CIRCULAR.—The undersigned, having complied with the requirements of the Auction Law, and taken out a Commission as Auctioneer for the City of Allegheny, is now ready to receive merchandize, in all its variety, on consignment for either public or private sale; and from long experience in the above branch of business, flatters himself that he will be able to give entire satisfaction to all who may favor him with their patronage.

Liberal advances made on goods when required.

He would solicit a call from all in want of articles in his line. WM. J. BURNSIDE

Allegheny city, September, 1847.

Auction Notice.

THE subscriber has paid into the Treasury of the Commonwealth, the amount of license required by law. He has given the regularly approved security, and taken out a commission of the first class, as an Auctioneer of the city of Pittsburgh, and rented that spacious warehouse belonging to Sylvanus Lothrop, No. 84 Wood street, three doors from Fifth, where he is prepared to attend to the sale of every kind of Merchandise, Furniture, Real Estate, Stocks, Shipping, &c., either in the Auction Rooms or on the premises, and will in all cases exert himself to the utmost for the benefit of his employers, on the most reasonable terms; he will sell exclusively and only on commission; neither purchasing nor having any interest under any circumstances in the stock, but merely the commission for selling, thereby giving all owners a fair chance without partiality of having therein property disposed of to the best advantage.

Sales will be promptly settled when made. Advances will be given at any time, on the most accommodating terms. Merchants will not be charged for advances.

Regular sale days: Mondays and Thursdays, of Dry Goods, Groceries, Furniture, &c.; and every evening, Jewelry, Cutlery, Watches, Plate, Pistols, and Fancy Articles. Books on Saturday evenings.

JAMES M'KENNA. Auct.

Removal.

H. & E. TODD would respectfully inform the members of the city and our customers generally, that we have removed our stock of Shirts and Gents' Furnishing Goods, to the corner of Fifth and Market streets, 2d story over W. & P. Hogue's, entrance on Fifth street, where we intend to keep on hand a large stock of Shirts, of our own manufacture, with an assortment of Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods, usually kept by Eastern Wholesale Shirt Makers.

Being very thankful for the kind patronage bestowed on us for the past year, we would be happy to receive calls from our old customers and merchants generally, and would inform them that we intend nothing on our part shall induce them to look further, as we expect to add largely to our stock, and diminish our prices.

Merchants and dealers are solicited to examine our stock of Goods. ap10-tf

Splendid Establishment.

JAMES W. WOODWELL, would respectfully inform the public that he has removed to his new location, No. 85, Third street, (next door to the old stand.) Neither expense nor trouble has been spared, to make it the most extensive and magnificent Furniture warehouse to be found any where, east or west. The stock on hand, for variety, taste and elegance, is such as has never been offered to any public. From the most costly outfits at $1,000 per set, down to chamber and kitchen furniture, may be found in styles and patterns, to suit any and every taste. J. W. Woodwell hopes for a continuance of the very liberal patronage extended to him heretofore, and pledges himself to give entire satisfaction; both as regards the solidity, durability and style of his articles, and the liberal and accommodating principles upon which he does business.—His extensive new warehouse being now filled from the cellar to the fourth story, with every variety of furniture and CHAIRS, he would solicit a call from all in want of articles in his line. ap27

West Point Works.

PRESTON & WAGNER, Engine Builders, have commenced business on Penn st., near the Point, at the establishment formerly carried on by Stackhouse & Nelson.
