THANKSGIVING DAY.

Pennsylvania, ss.—In the name and by the authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. James Pollock, Governor of said Commonwealth:

A PROCLAMATION.

FELLOW CITIZENS:—A public recognition of the existence of God, as the Creator of all things and the Giver of "every good and perfect gift," with a humble acknowledgement, of our constant dependence upon the providence of Him, "who rules in the army of Heaven and among the children of men," is alike the duty and the privilege of free and Christian people.

"He has crowned the past year with his goodness and caused our paths to drop with fatness." He has blessed our country with peace. The Union of the States—our free institutions—our civil and religious privileges—right of conscience and freedom of worship have been continued and preserved. The great interests of education, morality, and religion, have been encouraged and promoted—science and art advanced—industry rewarded—and the moral and physical condition of the people improved.

The goodness of God has signally blessed our Commonwealth. War, with its desolations—famine and pestilence, with their horrors, have not been permitted to come near us; and while the ravages of disease and death have afflicted the citizens of other States, we have enjoyed the blessings of health and unusual prosperity. The seasons, in their annual round, have come and gone,—"seed time and harvest" have not failed,—smiling plenty cheers the husbandman; and, surrounded by the abundant fruits of autumn, he rejoices in the rich rewards of his toil. "The pastures are clothed with flocks—the valleys also are covered over with corn—they shout for joy—they also sing."

Acknowledging with grateful hearts these manifold blessings of a beneficent Providence, we should "offer unto God thanksgiving, and pay our vows unto the Most High."

Under the solemn conviction of the importance and propriety of this duty, and in conformity with the wishes of many good citizens, I, James Pollock, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby appoint Thursday, the 22nd day of November, as a day of general Thanksgiving and Praise throughout this State; and earnestly implore the people that, setting aside all worldy pursuits on that day, they unite in offering thanks to Almighty God for his past goodness and mercy, and beseech him for a continuance of his blessings.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this 22nd day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty five, and of the Commonwealth the eightieth. By the Governor. A. G. Curtin, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Married,

In Roulet, Nov. 1th, by A. C. Taggart, Esq., Mr JOHN LYMAN to Miss BARBARA WEIDRICH, all of Roulet.

We take great pleasure in publishing the above notice; for it was accompanied by the dollar, which we hope will prove to our young friends bread cast on the waters. May they be enabled to discharge all of life's duties pleasantly and happily.

Court Proclamation.

WHEREAS, the Hon. R. G. White, President Judge and the Hon. O. A Lewis and Joseph Mann, Esqs, Associate Judges of the Courts of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery, Quarter Sessions of the Peace, Orphan's Court and Court of Common Pleas for the County of Potter, have issued their precept, bearing date the 22nd day of Sept. in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and to me directed, for holding a Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery, Quarter Sessions of the Peace, Orphan's Court, and Court of Common Pleas, in the Borough of Coudersport, on MONDAY, the 17th day of December next, and to continue one week.

Notice is therefore hereby given to the Coroners, Justices of the Peace, and Constables within the county, that they be then and there in their proper persons, at 10 o'clock, A. M. of said day, with their rolls, records, inquisitions, examinations, and other remembrances, to do those things which to their offices appertain to be done. And those who are bound by their recognizances to prosecute against the prisoners that are or shall be in the jail of the said county of Potter are to be then and there to prosecute against them as will be just.

Dated at Coudersport, Oct., 31st 1855, and the 80th year of the Independence of the United States of America.

MESSRS EDITORS: We had designed to advertise our mill in your paper, but your timely notice has saved us the trouble, since which we have been crowded with grinding. Now, whether our mill takes the preference over any other mill in the vicinity, or not, is not for us to say; and whether we have been to much or little expense in fitting it up, is of no consequence. Such as it is, it will be in operation at all seasonable hours, unless out of repair, or we get too indolent to furnish wood, as it is not hindered by low water.

Accompanying this notice we send you a specimen of flour of our own manufacture, and we appoint Mrs. Mann our judge.

To the Honorable the Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions

For the County of Potter, Penna.

THE undersigned citizens of Harrison having associated themselves together for religious purposes and no other, do respectfully ask your honorable body to grant to them a charter of incorporation to enable them to build a meeting house in the town of Harrison, Potter Co. Pa., for the use of the First Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Harrison.

The following are the articles of association:

Article 1. The name of the association shall be the first Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Harrison.

Article 2. The names of the first trustees shall be Thomas Statham, Edwin Statham, Henry Clark, Merrill Sackett, and Nelson Gill; said trustees, to consist of three classes, Class No. 1. to go out of office one year from the act of incorporation, Class No. 2. to go out of office in two years from said act, Class No. 3. to go out of office in three years from said act, and forever afterwards one Class to be elected every year in rotation.

Article 3. The Trustees to be elected in accordance with the Methodist Episcopal Discipline as far as that harmonizes with the laws of the State.

Article 4. The Board of Trustees will be responsible to the Quarterly Conference of the Circuit, or station, in the county in which the property is located, and shall be required to present a yearly report of its acts to said Conference.

Article 5. The amount of property owned by this association, shall not be greater than to yield a yearly income of two thousand dollars.

THOMAS STATHAM, EDWIN STATHAM,
HENRY CLARK, MERRILL SACKETT,
NELSON GILL.

At a court of Common Pleas held in and for the county of Potter, commencing on the 17th, of Sept 1855, in matter of the application of Thomas Statham and others for charter of incorporation:

And now, to wit, Sept. 22nd, 1855, the court having perused and examined the within instrument of writing, and the objects, articles, and conditions, therein set forth and contained appearing to be lawful and not injurious to the community, it is ordered that said writing be filed in the office of the Prothonotary of said court, and that notice be inserted in one newspaper printed in said County, for at least three weeks, setting forth that application has been made to said court to grant to said applicants a charter of incorporation for the purposes specified, under the name and style of the First Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Harrison.

Every person who shall be a regular attendant upon the services of said Church Society or congregation, or, who shall regularly contribute to the support of the same, shall be considered a member of said corporation, and as such shall be entitled to the privilege of speaking and voting at its meetings.

4. The said corporation shall have power to make and use one common seal with such device or inscription thereon as they may deem proper, and the same to break, alter, or renew at pleasure: and also to enact and enforce such by laws and ordinances from time to time as they may deem expedient for the prosperity and good government of the said corporation, provided the same shall not be inconsistent with the Constitution or laws of the United States, nor of this State, nor with the form of discipline by which said Church is governed.

In matter of the application of J. C. Thompson and others, in the Common Pleas of Potter county, September term, 1855.—And now, to wit: September 22, the Court having perused and examined the instrument of writing hereto annexed, and the objects, articles, and conditions thereof appearing to be lawful and not injurious to the community, it is ordered that the same be filed in the office of the Prothonotary of said Court, and that notice be inserted in one newspaper printed in said county of Potter, for at least three weeks, setting forth that application has been made to said Court to grant to said applicants a charter of incorporation for the purposes specified, said instrument, under the name and style of the Baptist Church of Harrison Valley.

By the Court.
