Cambria Freeman.

EBENSBURG, PA.,

FRIDAY MORNING, - OCT. 31, 1879.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

HERE, THERE AND THE OTHER PLACE.

—Scores for "Sketches" this week.

—We hope to hear of big Barr gains every-thing on Tuesday next.

—Mr. Thaddeus Banks, of Hollidays-burg, continues seriously ill.

—Look out for a big advertisement in the FREEMAN next week from M. J. Teitelbaum, Altoona.

—Turn out to the election, Democrats, and help the State Treasury against Republican robbery.

—McDonald & Co., Loretto, for tinware, stoves, hardware. Cups and saucers only 5c per set.

—The Cambria Iron Company at Johnstown paid out $25,000 to its employees last Friday and Saturday.

—Good fish, the finest, and oysters good, fresh and fine, is what Fridhoff now is keeping in his place of the inner man.

—For the benefit of the boys we hasten to inform them that Hallowe'en will begin this evening at about 7 o'clock, sharp.

—If you want to catch some of the best fish you ever saw, go to Fridhoff's cheap cash oyster and fish place, next door.

—Suits against the United States against Harrold, alleged crookedness in office, has been continued.

—Timothy Lonsdale, a well known citizen of White township, died very suddenly on Tuesday of last week.

—Dr. Wolfe's miraculous cures by his "Sachem's Cough Syrup" would fill a good sized book. Its cures are marvelous. Price 25 cts.

—Democrats! If asked to vote for Sheriff would Griffith vote for Mitchell? Your answer plainly is, "If I can help it not!"

—Democrats succeed in electing their State Treasurer, monster Barr—and to be held in every county of the State.

—"Mel McDonald," one of the fast horses on the turf, earned $700 for her owner, Mr. McDonald, during the six weeks ending last week.

—Cook stoves just received at the store of Scott Wilson, Loretto. They will be sold at prices which cannot be equaled as to quality.

—In the recent rains, it is confidently believed that Lilly will take as sudden a fall as his entrance was unexpected. So mote it be!

—Spalding's sweeter than ever is the air, but still you can buy from Lloyd & Loretto, at 8, 9 and 10 cents per lb.

—A fresh fish fry or a bully oyster stew is just the man to fill you for an supplying the fish and oysters.

—Mr. Frederick Snyder, lately connected with the press of this district, has a position of trust in the Vulcan Works, St. Louis.

—Men, not who votes for Griffith he knows what he's about, but he knows well left a farthing, when he left that it out.

—Fish while going fishing in this place, and you will sell the finest fish and the most luscious of bivalves at possible prices.

—Davis has got back from his McKean county. The several things there are reported by him as generous and happy.

—Mr. Geo. Zeigler, of Loretto, pay 15 cents a pound for butter, 15 cents per dozen for the highest market prices for all kind of country produce.

—Young John Barnacle, son of Mr. Barnacle, Altoona, fell off an engine near the street bridge, that city, yesterday and was badly hurt.

—Griffith tells the people that he is a sheriff's office, and next to that he will tell Thomas Griffith that a sheriff's office does not need him.

—A storeroom of M. J. Teitelbaum, Altoona, will be opened this week, and will be sold at the same popular prices that he makes Loretto establishment go.

—Publisher Brewst, of Hollidaysburg, has sold to Mr. A. J. Rhey that he intended to Ebensburg a number of lots, to be planted in the Black-berry.

—Cupid is during a whopping business, and the reason is simple enough, the immense stock of goods, giving all his customers full value for the money.

—Farmers must do a little scratching for their money, or them scratch the face of folks them to scratch the name Nagle or any other candidate.

—J. A. Cole, of Loretto, have sent us a sample of our present issue, and tell us what shape to put copy to make it, we told it every week.

—A. Adams, formerly of this county, now of Atchison, Kansas, the other day, sent a dollar to pay a son in Adams, of Franklin township, Cambria county.

—"Sketches of Pioneer Life" is the name of a book that Mrs. McCoy, of Johnstown, intends to write, if she can get enough to pay her to write it. Let her write, that she may.

—Dr. Wolfe's Sachem's Cough Syrup is the best cough medicine in the world. Price 25 cents.

—Democrats succeed in electing their State Treasurer, monster Barr—and to be held in every county of the State.

—"Mel McDonald," one of the fast horses on the turf, earned $700 for her owner, Mr. McDonald, during the six weeks ending last week.

—Cook stoves just received at the store of Scott Wilson, Loretto. They will be sold at prices which cannot be equaled as to quality.

—In the recent rains, it is confidently believed that Lilly will take as sudden a fall as his entrance was unexpected. So mote it be!

—Spalding's sweeter than ever is the air, but still you can buy from Lloyd & Loretto, at 8, 9 and 10 cents per lb.

—A fresh fish fry or a bully oyster stew is just the man to fill you for an supplying the fish and oysters.

—Mr. Frederick Snyder, lately connected with the press of this district, has a position of trust in the Vulcan Works, St. Louis.

—Men, not who votes for Griffith he knows what he's about, but he knows well left a farthing, when he left that it out.

—Fish while going fishing in this place, and you will sell the finest fish and the most luscious of bivalves at possible prices.

—Davis has got back from his McKean county. The several things there are reported by him as generous and happy.

—Mr. Geo. Zeigler, of Loretto, pay 15 cents a pound for butter, 15 cents per dozen for the highest market prices for all kind of country produce.

—Young John Barnacle, son of Mr. Barnacle, Altoona, fell off an engine near the street bridge, that city, yesterday and was badly hurt.

—Griffith tells the people that he is a sheriff's office, and next to that he will tell Thomas Griffith that a sheriff's office does not need him.

—A storeroom of M. J. Teitelbaum, Altoona, will be opened this week, and will be sold at the same popular prices that he makes Loretto establishment go.

—Publisher Brewst, of Hollidaysburg, has sold to Mr. A. J. Rhey that he intended to Ebensburg a number of lots, to be planted in the Black-berry.

—Cupid is during a whopping business, and the reason is simple enough, the immense stock of goods, giving all his customers full value for the money.

—Farmers must do a little scratching for their money, or them scratch the face of folks them to scratch the name Nagle or any other candidate.

—J. A. Cole, of Loretto, have sent us a sample of our present issue, and tell us what shape to put copy to make it, we told it every week.

—A. Adams, formerly of this county, now of Atchison, Kansas, the other day, sent a dollar to pay a son in Adams, of Franklin township, Cambria county.

—"Sketches of Pioneer Life" is the name of a book that Mrs. McCoy, of Johnstown, intends to write, if she can get enough to pay her to write it. Let her write, that she may.

—Dr. Wolfe's Sachem's Cough Syrup is the best cough medicine in the world. Price 25 cents.

—Democrats! If asked to vote for Sheriff would Griffith vote for Mitchell? Your answer plainly is, "If I can help it not!"