Is composed of the pure juices, (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts,) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, mixing a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC
Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.
Those preferring a medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.
Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.
They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.
The Stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:
Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking, or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.
The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, and we confidently that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries, possesses true merit, is skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—
AND
PREPARED BY R. C. M. JACKSON,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.
Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.
These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, or Diseases of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.
DEBILITY,
Resulting from any Cause whatever; Prostration of the System induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, &c.
There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.
PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,
And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.
NOTICE.
It is a well-established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression, "Never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.
To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.
WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN
Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.
Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietors, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note, and of such standing that they must be believed.

FROM REV. JOS. H. KENNARD, D. D., Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Phila.
DR. JACKSON—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in the usefulness of my own family, of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates St.
FROM REV. E. D. FENDALL,

Selected Poetry.

THE SPRING AT THE FOOT OF THE HILL.

Far back in the sweet depths of childhood,
Are scenes that are dear to me yet;
How I rambled through meadow and wildwood
Is something I ne'er can forget.
The little log house in the clearing,
Our neighbor's swift humming old mill,
And the spot of all others the dearest,—
The spring at the foot of the hill.

CHORUS:

I turn from the present and future,
While thoughts of long ago fill
My heart with the olden time rapture
For the spring at the foot of the hill.

How oft in the days that are vanished,
When neighbors were scattered and few,
I've lain 'neathe the green willow branches,
Quite hidden from all human view.
The branches which ever were beating
Soft time to the song of the rill,
Which danced to its own joyful music,
From the spring at the foot of the hill.

CHORUS.

And there in the long days of Summer,
When earth was all parched with heat
My hot thirst was quenched at the fountain,
Whose waters were cooling and sweet,
And wayfarers weary and dusty,
Beheld with a heart glowing thrill
That oasis under the willow—
The spring at the foot of the hill.

CHORUS.

Long years have passed over my pathway,
And many strange lands have I seen,
Kind friends have been loving and faithful
Wherever my wand'rings have been.
But whatever scenes may have charmed me,
The greenest in memory still,
Is that where I loitered in childhood—
The spring at the foot of the hill.

CHORUS.

HAIL OUR NATAL MORN!

Hail our country's natal morn!
Hail our spreading kindred born!
Hail thou banner, not yet torn!
Still waving o'er the Free!
While, this day, in festal throng,
Millions
