SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the qualified voters of the several districts of this Commonwealth, at all general, township, borough and special elections, shall be the persons authorized and required to vote, at such elections, by virtue of laws in force at the time of the passage of this act, and shall be entitled to vote at all elections hereafter held in the district in which they reside, and in the district in which they reside they shall have resided one month next before and at the election at which they shall offer to vote; and the qualified voters of each district shall vote only in such district.

McGUIRE'S

SPANISH HAIR DRESSER,

FOR Promoting the Growth, Beautifying the Hair, and rendering it dark and glossy. No other compound possesses the peculiar properties which so exactly suit the various conditions of the human hair. The use of this oil as a hair dresser has been universal in every section of the country in the Spanish Main for centuries. No preparation of art could ever that elegant luxuriance and abundance of hair which have so often been the admiration of travelers in those regions. It is highly and delicately perfumed, forming an article unrivalled in excellence and upon which the Spanish people for many years have set its seal of enduring approval.

McGUIRE'S

Mexican Wild Flowers Shampoo Lotion,

For removing dandruff and scurf from the head, whitening and perfuming the skin. This article is entirely different from anything of the kind ever offered in this country, and is warranted free from all poisonous substances. This valuable lotion was used by the Emperor Maximilian, and Empress Carlotta, of Mexico, and universally used by Mexicans for three hundred years. As a wash for the head—it is cooling, cleansing, and refreshing. When thus used it at once relieves headache.

McGUIRE'S

Wild Flowers for the Teeth.

All those who are in favor of white teeth and a pleasant and perfumed breath, should at once procure a bottle of McGuire's Wild Flowers for the Teeth. All these preparations are put up in the most elegant and ornamental manner. We make no exception in saying that they are an ornament to the lady's toilet table, and none complete without them.

Warranted satisfactory or money refunded. Dealers and Jobbers will find it to their interest to sell these articles. Address orders to
