GREGG TOWNSHIP VOCATIONAL SCHOOL NOTES

Bazaar This Saturday.

The Home Making Department will hold a bazaar and bake sale in the Vocational school building on Saturday December 14, from 10 A. M. until 8 P. M. Everyone is invited to attend.

Senior Play Enjoyed.

Last Friday the Seniors appeared with their first play: "Bashful Mr. Bobbs." It was witnessed by a good sized audience who greatly appreciated the efforts of the cast. The class appreciates the support given by the community in this undertaking.

Basket Ball Games and Box Social.

On Friday, December 20, the G. T. V. S. basket ball teams open their home schedule with games with the Alumni. The teams play this Friday at Beavertown and next Tuesday the boys go to Bellefonte to play the Bellefonte High team. The box social will be conducted by the senior class in the Vocational building after the Alumni games, December 20.

Senior Literary Program, Grange Hall

A literay program will be given in the Grange hall at Spring Mills on Wednesday, December 18, at 8 P. M. These programs in past years have been given at the school during regular school time. This year it was thought a good plan to have the program in the evening at which time all patrons and citizens of the community are cordially invited to attend. Later programs will be given by the other three classes in the Vocational school. The program for Wednesday night follows:

LAURELTON HUNTER SHOT TO DEATH

Charles Pursley, 36, of Laurelton, a highway superintendent, was found dead in a woods at Sand Spur Hill shortly before noon on Monday by fellow deer hunters.

A high powered bullet had pierced his head. It entered at the left ear and came out of the mouth. The body was face down and he had apparently been dead an hour, Coroner Roth, of Union county, said.

Benjamin and Christopher Burns, Northumberand, who were with him, found the body. They said they had not fired their guns in his direction and other members of the party said the same.

This was the first hunting fatality of the season in that territory, according to the game wardens.

DEATHS

FROM.—A telegram was received Monday morning by Jame E. From, of near town, from Dr. G. Gilmer, of Colorado Springs, Colorado, that his unce, Add From, had died there that morning. No further particulars were given.

The deceased left here more than fifty years ago, and nothing had been heard of him by his brothers and sisters for many years. So far as is known he was unmarried. He was a son of Jacob From, long deceased, and is survived by Wilson and Jacob C. From, of Ohio, brothers, and Ellen, wife of Joshua Mitchell, a sister, of Jeannette.

STOVER.—Tammie Regina Stover died at her home in Aaronsburg from diabetis, on Saturday, at the age of 58 years, 10 months and 19 days. Interment was made at Aaronsburg Monday afternoon, Rev. G. A. Fred Griesing officiating. She was a daughter of George M. and Phoebe (Musser) Stover. A daughter, Miss Adrenna, employed in a Rolls Royce office, New York city, survives her.

DEATH OF CHILD.—Charles Edgar, five months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Markle, of Pleasant Gap, died on Monday morning from bronchial pneumonia. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon; burial at Pleasant Gap.

ROYER.—Cephas S. Royer died at the Lock Haven Hosptial shortly after he was admitted. He was stricken while at work tending the furnace at the home of J. Linn Harris of Lock Haven, earlier in the day. Mr. Royer, who was 52 years old, went to Lock Haven from Rebersburg where he was born and reared. Two sons and two daughters survive: Clair and Stella, of Lock Haven; Harry, of Polk, and Mabel, of Swissvale. Two sisters, Mrs. L. H. Verga, of Lock Haven, and Miss Katherine Royer, of Pine, and a half-brother, William Hassinger, of Flemington, also survive. Funeral services were conducted Friday afternoon; burial in Dunnstown.

RHOADES—Mrs. Henrietta A., widow of George W. Rhoades, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edward F. Downs, of Mill Hall, after an illness of nine weeks with a complication of diseases. Mrs. Rhoades was a former resident of Bellefonte but went to Mill Hall many years ago following the death of her husband. She was a member of the Mill Hall Methodist church for many years. Three brothers, J. Newton Steele, of Mill Hall; A. B. Steele, of Bellefonte, and Samuel Steele residing in Ohio, survive. Burial was made in the Union cemetery at Bellefonte.

CLEVENSTINE. — Margaret Jane Clevenstine died at the home of her son, Wm. L. Clevenstine, of Zion, after a lingering illness of several years. Mrs. Clevenstine was the daughter of the late Jacob and Leah Decker and was born at Hublersburg on Feb. 10, 1852, and was aged, therefore, 77 years, 9 months and 19 days at the time of her death. Mrs. Clevenstine was united in marriage to Wm. Louis Clevenstine on Nov. 20, 1873, by the Rev. King, of Bellefonte, the pastor of the Reformed church. Mr. Clevenstine died 10 years ago. The following children survive: Charles F., of Zion; Samuel J., of Bellefonte, and William L. ,of Zion.

STEWART.—Funeral services were conducted Saturday afternoon, for Dr. DeLong G. Stewart, of Bellefonte, who died Thursday afternoon following a period of ill health that extended over the last year.

He was president of Busch and Stewart company, incorporated, construction contractors of Williamsport, at the time of his death.

Although in ill health for a year, Dr. Stewart's condition did not become serious until two weeks ago. Cancer of the stomach was the cause of his death. He was 67 years of age.

Graduated as a dentist, Dr. Stewart never actually practiced his profession. His connection with Busch and Stewart company represented his only business interests.

Funeral services were held at the home with Rev. Homer Knox, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, officiating. Interment in Bellefonte.

STOVER.—Clymer H. Stover died suddenly in Kenmore, Ohio, on Wednesday morning, from heart trouble. He was a tinning contractor, and at the time of his death, in company with a son, was on his way to another part of the city when the young man noticed the car swerving from side to side. He took the wheel, and at that instant the father slumped over it and was dead.

The body was shipped to Bellefonte on Friday evening and there was taken in charge by F. V. Goodhart, the mortician here, and conveyed to Aaronsburg, where interment was made Saturday morning, the services having been conductd by Rev. Griesing, of the Reformed church. The deceased would have been 59 years old in March.

He was a son of John and Amelia (Hosterman) Stover, both deceased, of Haines township, and is survived by a wife, whose maiden name was Annie Marsh, of Nittany Valley, and eight children—seven boys and one girl—all grown up. Also four sisters, namely: Mrs. E. E. Ardery, Bellefonte; Mrs. Krank Gulsewite, Woodward; Mrs. George Weaver, Aaronsburg, and Mrs. Thomas Meyer, Coburn.

LARGE BULL ELK IN NEW LANCASTER VALLEY

A large bull elk was discovered in New Lancaster Valley, in Seven Mountains, north of Milroy. A Mexican, Senor Alvarado Ramirez, wounded the elk, and he was obliged to seek shelter back of a tree to avoid the bull's vicious attack. Others of the hunting crew to which the Mexican belonged appeared about this time, and caused the elk to run. Shots fired after him appeared to do no damage, except to hasten his speed to a place of safety.

Two Workmen Injured.

Tuesday afternoon Wilbur Jackson, of Salona, was injured at White Rock Quarries, Pleasant Gap, by falling rocks occasioned by a slide. He is improving nicely at the Centre County Hospital.

Andy Danko, aged 24 years, employed by the Lehigh Valley Coal company, is at the same hospital suffering from a fractured pelvis bone, due to a mine roof falling.
