Tin Roofing.

THE subscribers most respectfully announce to their fellow-citizens that they have perfected their arrangement to carry on the business of Tin Roofing on an extensive scale.

It is now close on four years since we first introduced tin roofing in this city. During that time we have covered over fifty thousand square feet of roofs with tin plate, such as all agree we believe we have given the most entire satisfaction. This kind of roof has been applied to the very best buildings in this city, including, among a large number of others, the two superb buildings on Penn street, owned by John L. Shoenberger and John Bissel, Esqrs. That tin roofing (when skillfully laid on) is both permanent and durable, there can be no doubt; in proof of this, we can refer to the almost universal application of this kind of roofing in the large cities on the sea-board during the last twenty years; and from enquiring on the subject, we have yet to learn of any one of those roofs having been worn out. The roofs covered with tin in our own city are open to the examination of all who take an interest in the matter. We have also prepared a minuture plan of roofs, which may be seen at our establishment, where any other information will be given with pleasure.

MR. EATON—Dear Sir: Having examined the Accometer, manufactured at your rooms, I do not hesitate to commend it to the use of those gentlemen who are about removing to California, in search of Gold.

It gives a close approximation to the specific gravity of metals, and will certainly enable the adventurer to ascertain when he is about to be yielding Gold.

Gold Washers.

H. PARRY has invented a machine for washing Gold, for which he has made application for a patent.—They are now offered for sale at the Warehouse, of Messrs. Fleming, Tyler & Co., No. 103 Wood st., Pittsburgh.

Adventurers to California are invited to call and examine these labor-saving machines. They are simple in their construction, easily transported on the back of mules or horses, weighing eighty pounds each, and can be put in operation in half an hour. They can be filled with quicksand, and will do as much work as those who have seen the trial of one of these machines of smaller size, that two men will wash the mineral from 150 bushels of sand or earth in a day, without the loss of a particle of the mineral. They can be increased in size and worked by water or mule power, if expedient. The operators work without going into the water, being placed in water or wet, and consequently without endangering their health. They will require but a small stream of water, and can be used the whole season, and can be put into operation where there is not sufficient water to wash by any other process.
