CENTRE HALL.

J. D. Moore has been quite ill for the past week, suffering from grippe.

The Ministerium met at the home of Rev. Drumm on Tuesday afternoon.

On Sunday night a big Buick touring car started down over the side of Nittany mountain, near the top. Fortunately it came in contact with a big tree, which kept it from landing near the Brush valley road.

Mrs. and Mrs. George Breon and daughter Laura spent several days visiting among their old friends in this locality. They came up from their home in Reading to attend the golden wedding of Mr. Breon's parents, on Saturday.

On Tuesday evening the class in piano and violin music taught by Miss Byrd Stover, of Rebersburg, gave a recital in the United Evangelical church in this place, which proved a treat to all who heard it. The church was beautifully decorated with plants and cut flowers and filled with a large audience. The violin club, organized only eight months ago, is composed of Agnes Geary, pianist; Harold Durst, James and Elizabeth Royer, Mary and Ruth Bingman and Miriam Moore. Their renditions showed remarkable progress. The two little sons of William McClenahan, eight and nine nine years old, played a duet very beautifully on their violins. A number of little girls and boys played solos, duets and trios on the piano and did very well. The more advanced pupils rendered some difficult pieces in a most creditable manner. One of the numbers worthy of special mention was "Loving Memories," a composition by the teacher, Miss Stover, and played on the piano by Miss Mary Bingman. Miss Stover is a faithful and talented teacher and her good work in Centre Hall is recognized and appreciated. At the recital on Tuesday evening the pupils presented her with a beautiful bouquet of pink and white carnations. A nice little sum was realized by the church as the result of the recital.
