THE CORNER.

An Eastern paper gives the following seasonable and excellent rules for young men commencing business:

The world estimates men by their success in life, and by general consent, success is evidence of superiority.

Never, under any circumstances, assume a responsibility you can avoid consistently with your duty to yourself and others.

Base all your actions upon a principle of right;

Remember that self-interest is more likely to warp your judgment than all other circumstances combined; therefore, look well to your duty, when your interest is concerned.

Never make money at the expense of your reputation.

Be never lavish, nor aiggardly; of the two avoid the latter. A mean man is universally despised, but public favor is a stepping stone to preferment; therefore generous feelings should be cultivated.

Say but little—think much and do more.

Let your expenses be such as to leave a balance in your pocket. Ready money is a friend in need.

Keep clear of the law; for even if you gain your case, you are generally a loser.

Never relate your misfortune, and never grieve over what you cannot prevent.

A European Belle.—A letter from the continent, describing the Countess of Hatzfeldt, proceeds: "She owns more Oriental shawls than any woman in Europe, and more jewels, and is about to give half of them to her daughter-in-law. One of her morning dresses is a turkish fabric of silk and pure gold; its pattern, small plain leaves enclosed in stripes.—The dress is so heavy and thick that it will literally "stand alone." The undersleeves and trimming about the neck are of gold lace, and it is negligently fastened at the waist by a golden cord and tassel. Another morning robe is of black material resembling moire antique, with plain stripes of gold enwoven." It is mentioned that the countess special abhorrence is an embroidered skirt, and her newest dinner dress is a violet velvet, ornamented with gold.

☞ The Siamese twins have each a house a mile from the other. They live in each three days alternately, the other becoming for the time merely a silent partner. One has eight and the other nine children. The Nashville Telegraph inquires what Gen. Sherman would do if one were disloyal, and had to be sent South, while the other remained loyal.

On his return from India, Brown was asked how he liked tiger hunting. "It is very good sport when you hunt the tiger," he replied, "but if hard pressed he sometimes takes it into his head to hunt you, and then it has drawbacks."

☞ A gallant gentleman of the old school in one of the Boston city rail cars, the other day, gave his seat up to a lady, who as is almost always the case under like circumstances, failed to make the proper acknowledgement. Standing awhile after the car had moved on, he stooped over as if to listen, and said to her, "What did you say, madam?" "Nothing, sir," was the reply of the startled lady. "Oh," said he, "excuse me! I thought you said thank'ee."

A strange calamity occurred a short time ago, at a coal pit in England. As the men were being let down in divisions of six for each lift, a horse in the darkness leaped down the open pit, overtook the machine in his fall, overturned it, and all the six men were killed.

Curiosity.—A showman visiting Warren, Pa., a short time ago, announced his intention of revisiting that town in about three years, with what will then undoubtly be one of the rarest natural curiosities, extent—viz: the remains of the Republican party "under a microscope."

An eminent divine preached one Sunday morning from the text, "Ye are the children of the devil," and in the afternoon by funny coincidence, from the words, "children, obey your parents."

A burlesque on the "Miscegenation" pamphlet has been issued at Richmond under the title of "Hair and Wool."

Friends and Relatives

OF THE

BRAVE SOLDIERS & SAILORS

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS

AND OINTMENT.

All who have Friends and Relatives in the Army or Navy, should take special care, that they be amply supplied with these Pills and Ointment; and where the brave Soldiers and Sailors have neglected to provide themselves with them, no better present can be sent them by their friends. They have been proved to be the Soldier's never-failing friend in the hour of need.

COUGHS AND COLDS AFFECTING TROOPS,

Will be speedily relieved and effectually cured by using these admirable medicines, and by paying proper attention to the Directions which are attached to each Pot or Box.

SICK HEADACHE AND WANT OF APPETITE INCIDENTAL TO SOLDIERS.

These feelings which so sadden us, usually arise from trouble or annoyances, obstructed perspiration, or eating and drinking whatever is unwholesome, thus disturbing the healthful action of the liver and stomach. The organs must be relieved, if you desire to be well. The Pills, taken according to the printed instructions, will quickly produce a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence, a clear head and good appetite.

WEAKNESS OR DEBILITY INDUCED BY OVER FATIGUE,

Will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the Bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and Diarrhœa, when in the previous sentence we have spoken of their value in opening the Bowels; we say so in this famous medicine. Whereas this Ointment will remove the humours from the system and leave the Patient a vigorous and healthy man. It will require a little perseverance in bad cases to insure a lasting cure.

FOR WOUNDS EITHER OCCASIONED BY THE BAYONET, SABRE OR THE BULLET, SORES OR BRUISES,

To which every Soldier and Sailor are liable, there are no medicines so safe, sure and convenient as Holloway's Pills and Ointment. The poor wounded and almost dying sufferer might have his wounds dressed immediately; if he would only supply himself with this matchless Ointment, which should be thrust into the wound and smeared all round it, then covered with a piece of linen from his Knapsack and compressed with a handkerchief. Taking night and morning 6 or 8 Pills to cool the system and prevent inflammation.

Every Soldier's Knapsack and Seamen's Chest should be provided with these valuable Remedies.

CAUTION!—None are genuine unless the words "HOLLOWAY, NEW YORK AND LONDON," are discernible as a Water mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

☞ Sold at the Manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine, throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 30 cts., 70 cts. and $1 19 each.

☞ There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

☞ N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box. [Oct. 28, 1863.

LOCATED AT JONESTOWN, LEBANON CO.

To the property holders of the State of Pennsylvania:—GENTLEMEN: Your attention is respectfully solicited to the following low rates of Insurance of the LEBANON MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY, who are transacting business with the most flattering evidence of Public confidence. There sources of the Company are ample to indemnify those who may take advantage through its agency of the means afforded them of being protected against loss by fire. The Board of Directors are practical business men, well and favorably known, and enjoying the entire confidence and respect of the community in which they live. Our Company is perfectly mutual, and we invite your careful attention to the following low rates we are determined to insure as low as any other responsible company, taking into consideration the character of the risks incurred. Our CHARTER being PERPETUAL, enables us to issue Policies which never expire, which obviates the necessity of renewal every 3 or 5 years.

The Company has now been in successful operation for nearly 6 years, and all its losses have been promptly paid to the satisfaction of all parties concerned; and, in fact it has been, and still continues to be, the wish of the Directors to have the Company conducted on honest and economical principles.

NATIONAL HOTEL

(LATE WHITE SWAN,)

Race Street, above Third, Phila.

THIS establishment offers great inducements not only on account of reduced rates of boarding, but from its central location to the avenues of trade, as well as the conveniences afforded by the several Passenger Railways, running past and contiguous to it, by which guests can pass to and from the Hotel to the different Railroad Depots, should they be preferred to the regular Omnibus belonging to the House.

I am determined to devote my whole attention to the comfort and convenience of my guests.

GEO. LIGHTCAP, Proprietor.

JOS. HOUSUM, Clerk. June 15, 1864.
