New Firm.

THE undersigned having purchased the interest of T. B. Tyler, in the Drug and Book business, purpose to combine their stock and continue to supply their numerous friends with the same variety of goods as heretofore, at cap. Books. Believing by this arrangement we shall curtail expenses at least ten per cent and are disposed to give our customers the benefit of the change, for ready pay relying on increased sales, for our stock will comprise all articles found under the general head of Dry Goods, Groceries and Provisions, and Hardware.

N. B. A full stock of Drugs, Medicines, Paints, Oils, Carsphene, Fluid and Dye Stuffs, kept constantly on hand together with stationery, fancy articles, Watches and Jewelry. For the truth of the above promises we respectfully invite an examination of our goods. SMITH & JONES.

Coudersport, July 3, 1856.

NOTICE

IS hereby given that the Notes and Accounts of the late firm of Tyler and Jones have been transferred to Smith & Jones, and will be found in their hands for collection. Those indebted to the late firm of Tyler and Jones, will please settle the same with the undersigned immediately.

MORE'S RURAL NEW-YORKER.

Is the leading American weekly Agricultural Literary and Family Newspaper. This is no vain assumption, but fully sustained by its high reputation, great popularity, and extensive circulation. It embraces more Agricultural, Horticultural, Mechanical, Scientific, Educational, Literary and News-Matter, interspersed with numerous and costly engravings, than any other Journal in the Union—rendering it unequalled in variety and usefulness of contents. An actual increase of nearly seven thousand subscribers during the past year, stimulates and enables us to make the Fifth Volume, for 1856, superior to its predecessors. With a corps of six able Editors, and every facility for publishing in the best style, we are determined that the RURAL shall excel in both contents and appearance.

Its high Literary and moral tone, interesting variety, and entire freedom from trash and vulgarity, render it a safe and desirable companion for the young—a choice paper for the family circle.

TERMS.—$2 a year; $1 for six months—in advance. Great reduction to agents and clubs.

SELLING A FARM.

And therefore he offers for sale one of the best farms in the county of Potter, situated one and a half miles north of Coudersport, and adjoining that of Nelson Clark, containing one hundred acres of land, forty of which is under improvement, well fenced, and watered equal to any in the nation. The Allegany river runs through it and numerous springs come from it, one of which is the admiration of all persons who travel the Wellsville road.

There are two frame barns and one frame house. There are one hundred and twenty five thrifty apple trees, twenty-five of which are bearing trees. The plow land has been highly manured for two years and is in fine condition for the best possible farming.

Terms of sale will be reasonable. Five years time will be given, with a small sum in hand. For particulars inquire at this office or of the subscriber at Colesburg.
