Gen. Grant a Statesman.

The small-fry newspapers and orators of the Democratic faith, one urged by the World and the other by Wade Hampton, or Booth's ghost, continually harp upon Gen. Grant's statemanship, and argue that his success in the past is not attributable to any inherent worth of his, but that his greatness found birth from circumstances, and that really he is a man of no worth in civil, political, military or social life.

Such base slanders and uncharitable assertions scarcely merit a rebuke from his defenders. The fact that he has grown, as all great men have, from an humble, but honorable parentage, to be a candidate for the Presidency, and that he has grown from the occupation of tanner, to that of the highest military officer of the nation, are arguments in themselves, that prove his superior manly worth, and that abundantly attest his ability and capacity. In the opinion of the American people, in the opinion of sister countries, his peer does not exist. He is the man of the times, and with due respect for the worth of his comrades in battle, he proved to be the champion when all others failed, and as unworthy as he is reputed to be by his traducers, he stands to-day the proud heart of our national life—the unassuming, brave, victorious, and altogether, the model statesman. We do not ask the public to believe him a statesman, without citing proof, which can be found in the following letter, written when he was a Major-General, and in the days of our country's trials. The letter breathes a spirit of loyalty and love of country, and clearly depicts his statesmanship and general worth. It was written in answer to an invitation from the Memphis Chamber of Commerce to a complimentary dinner, at the close of his great Tennessee campaign:

MEMPHIS, TENN., Aug. 26, 1863.

GENTLEMEN: I have received a copy of resolutions passed by the "loyal citizens of Memphis, at a meeting held at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, Aug. 25, 1863," tendering me a public reception.

In accepting this testimonial, which I do at a great sacrifice of my personal feelings, I simply desire to pay a tribute to the first public exhibition in Memphis of loyalty to the Government which I represent in the department of the Tennessee. I should dislike to refuse, for considerations of personal convenience, to acknowledge, anywhere, or in any form, the existence of sentiments which I have so long and so ardently desired to see manifested in this department. The stability of this Government, and the unity of this nation, depend solely on the cordial support and the earnest loyalty of the people. While, therefore, I thank you sincerely for the kind expressions you have used toward myself, I am profoundly gratified at this public recognition, in the city of Memphis, of the power and authority of the Government of the United States.

I thank you, too, in the name of the noble army which I have the honor to command. It is composed of men whose loyalty has been proven by their deeds of heroism and their willing sacrifice of life and health. They will rejoice with me that the miserable adherents of the rebellion, whom their bayonets have driven from this fair land, are being replaced by men who acknowledge human liberty as the only true foundation of human government. May your efforts to restore your city to the cause of the Union be as successful as have been theirs to reclaim it from the despotic rule of the leaders of the rebellion.

I have the honor to be, gentlemen, your obedient servant.

U. S. GRANT, Major-General.

Now, let us ask the honest reader if Grant is man of circumstances, and entirely devoid of worth?

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE MERCHANTS' PROTECTIVE UNION, MERCANTILE REFERENCE REGISTER.

THE MERCHANTS' PROTECTIVE UNION, organized to promote and protect trade, by enabling its subscribers to attain facility and safety in the granting of credits, and the recovery of claims at all points, have to announce that they will, in September, 1868, publish in one large quarto volume:

THE MERCHANTS' PROTECTIVE UNION MERCANTILE REFERENCE REGISTER,

Containing, among other things, the NAMES, NATURE OF BUSINESS, AMOUNT OF CAPITAL, FINANCIAL STANDING, AND RATING AS TO CREDIT, of over 400,000 of the principal merchants, traders, bankers, manufacturers, and public companies, in more than 30,000 of the cities, towns, villages, and settlements throughout the United States, their territories, and the British Provinces of North America; and embracing the most important information attainable and necessary to enable the merchant to ascertain at a glance the CAPITAL, CHARACTER, and DEGREE OF CREDIT of such of his customers as are deemed worthy of any gradation of credit; comprising also, a Newspaper Directory, containing the title, character, price, and place of publication, with full particulars relative to each journal, being a complete guide to the press of every county in the United States.

The reports and information will be confined to those deemed worthy of some line of credit; and as the same will be based, so far as practicable, upon the written statements of the parties themselves, revised and corrected by well-known and reliable legal correspondents, whose character will prove a guarantee of the correctness of the information furnished by them, it is believed that the reports will prove more truthful and complete, and, therefore, superior to, and of much greater value, than any previously issued.

By aid of the MERCANTILE REFERENCE REGISTER, business men will be enabled to ascertain, at a glance, the capital and gradation of credit, as compared with financial worth, of nearly every merchant, manufacturer, trader, and banker, within the above named territorial limits.

On or about the first of each month, subscribers will also receive the Monthly Chronicle, containing, among other things, a record of such important changes in the name and condition of firms, throughout the country, as may occur subsequent to the publication of each half-yearly volume of the MERCANTILE REFERENCE REGISTER.

Price of The Merchants' Union Mercantile Reference Register, fifty dollars, ($50,) for which it will be forwarded to any address in the United States, transportation paid.

Holders of five $10 shares of the Capital Stock, in addition to participating in the profits, will receive one copy of the Mercantile Reference Register free of charge; holders of ten shares will be entitled to two copies; and no more than ten shares of the Capital Stock will be allotted to any one applicant.

All remittances, orders, or communications relative to the book should be addressed to the MERCHANTS' PROTECTIVE UNION,

HAIR PREPARATIONS.

HALL'S

VEGETABLE

SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER

HAS STOOD THE TEST OF SEVEN YEARS BEFORE THE PUBLIC;

And no preparation for the hair has yet been discovered that will produce the same beneficial results. It is an entirely new scientific discovery, combining many of the most powerful and restorative agents in the VEGETABLE KINGDOM. It restores

GRAY HAIR TO ITS ORIGINAL YOUTHFUL COLOR

It makes the scalp white and clean; cures dandruff and humors, and falling out of the hair; and will make it grow upon bald heads, except in very aged persons, as it furnishes the nutritive principle by which the hair is nourished and supported. It makes the hair moist, soft, and glossy, and is unsurpassed as a HAIR DRESSING. It is the cheapest preparation ever offered to the public, as one bottle will accomplish more and last longer than three bottles of any other preparation.

IT IS RECOMMENDED AND USED BY THE FIRST MEDICAL AUTHORITY.

The wonderful results produced by our SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER have induced many to manufacture preparations for the
