The Daily Morning Post.

PITTSBURGH, TUESDAY, MORNING, November 7th, 1848.

☞ The Merchants' and Manufacturers' Bank has this day declared a dividend of four per cent. on the Capital Stock, out of the profits for the last six months.
nov6 W. H. DENNY, Cashier.

☞ A cough should never be neglected. It may appear trifling and unworthy the attention at first, but if it will not remain stationary long; if may progress slow at first, and its augmentation may be scarcely perceptible; yet soon it will, in the lungs, all the other parts of the body will be by it unhealthfully affected, and a confirmed Consumption and premature death will be the inevitable result. A little care would save many a life, and be timely use of a proper remedy might have arrested the fatal consumption. But many persons have an invincible repugnance to taking any medicine, and rather than use the means towards arresting a disease, simply because the cause may not be a pleasant one, would suffer and languish for a long time, before they would resort to the aid of medicine.

B. A. Fahnestock & Co.'s Cough Balsam has a great advantage in this respect over many other Cough preparations, at its pleasant taste permits it to be used without inconvenience. But its value as a Balsam consists in the speediness of its cure. We have known some of the most desperate coughs, some of which had been running on for a considerable length of time, yield almost immediately to its power.

Prepared and for sale, wholesale and retail, by
B. A. FAHNESTOCK & Co.
nov12 corr. Wood and 1st, and Wood and 6th sts.

☞ FLUTE OF DESERTEY, GENERAL DEBILITATION.—At length a cure for the above, which may be most confidently relied on, has made its appearance; a cure so positive that it never has failed, and never can fail, if properly administered, to prove wherever the money paid for it will be instantly returned in every case where it does not give the most thorough satisfaction. Clickener's Sugar-coated Vegetable Purgative Pills is the remedy spoken of, and reference is made to all respectable physicians, who will cheerfully give the most unqualified testimony in their favor. Let any person afflicted with either of these diseases give them but one trial, and he is sure to purchase them for life; not only because they cure them more speedily and better than any other medicine, but also because they are as easily swallowed as bits of loaf sugar, and are entirely unattended with griping or nausea. They are so powerful that three of them will effectually operate on a giant, and yet so mild and pleasant that a child might swallow half a box full without pain or danger.

For Sale, Exchange, or Rent.

THE subscriber, intending to retire from his present business, about the first of April next, or as soon as circumstances will permit, will dispose of his property in or near Blairsville, in one or other of the ways spoken of above. They are stated in the order he would prefer as to the disposal.

The property consists of extensive Brick Buildings, erected expressly for the purpose of being used as a HOTEL. Another Brick Building, suitable for a Dwelling and Banking House—all on the main street, near the Conemaugh Bridge and Pennsylvania Canal. There are good cellars under these buildings; also, two wells of good water, one convenient to the kitchen stoves, (besides a large cistern,) the other at the stable, with pumps in both.

There are two Lots on the main street, on which the above and several other needful Buildings are erected; and two Lots immediately North of these, separated by an alley, occupied in part as a Garden, and in part by a large brick Stable, a large frame Stable, a Blacksmith Shop and Carriage Maker's Shop and workers, also, about 20 ACRES adjoining the Borough, a portion of which is EXCELLENT MEADOW, producing over forty tons of fine hay annually. The remainder is under cultivation, or in ground, through which there is a stream of RUNNING WATER.

I would dispose of all, or the tavern part and portion of out-lots, as might suit. If a sale cannot be effected, I would exchange the whole, or a part, for other property. And if neither is accomplished, I will rent the tavern and town property for a term of years, and out-lots sufficient for the use of the tavern.

To a person desirous of engaging in the business of keeping a public house, there are few, if any, situations in the country combining more advantages.

Apply to S. McANULTY, on the premises, Blairsville, Indiana Co., Pa.; or to C. A. McANULTY, Great Western Saddle, Harness, Trunk and Whip Manufactory.

THE subscriber takes this method of informing his friends and the public, in general, that he has the largest stock of the following named articles, of his own manufacture, in this city, viz: Saddles, Harness, Trunks and Whips; all of which he will warrant to be made of the best material, and by the best mechanics in Allegheny county. Being determined to sell by reasonable profits something lower than has been heretofore sold in the city, he would invite persons in need of the above named articles, to his Warehouse, No. 34 Liberty street, opposite Seventh. Also, hands made to order for machinery.

Duff's New System of Book-Keeping.

JUST PUBLISHED BY HARPER'S BROS., N. YORK.

THE first part of this work, embracing the most complete course of instruction and practice, on both Single and Double Entry, ever published. Price 75 cents.

The whole work, embracing the Author's well known improvements in the science, illustrated in two additional sets of books, with a chapter on partnership settlements, and a Key to the oral exercises, full cloth bound, $1,50.

The following extracts from the written opinions of some of the most eminent Merchants, Bankers and Accountants in New York, indicate the public sentiment in reference to this work in that city:

"It contains matter that is important and interesting to the merchant and man of business, to whom I think it will be found highly useful. C. O. HALSTEAD, President Manhattan Bank, New York."

"It is calculated to be exceedingly useful to practical Accountants and Teachers of Book-keeping.
RICHARD IRVIN, Ship owner and Merch't,
No. 93 Front street, New York."

"Remarkably full and complete, and will certainly convey to the reader a knowledge of the subject. The work is designed to make using it as his Text Book.
JOHN H. SHEPHERD,
Teacher of Book-keeping, Columbia College, N. Y."

"It is in every way calculated to give a clear and satisfactory insight into the very useful science of which it treats, through all its gradations, from the simple style suitable to retailers, to that requisite for the most varied and complicated commercial business.
A. S. FRASER,
Cashier 7th Ward Bank, New York."

"I believe it will be of great service, not only to the new beginner, but to the most experienced accountant.
F. W. EDMONDS,
Cashier Mechanic's Bank, Well street."

"I consider it the first work I have ever met with from which a thorough practical knowledge of the science can be obtained.
JOHN CAMPBELL,
Merchant, 53 John st., New York."

☞ Webster, is the name of a new Cincinnati steamer. She is designed for the New Orleans and Cincinnati trade, and can carry upwards of 700 tons.

RIVER.—Last evening, at dusk, there were eight feet and a half in the channel, and rising.

☞ The St. Louis Republican, in giving the particulars of the sinking of the Gondolier, at Preston's island, by coming in collision with the Josiah Lawrence, says:

The Gondolier was laden principally with Pittsburgh goods. Her manifest has not yet come to hand, but we learn, that she had on board about 100 tons of iron, nails, &c., consigned to Messrs. Lyon, Shorb, & Co. The balance of her cargo was assorted, and consigned to sundry consignees. The boat was valuable, about 2 years old, and owned by her commander, Capt. Lyon; Mr. Darrah; and others, of Pittsburgh, and was insured for about $12,000. It is thought that her machinery and uppper works will be saved, but the hull can not be raised, and the largest portion of the cargo will be greatly damaged, if not entirely lost.
