Spring Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wood spent Sunday in Bellefonte.

Charles Allison, who is employed in Baltimore, is home for a few weeks' vacation.

Bruce Gramley spent Sunday at home, having accompanied Mr. Wilber, the secretary of the College Y. M. C. A., who addressed the organization here on Sunday evening.

Some of the members of the I. O. O. F. visited the Centre Hall lodge Saturday evening.

One day last week while Miss Mabel Allison and her brother Frank, accompanied by Miss Lib. Fredericks, were driving on the turnpike near the schoolhouse, the sleigh runner was caught in a rut, and upset. The occupants were thrown out and the horse ran away. The sleigh was somewhat broken and the harness torn. The horse was finally caught at Condo's blacksmith shop, minus the sleigh which he had gotten rid of some distance back. Miss Fredericks was confined to her room for a few days owing to injuries received in her back and limbs. The others escaped without serious injuries.

Glen, the little son of J. O. Beatty, has been ill for the past few days, suffering from convulsions.

F. B. McClellan and Robert Coldron are on the sick list.

The Sunday school normal class had its first examination this week, and submitted the answers to the State Board for correction.

A large number of the K. G. E. members went to Centre Hall Friday night, where they assisted in organizing a Castle.

Ammon Burkholder and Miss Marjorie Strohm, of Centre Hill, were at the home of M. Shires on Sunday.

Grover Gentzel, of Altoona, spent Sunday at the home of his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Colyer, of Centre Hall, visited in town Sunday.

John Sowers is home for a visit with his parents.

Communion services were observed in the M. E. church Sunday evening, upon which occasion the pastor, Rev. G. W. McIlnay, preached a very instructive sermon to a large congregation.

Mrs. C. E. Zeigler spent Sunday visiting her sister at Millheim.

Donald Kennelley, son of Rev. M. A. Kennelley, of Altoona, is at present the guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kennelley. The young man just recently returned from a trip to the old country.

Lawrence Runkle has been seriously ill for the last week.

Prof. W. P. Hosterman has decided to have a summer normal. He is one of the finest instructors in the county and students should take advantage of this opportunity.

David Sowers, Jr., and wife, of Watsontown, are visiting the gentleman's parents.

D. W. Sweetwood is engaged as sawyer on the Colyer sawmill, at Colyer.

Sober.

B. F. Shaffer has moved from H. Eisenhuth's house into the house of Solomon Lingle.

J. M. Grim, who went to West Virginia a few years ago and worked on a lumber job, is visiting his mother and other friends.

P. Tharp and H. Smith are hauling logs for Wm. Grove.

J. P. Wolf bought a buggy at George Zerby's sale, last Saturday, which he intends to use to break his colt.

Wm. Eckert had been away from home on business for a few days.

Michael Snyder is ill.

H. A. Gentzel returned home on Sunday.

LOCALS.

Progress Grange meets Saturday afternoon.

J. H. Weber, during the past two weeks, has improved materially.

The meeting of the Penn Literary Society, at Spring Mills, Friday evening was well attended. The subject for debate was "Resolved that fire is more destructive than water," and was decided in favor of the affirmative. The speakers were: Rufus Finkle, Eugene Allison, W. S. Rossman, affirmative; S. N. Leitzel, Gross Shook, Grover Walker, negative. All are invited to come next Friday evening.

Engraved Cards.

Orders for engraved cards, invitations, etc., taken at this office. The highest class work.

A doctor is all right when you are sick, but he ought to let well enough alone.

Some people only put their best foot forward to tread on other people's toes.

THE IDEAL HOME.

Man's Ideas Constantly Change as He Grows Older.

As the male member of the human species advances in years his ideas as to what constitutes an ideal dwelling change so absolutely that there is between the different places he would select almost no similarity.

At three years old his ideal is a tent formed from a table cover, a blanket, a spread, a piece of carpet or any other material that can be so arranged that it will form a little place into which to crawl.

At six the best possible dwelling is a hut built of barrel staves, boards and planks, and unknown to persecuting adults, and especially to policemen.

A boy of ten would select a spacious cave, with a marvelous secret entrance, preferably with the entrance under water at flood tide, with the floors covered with heavy costly carpets, the walls decorated with deadly weapons inlaid with gold, silver and precious stones, and with enough food stowed away to enable the inhabitants of the place to live for a year if necessary.

At twenty the heart's desire is a room in a large hotel where the cost would be at least $3 a day and where there would be a dinner at 7 o'clock, with lots of pretty and rich women present, a big smoking room and plenty of stationery with a heavy gold monogram or crest stamped on it.

At twenty-five the best possible home is a neat, comfortable modern flat in some respectable neighborhood, not too far from the cars, theaters and shopping district, and with asphalted streets so there will not be too much noise.

At thirty-five the only proper dwelling is a town house, preferably situated near houses of men whose wealth is reckoned in the tens of millions of dollars and who really have considerable money, said house to have a mammoth ballroom, music room and art gallery, and in addition to this house another country house within easy distance of the city, and still again, in addition to these two houses, a modest but quaintly elegant cottage at some popular seashore resort.

At fifty a man's tastes have toned down, and he longs for a little cottage in the country, where all is quiet, where birds sing and there are chickens in the yard, a cow in the stable, a goodly plot of ground that continually yields an unfailing supply of fresh vegetables and where all is modesty, sweet content and freedom from the usual annoyances that make life a burden.

At sixty the cottage has grown smaller, and the man would be content with less ground, fewer chickens and vegetables and could get along quite nicely without the cow.

At seventy any place will do so long as a man is not disturbed and has reasonable assurance that he will not be.—Exchange.

Victims of Old Jokes.

A hospital surgeon says that there is more facial paralysis among bank paying tellers, photographers and elevator operators than in any other classes. He accounts for it with the words, "Old jokes."

"Jokes! How so?"

"Whenever a bank clerk hands out a fresh, crisp bill, the man on the other side of the window says: 'New money, eh? Made it yourself, I suppose?' It is up to the teller to force a laugh. The man on the chair says, 'Ain't you afraid I'll break the camera?' He would be mortally wounded if the operator did not laugh. One man out of every ten will enter an elevator and say to the boy at the rope, 'Lots of ups and downs in your life, ain't there?' The boy forces a smile.

"Year after year of this sort of business tells in the long run. The victims come here for treatment, and we can hold out no hope to them unless they get into another line of labor."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Samuel Rogers, tavern keeper in Philipsburg, was granted liquor license Wednesday. In the license list on eighth page, that license is among those held over.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.

The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood.

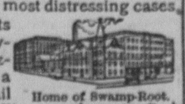
If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work.

Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.



Home of Swamp-Root.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

For the purpose of correcting any errors of appraisement, an appeal will be held at County Treasury's office, in Bellefonte, Pa., on Friday, April 20th, 1906, between the hours of 10 o'clock A. M. and 3 P. M., and those who so desire can attend. G. G. FINK.
Mercantile Appraiser.

Linden Hall.

Friday morning twelve cans of trout fry, from the Pleasant Gap hatchery, were received by the citizens of this place for distribution in the many streams about here.

Miss Jennie Galbraith spent last week with her sister, Mrs. John Ross, who has been sick almost a year.

Richard Brooks is wearing a smile since the arrival of that little son one day last week.

Dr. H. F. Bitner, of Millersville, was here last week to dispose of the grain and feed from his two fine farms.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Miller, of Tyrone.; Mrs. Amelia Frazier, of Bellwood, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cunningham, of Bellefonte, were arrivals Saturday for a short visit at the homes of relatives here.

Irvin Zeigler and bride spent Sunday at the home of his mother here.

Jacob Lee, of Milton, was appointed station agent, to succeed P. C. Bradford. He assumed his duties here on the fifteenth instant, and expects to move his household goods as soon as he can secure a house.

Mrs. William Kern is seriously ill from the measles, as are also many of the children in this neighborhood.

G. W. Miller's sale, Monday, amounted to over twelve hundred dollars. Although the weather was unfavorable, there were plenty of bidders, and the horses and cows all brought good prices.

Tablets, all sizes, at the Reporter office.

There are always two sides to an argument, but there is only one end.

Horse Sale at Millheim.

Messrs. Gentzel & Beezer will sell twenty head of horses at public sale, at the Musser House, Millheim, Saturday, March 24, 12:30 o'clock. This lot consists of draft horses and brood mares, all purpose horses and driving horses. They are an extra fine lot.

Zeigler-Bartlett.

The marriage of Irvin Zeigler and Miss Maude Bartlett took place recently at the home of the bride, near Reading. The groom is a son of Mrs. Henry Zeigler, living west of Centre Hall, and at present is teaching school at Howard. He is a graduate of Bucknell College.

The bride is a very estimable young lady, and is a graduate of Dickinson College, at Carlisle.

Presbyterian Church News.

Rev. J. Allison Platts was elected pastor of the Bellefonte Presbyterian church. He is at present located in Allegheny where he is serving a congregation of more than ordinary importance. The reverend gentleman is ill of pneumonia at this writing.

Rev. W. E. Steckle, of Marietta, who was elected pastor of the State College Presbyterian charge a short time ago, declined to accept.

For an Impaired Appetite.

Loss of appetite always results from faulty digestion. All that is needed is a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They will invigorate the stomach, strengthen the digestion and give you an appetite like a wolf. These Tablets also act as a gentle laxative. For sale by C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills.

LOCALS.

Dr. J. F. Alexander continues to be bed fast.

Mrs. B. F. Arney and Miss Elsie Geiss visited in Bellefonte.

Marcellus Sankey bought a team of sorrels from Liveryman D. A. Boozer.

Presbyterian appointments—Centre Hall, morning; Spring Mills, afternoon.

William Homan, east of Centre Hall, has been confined to the house on account of illness.

Frank W. Bechtel, of Pottsville, father of Mrs. Womelsdorf, wife of Hon. P. E. Womelsdorf, of Philipsburg, died last week.

The Lewistown Free Press says: W. O. Rearick and wife, and sister-in-law, Mrs. Hiram Lee, of Lewistown, went to Centre Hall to visit the ladies' father, Mr. Decker.

John Heckman, one of the young and progressive farmers, west of Centre Hall, lost a cow the other day. The cow had been sold a short time previous to Wm. Mitterling for $40.80, the Reporter is informed.

The Philipsburg Ledger states:—G. W. McGaffey, H. M. Walker and Charles Guelich spent Thursday at Millheim, investigating the merits of the knitting factory, and found that all the claims made for it were substantiated. They found there were orders on the books for more work than could be filled from lack of hands. The factory there employs fifty hands and in the first year has paid six per cent on the investment, a rare thing for a new enterprise. This is an excellent showing and promises well for the factory should one be opened here.

DEATHS.

ELLIS L. LYTLE.

The death of Ellis L. Lytle occurred Friday morning at his home at Baileyville, after an illness of several weeks from Bright's disease. His death was very unexpected as his condition did not appear to be serious and his family looked for his recovery. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Miss Helen, also one sister, Mrs. Maria Miller, of Stormstown. The funeral was held Sunday morning, interment being made at Grays church, Stormstown.

HARRY C. ETTERS.

Friday, March 16, Harry C., the thirteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Etters, of Oak Hall, died after an illness of three weeks, from a complication of diseases. Funeral services were held at the home Monday morning and interment was made in the Houserville cemetery.
