so be assumed, with an increased love for them and brighter hopes springing out of them, in the Present and the Future.

I look, and plan, for a very much wider circle of readers, and yet again for a steadily expanding circle of readers in the projects I hope to carry through "all the year round." And I feel confident that this expectat on will be realized, if it deserves realization.

The task of my new journal is set, and it will steadily try to work the task out. Its pages shall show to good purpose their motto is remembered in them, and with how much of fidelity and earnestness they tell The Story of our Lives from Year to Year.

CHARLES DICKENS.

SALAMANDER SAFES.

EVANS & WATSON.
No. 26 South Fourth st.,
PHILADELPHIA.

Have now on hand a large assortment of Fire and Thief Proof Salamander Safes. Also Iron Doors for Banks and Stores, Iron Shutters, Iron Safes all makes of Locks, equal to any made in the United States.

☞ Five Safes in one fire. All come out right with contents in good condition.

The Salamander Safes of Philadelphia against the world.

EVANS & WATSON have had the street demonstration in the following certificate, that their manufacture of Salamander Safes has at length fully warranted the representations which have been made of them as rendering an undoubted security against the terrific element:

Philadelphia, April 12, 1856.

Messrs. Evans & Watson—Gentlemen—It affords me the highest satisfaction to give to you (at your request) my testimony to the value of your Salamander Safes which we purchased of you some few months since, we saved a large portion of our Jewelry, and all our books, papers, &c., exposed to the enormous fire in Rue-bed Place, on the morning of the 11th instant.

When we reflect that these Safes were located in the fourth story of the building we occupied, and that they fell subsequently into a chasm of burning ruins, where the vehement concentration of heat caused the brass plates to melt, we cannot but regard the preservation of their valuable contents as most convincing proof of the great security afforded by your Safes.

We shall take pleasure in recommending them to men of business as a sure reliance against fire.

Books from the Spring Trade Sale

AT CHEAP BOOK STORE.

A RARE opportunity for those in want of Good Books at a small cost.

Never have Books sold cheaper than at the recent Philadelphia Spring Sale.

The proprietor of the Cheap Book Store has availed himself of the opportunity to purchase a large stock of the most varied assortment of valuable books of every class and description. He now offers to the public the same, at proportionably and unusually low rates.

Those in want of valuable standard works, for the improving of a well-selected library, will find it to their great advantage to call and examine the extensive stock on hand. My object and wish is, as it always was, to supply the wants of the community with anything in my line, on the most reasonable terms possible. This we find the better and most advantageous course for all parties. The Political Economist tells us "the cheaper an article is, the more universally it can and will be used." Then the conclusion is, that when we buy cheap, we must sell cheap, simply allowing ourselves a reasonable profit.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS.

I would call especial attention to my large assortment of Sunday School Books on hand, of every variety wanted for the use of Sunday Schools; and sell at the Sunday School Union prices. I have the agencies for the publications of the American Sunday School Union, American Tract Society, Methodist Book and Tract Society. Also, the Lutheran, Presbyterian, Episcopal, and other denominations are kept on hand.
