THIRTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Paragraphs of News Taken from the Files of the Reporter of 1885.

May 20, 1885.

Daniel Bartges becomes landlord of the Madisonburg hotel.

Millheim had a big fire last Friday morning. It started in Kauffman's store and spread to the Alexander homestead adjoining. The homestead and store building and stable on the Alexander lot, and the two-story frame house of Daniel Zeigler, adjoining the store on the west, were entirely destroyed. D. S. Musser's residence and Musser's hardware store made a narrow escape. Musser's hotel, on the opposite side of the street, had its front badly damaged. During the fire a keg of powder in the Kauffman store exploded. The report was heard several miles.

Irvin Gray Found Guilty on Re-Trial.

Irvin G. Gray, a prominent farmer who was found guilty of complicity in the theft of cattle, for which his two sons, George and Clyde, are now serving terms in the penitentiary, was found guilty on one count and sentenced to pay a fine of $1 and costs and serve a term of not less than 2 years, 11 months and 20 days in the Western penitentiary, during February term of court, which opened Monday of last with Judge Quigley presiding. The Gray case had been returned to the lower court after the Superior court had sustained the verdict and the Supreme court had reversed it. There were two indictments, but Gray and his counsel agreed to have them tried simultaneously. He was found not guilty on one indictment. His sentence will begin at the expiration of the term which he is now serving on another charge. An effort to secure a change of venue was refused by the court. Gray had as his counsel J. A. Sullivan, of Altoona, Ex-Judge Orvis and W. G. Runkle.

WASHINGTON NEWS LETTER.

TO ENLARGE THE MAMMOTH CONGRESSIONAL LIBRARY.

When the Congressional Lsbrary was erected twenty years ago, it was thought that it would care for the needs of the nation for all the years to come, but so rapidly has its needs and uses developed that more space must now be provided. It is proposed to build an annex to the structure, and the sum of $2,000,000 is asked of Congress for the purpose. As the present building occupies an entire city block, it will be necessary to condemn and purchase residence property in an adjoining block. The annex is to be used solely for the preservation of valuable historical documents, records and relics, and is to be a modern fireproof structure. Among the documents that will find a permanent resting place will be the original copy of the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution of the United States, and the original rolls of soldiers and sailors who have served in wars in which the United States has been engaged.

WAR DEPARTMENT SEEKS INFORMATION.

What do you know about the World War? If you have any official information, the War Department would like to hear from you. It makes request like this: "There are now many individuals, now or formerly in the military service, who have in their possession original papers and personal notes bearing upon the operations of their units. Absence of such papers from the archives tends to place the units concerned at a disadvantage in the study of operations made by the department. If you have in your possession maps, messages, reports, personal memoranda, or other documents in any way concerning the operations of any unit, large or small, please forward same to the Adjutant General of the Army, Washington, D. C."

LARGEST EMPLOYER OF TYPISTS IN WORLD.

Can you picture 25,000 typewriting machines all in operation at one time, and can you imagine the noise that is made from the constant banging of so many keys? That is the number of machines that are required to keep Uncle Sam's big business establishment going every day in the year. And in front of each machine sits an operator. Not all of them are in Washington, however, but the total of 25,000 is correct, and the amount that Uncle Sam pays to his typists and stenographers runs up to the grand sum of $30,000,000 annually. Quite some sum. The amount invested in machines averages a hundred dollars each, and the repair bills for them run over $20 per machine per year. The average salary for typists is $1,134 and for stenographers $1,320 a year.

Perhaps neckties would be cheaper if the makers would eliminate that long flowing end that is always concealed under a man's vest.

This is the time of the year when the householder begins to wonder whether his supply of coal is going to last until the robins come.

With all kinds of seed as high in price as they are, the use of inferior seed is a most expensive form of carelessness. Careful testing of practically all kinds of seeds before purchases are made is urged by the Bureau of Plant Industry, Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture.

Indigestion

DO YOU KNOW that indigestion can be cured, permanently cured, so that you can eat any kind of food that you crave? It has been done not only once, but in almost every case when Chamberlain's Tablets are used. An instance: Mr. J. Pominville, Stillwater, Minn., who had spent over $2,000.00 for medicine and treatment was permanently cured by these tablets.
