The Three Big Doors.—The Saloon, Build'g

150,000 WELL SELECTED GARMENTS now made and ready to be offered on the most liberal terms to my old customers and the public in general. The Proprietor of this far-famed and extensive establishment for one, after returning from the Eastern cities, spared much trouble and expense, just completed a full and uniform arrangement to supply the thousands of customers with one of the most desirable stocks of Clothing that ever been offered in this or any other market west of the mountains. For neatness in style and workmanship, combined with the very low prices which they will be sold for, must certainly render the old unrivalled Three Big Doors one of the greatest attractions of the western country. It is gratifying me to be able to announce to my numerous friends at home and abroad, that notwithstanding the extraordinary efforts which I have made to meet the many calls in my house, it is with difficulty I can keep time with the constant rush that is made on this establishment. It is now the established place, that my sales are eight or ten times larger than any other house in the trade, and this being the case on the smallest scale, I can afford to sell at much less profit than others could possibly think of doing if they wished to cover contingent expences. I intend to make a clean sweep of all my present stock before the beginning of next year; coming to this conclusion, I will make it the interest of every man, who wants a cheap Clothing, to call and purchase at the Three Big Doors.

Clothing! Clothing!!

THE Spring and Summer stock that is now ready to be offered at the old original

THREE BIG DOORS.

Is one of the largest and choicest selection that have ever been exhibited by any one concern in this or any other city in the Union. I will not undertake to describe to the reader the different assortments of articles which I now have to offer them; but will simply tell them that if they only favor me with a call, I will by before them 75,000 different garments to make a choice out of, consisting in part of Coats, from the richest in quality down to the lowest in price; Pantaloons and Vests, to the nonplussment of the beholder, with both mouth and eyes open, wondering in the most extravagant degree of surprise, how such a vast collection of READY MADE CLOTHING could possibly be collected together under the roof of one individual. But such things will be, so long as perseverance and industry are the main springs of action.

Without any intention of boasting, on my part, I will say at the same time, it is of such merit I am principally considering, for nothing in the shape or form of clothing, no matter what their magnitude may be, can deter me from accomplishing my object, in providing for the farmer, the mechanic, and the day laborer. My whole attention is taken up with the greatest care for their welfare, in getting up fashionable, and at the same time substantial garments, to meet their demands; and as for others, who fancy themselves moving in a different sphere, and requiring an article of the ne plus ultra kind, they have only to give me an outline of their wants, and they are suited to a word.

Now, let me say a word or two to my country merchants in the trade: If you wish to save from at least 25 to 50 per cent in your wholesale purchases, call in at the "Three Big Doors," and if I don't meet your most sanguine hopes, in the way of getting cheap bargains, and fashionable goods, I will not in future attempt to offer my inducements or a similar kind to a generous people of so noble a nature and character.

ALMANACS! ALMANACS! ALMANACS!—DR. D. JAYNE would hereby inform the public that he publishes annually, for gratuitous distribution by himself and all his Agents, an Almanac, called Jayne's Medical Almanac, and Guide to Health. The calculations for this Almanac are made with great care and accuracy, and for five different Latitudes and Longitudes, so as to make them equally useful, as a Calendar, in every part of the United States and British North America. They are printed on good paper, and with handsome new type, and are neatly bound, and besides being the neatest and most accurate calendar printed in the United States, they contain a large amount of valuable information, suited to the wants of all, and of that kind, too, which cannot be found in books.

His Catalogue of Diseases, with remarks and directions for their removal, is really invaluable, and makes them welcome visitors in every house they enter. Every family should possess at least one of these Annuals. His Almanac for 1849 is now ready for distribution, of which he designs to publish at least Two Millions, and in order that every family in the United States and British America, may be furnished with a copy, he hereby invites Merchants and Storekeepers to forward their orders to him as early as possible, and they shall be supplied gratuitously with as many copies as they deem necessary to supply their various customers. They are so invited, at the same time, to send a copy of their "Business Card," which will be printed and placed on the cover of the Almanacs sent them, free of charge.

They are also requested to give all necessary directions how the Almanacs should be forwarded to them. By law they cannot be sent by mail unless the postage is first paid on them here.

Orders (post paid) directed to DR. D. JAYNE, Philadelphia, will meet with prompt attention.

Families can obtain these Almanacs gratis, of

A. JAYNES,
Pekin Tea Store, 70 Fourth st., Pittsburgh.

Connell's Magical Pain Extractor.

IT is now conceded by medical men that Connell's Magical Pain Extractor, manufactured by Comstock & Co., 21 Courtland st., New York, is the greatest wonder of the 19th century. Its effects are truly miraculous. All pains are removed from bones, scalds, burns, and all external sores, in a few minutes after its application; leaving the same on the most delicate skin, leaving no discoloration, and is free from all alcoholic stimulant, syrup, mercury, aloes, quinine, acids, and all injurious ingredients, and especially adapted to the diseases of the variable climate of the United States, and the West India Islands.

WEEK AND DELICATE CHILDREN are made strong by using it—in fact it is a family medicine, and can be administered with safety to a child one day old. It cures Rheumatism, Gout, Lumbago, &c. The Philadelphia Democrat says:—"This medicine has an extraordinary virtue and efficacy, and is in great demand. We can speak from experience, that it has produced many wonderful cures."

The Daily Sun says:—"We believe it is one of the best medicines of the age—a friend and neighbor has its own family with great satisfaction in the Jaundice and Liver Complaint."

The Spirit of the Times and Keystone says:—"Do our good citizens, who are invalids, know the many astonishing cures that have been performed by Dr. Comstock's celebrated German Bitters? If they do not, we presume them to the German Medicine Store, 278 Race street, and will find persons who are afflicted with Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia or Nervous Debility, the Doctor has cured many of our citizens, after the best physicians had failed. We have used them, and they have proved to be a medicine that every one should know of, and we cannot refrain giving our testimony in their favor, and we believe there is no greater benefit to be conferred on a fellow creature than to restore health to the afflicted."

The Evening Bulletin says:—The Celebrated German Bitters are an invaluable remedy for Jaundice, Dyspepsia, and nervous complaints.

Neal's Gazette says:—"It is not often we notice the various excellent medicines advertised in our columns, because we are unwilling to speak except from personal experience, and a good communing therefrom, and we are generally strangers to such articles. A word, however, of Dr. Houflund's German Bitters. This we know to be an excellent article fulfilling in every respect what is claimed for it by the adverviser.

The Daily News says:

"A Medicine—We speak knowingly of Dr. Houfland's celebrated German Bitters when we say it is a blessing of this age, and in diseases of the liver, digestive and nervous systems, it has not, we think, its equal. —IS A VEGETABLE PREPARATION AND MADE WITHOUT ALCOHOL, and in all its results we would recommend it as worthy their confidence.

What stronger testimony can a medicine have? At the Depot can be seen the evidence of the cures of various cases 3, 4 and 4½ dollars, and blue black Silks, for half a dollar; Fancy dress Silks; black and Mode colors; M. de Laines, Lustres, Satins, and Satin Striped Silks of various colors
