MARRIED

Happiness and Competence.

WHY IS IT?

THAT we behold many females, even in the meridian of life, broken in health and spirits with a complication of diseases and ailments, depriving them of the power for the enjoyment of life at an age when physical health, buoyancy of spirits, and high serenity of mind, arising from a condition of health should be predominant.

Many of the causes of her sufferings at first—perhaps years before, during girlhood, or the first years of her marriage—were in their origin as slight as to pass unnoticed.

IN AFTER YEARS,

When too late to be benefitted by our knowledge, we look back and mourn, and regret the full consequence of our ignorance.

What would we not often give to possess in early life the knowledge we obtain in after years. And what days and nigh of anguish we might have been spared, if the knowledge was timely possessed. It is

MEANCHOLLY AND STARTLING

To behold the sickness and suffering endured by many a wife for many years, from causes simple and controllable easily prevented, or better still—not incurred, if every

WIFE AND MOTHER

Possessed the information contained in a little volume, (within the reach of all) which would unfold to herself

YEARS OF MISERY,

And to her husband the constant toil and anxiety of mind necessarily devolving upon him from sickness of the wife, without giving him the opportunity of acquiring that competence to which his exertions are entitled! and the possession of which would secure the happiness of himself, wife and children.

SECURE THE MEANS OF HAPPINESS

By becoming in time possessed of the knowledge, the want of which has caused the sickness and poverty of thousands.

In view of such consequences, no wife or mother is ashamed to or neglect to avail herself of that knowledge in respect to herself, which would spare her much suffering, be the means of happiness and prosperity to her husband, and confer upon her children that blessing above all price—healthy bodies with healthy minds. That knowledge is contained in a little work entitled
