USEFUL RECEIPTS, Etc.

The following is said to be a sure cure for chilblains: Wash the feet clean in warm soft water; when dry, bathe them in a strong solution of copperas and rum. Any other liquor will answer, but rum is better.

A New Yorker says that cows should be salted every morning, and if in the stable before foddering, but never after taking water. This is the practice of the best stock-keepers in Switzerland, and he thinks much preferable to salting them once or twice a week, or to keeping it constant within their reach.

A correspondent of the Western Rural thinks that the ground is the best bed for hogs, as he thinks it warm enough, and a valuable disinfectant. To prevent the hogs making distinct beds, he advises laying down flat stones, or making a pavement of small stones, and then covering them with four or five inches of earth. He presupposes a good house, built of brick or stone sides.

FOWLS EATING EACH OTHER'S FEATHERS.—This propensity only comes to those that are in confinement. Birds that are at liberty never fall into it. It arises from a bad state of body and this is caused by confinement and deprivation of something they get when they are at liberty. We speak practically, Ours are cured by lettuce and sods of fresh earth.—Farm Journal.

Many persons in preparing potatoes for cooking, pare of a thick slice from the surface. Professor Blott, in his lecture on the potato, says the skimming process is all wrong, as the strength of the vegetable lies near the surface—the starch growing less abundant as the center is approximated. The starch near the surface contains the nutriment, which is not more than seven or eight per cent., the balance being merely water.

HOW TO GO TO BED IN COLD WEATHER.—Do it in a hurry if there is no fire in the room, and there ought not to be unless you are an invalid. But if a person is not in good health it is best to undress by a good fire; warm and dry the feet well; draw on the stockings again; run into the room without fire; jump into bed, cuddle with head and ears under cover for a minute until you feel a little warmth; then uncover your head, next draw of your stockings, straighten out, turn over on your right side and go to sleep. It a sense of chilliness comes over you on getting into bed it will always do you an injury, and repetition increases into ill effects without having any tendency to "harden" you. Nature abhors violence. We are never shocked into health. Hard usage makes no garments last longer.—Dr. Hall.

We do not offer a single article of merchandise this can be sold by regular dealers at our price. We do not ask you to buy goods from us unless we can sell them cheaper than you can obtain them in any other way,—while the greater part of our goods are sold at about

MISCELLANEOUS.

LORILLARD'S "EUREKA"

Smoking Tobacco is an excellent article of granulated Virginia.

—Wherever introduced it is universally admired.

—It is put up in handsome muslin bags, in which orders for Meerschaum Pipes are daily packed.

Lorillard's "Yatch Club"

Smoking Tobacco has no superior; being denicotinized, it cannot injure nervous constitutions, or people of sedentary habits.

—It is produced from selections of the finest stock, and prepared by a patented and original manner.

—It is very aromatic, mild, and light in weight—hence it will last much longer than others; nor does it burn or sting the tongue, or leave a disagreeable after-taste.

—Orders for genuine, elegantly carved Meerschaum Pipes, silver mounted, and packed in neat leather pocket cases, are placed in the Yacht Club brand daily.

Lorillard's Century

Chewing Tobacco.

—This brand of Fine Cut Chewing Tobacco has no superior anywhere.

—It is, without doubt, the best chewing tobacco in the country.

Lorillard's Snuffs

Have been in general use in the United States over 110 years, and still acknowled "the best" wherever used.

—If your storekeeper does not have these articles for sale, ask him to get them.

—They are sold by respectable jobbers almost everywhere.

—Circulars mailed on application.
