LIFE INSURANCE.

WE are told that he who neglects to provide for his household is worse than the heathen. There is no doubt of it. When in health the provident man will provide for his charge, and what is that in addition to his prudence should prepare for solace in the dark day, for the hour when the sympathy of friends is as sounding brass. This can be done by Life Insurance. Every man owes this duty to his family. The uncertainty of life is a constant lesson which teaches the fact that he who to-day walks in the pride of manhood, may call to-morrow, and the place, by which children and minors were to have been brought to the loved ones, vanish as the morning mists. Let every man in health insure to his family the comfort of knowing that should he be called from them the wolf may be kept from the door.

The United States Life Insurance & Trust Co. effect this end. For pamphlets, terms and general information on the subject, refer to
F. X. ZIEGLER, Agent,

"Unquestionably the best sustained Work of the kind in the World."

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.

No Magazine in Europe or America is so well known; none has half as many readers; and, we may safely say, none has received so large a tribute of admiration from the cultivated classes, that delight in a healthy, diversified, elevating periodical literature. It is the foremost Magazine of the day. The facetiæ never had a more delightful companion, nor the million a more entertaining friend than Harper's Magazine.—Methodist Protestant. (Baltimore.)

Twenty-five cents buys the cheapest, richest, and most lasting luxury for the money that we know. Three dollars secures it for one year, and what three dollars ever went so far? Put the same amount in clothes, furniture, drinking, furniture, and how much of a substantial thing is obtained? If ideas, facts, and sentiments have a monetary value—above all, if the humor that refreshes, the pleasantries that bring a gentle smile, and brighten the passage of a train to your home, and the happy combinations of the real and the imaginative, without which no one can live a life above the animal, are to be put into the scale opposite to dollars and cents, then you may be certain, that if Harper were three or four times as dear, it would amply repay its price. It is a Magazine proper, with the idea and purpose of a Magazine—not a book, nor a scientific periodical, nor yet a supplier of light gossip and chatty anecdotes—but a Magazine that takes every form of interesting, dignified and attractive literature in its grasp.—Southern Times.

The volumes bound constitute of themselves a library of miscellaneous reading, such as can not be found in the same compass in any other publication that has come under our notice.—Prescott Courier

Unquestionably it is the best sustained work of the kind in the language, that is to say, in the world. The splendid monthly essays from the Editor's Table are above praise. The present number is equal to any previous one, and there is no danger no doubt a long career of prosperity to the work.—N. Y. Christian Advocate and Journal.

We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellence of Harper's Magazine, a journal with a monthly circulation of about 170,000 copies, in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the American people, and the popularity it has acquired is merited. Each number contains fully 144 pages of instructive matter, appropriately illustrated with good wood cuts; and it combines in itself the racy monthly and the more philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the daily journal. It has great power in the creation and dissemination of a love of pure literature.—Trubner's Guide to American Literature London. 1859.

TERMS.

The Magazine may be obtained of Booksellers, Periodical Agents, or from the Publishers, at Three Dollars a year, or Twenty Five Cents a Number. The semi annual volumes, as completed, neatly bound in cloth, are sold at Two Dollars each; and muslin Covers are furnished to those who wish their back numbers uniformly bound, at Twenty Five Cents each. Nineteen volumes are now ready, bound in Cloth, and also in Half Calf.

The Publishers will supply Specimen Numbers gratuitously to Agents and Postmasters, and will make liberal arrangements with them for circulating the Magazine. They will also supply clubs of two persons at Five Dollars a year, of five persons at Ten Dollars. Clergymen and Teachers supplied at Two Dollars a year. Numbers from the commencement can now be supplied. Also, the bound Volumes.

The Magazine weighs over seven and not over eight ounces. The Postage upon each number, which must be paid quarterly in advance at the Office where the Magazine is received, is Three Cents.

The Best, heapest, and Most Successful Family Paper in the Union.

HARPER'S WEEKLY.

Price Five Cents a Number: $2.50 per year,
[From the N. Y. Evening Post, 1858.]

HARPER'S WEEKLY.—The fifty-two numbers of this attractive and entertaining publication, issued during the last year, have been gathered into a single volume, and now that we see them together, we are surprised at the variety, the graphicness, and the value of the contents. There is a complete history of nearly all the public events of the year—there are ample discussions on the leading topics—there are the graceful inflings (not always moral, however, but profoundly instructive) of the Lounger—there are the tales and stories of Bulwer, Dickens, Thackeray, &c.—there are the records of jokes, news and gossip—and, above all, there are those striking wood cut representations of contemporary men and things, of follies and fashions, and of customs and country—all contained within a single volume, and to be had for a song. It is a grand picture-book of the human life of the nineteenth century, in all its phases. It is not merely all serious. Every class of readers, moreover, may be interested by it—the old and thoughtful, the young and gay; the man of business, the child and the woman.

We would not so often call attention to Harper's Weekly if we were not well satisfied that it is the best family paper published in the United States, and for that reason, and that alone, we desire to see it and examine and root out a certain kind of literature too prevalent, which blunts the morals of its readers, vitiates their taste for sensible reading, and is altogether bad in its effects.—New London Advertiser.

As Harper's Magazine has done much to drive out the yellow-covered literature, so we should be glad to see the new Weekly take the place of those papers which depend for excitement on poor, trashy novels.—New York Evangelist.

Harper's Weekly abounds in original matter, spicy piquant, instructive, and entertaining. It has, and deservedly, a very large and increasing circulation. It is a tip-top family paper.—Boston Journal

If Harper's Weekly is the proper size for binding, and an excellent opportunity is afforded for any one who wishes to preserve the history of the country as it is made, to do so by filing Harper's Weekly.—Pontiac (Mich.) Jacksonian.

Its fresh leaves in clear type, its entertaining variety, its severe but just criticisms upon the follies of the times, its elegantly written and instructive articles, and its able correspondence, all combine to make it the model newspaper of our country, and one that every family must prize. Its condensed weekly summary of Foreign and Domestic Intelligence is altogether superior to that contained in any other journal. Being published long in a form of preservation and binding, if taken care of as it deserves to be, it will be found in future years as welcome a companion for the family and fireside as the day on which it was first perused.—McConnelsville (O.) Inquirer.

Harper's Weekly is electrotyped, and back numbers can be furnished at any time.

Moffat's
VEGETABLE LIFE PILLS
AND PHŒNIX BITTERS.

THE high and envied celebrity which these preeminent Medicines have acquired for their invariable efficacy in all the diseases which they profess to cure, has rendered the usual practice of puffing not only unnecessary, but unworthy of them. They are known by their fruits; their good works testify for them, and they thrive not by the faith of the credulous.

In all cases of Asthma, Acute and Chronic Rheumatism, Affections of the Bladder and Kidneys, Bilious Fevers and Liver Complaints—in the south and west, where these diseases prevail they will be found invaluable. Planters, Farmers and others, who once use these Medicines, will never afterwards be without them.

Dyspepsia.—No person with this distressing disease should delay using these medicines immediately.—Eruptions of the Skin, Erysipelas, Flatulency, Fever and Ague. For this scourge of the western country these medicines will be found a safe, speedy, and certain remedy. Other medicines leave the system subject to a return of the disease—a cure by these medicines is permanent. Try them, be satisfied, and be cured.

MERCURIAL DISEASES.—Never fails to eradicate entirely all the effects of Mercury infinitely sooner than the most powerful preparation of Sarsaparilla.

Night Sweats, Nervous Debility, Nervous Complaints of all kinds, Organic Affections, Palpitation of the Heart, Painter's Colic.

PILES.—The original proprietor of these medicines was cured of Piles of 25 years standing by the use of these Life Medicines alone. Worms of all kinds are effectually expelled by these Medicines. Parents will do well to administer them whenever their existence is suspected. Relief will be certain.
