Brief Items.

The place to see a crowd every day is at Enterprise Headquarters.

Profitable bills—hand-bills, such as are printed at the Globe office.

There are 78,000 liquor sellers in Pennsylvania and 16,370 school teachers.

Form good resolutions now and keep them throughout your life.

The Altoona skating park was opened on Christmas day.

George Saylor's tannery, in Mifflin county, was destroyed by fire on the 27th ult.

Hon. D. J. Morrell had his pocket-book stolen from him recently while in New York.

The fee of registering a letter now is only fifteen cents. Heretofore it was twenty five

Stony Creek has on its winter suit of freeze; the mountains are wearing their fire, as usual.

Otto L. Snyder, son of Mr. Jacob Snyder, of Altoona, formerly of this place, died on the 25th ult., of consumption.

Last week was mild to a Spring degree.—On Monday Winter came again in his white mantle and stretched forth his icy fingers.

This is a bill-owe-you as month. People pretty generally understand what "Dr. To" and a column of figures mean.

The Presbyterian congregation of this place observed last week as a week of prayer, services being held each evening.

Messrs. Murray & Belford's store in Altoona was entered recently and robbed of valuables to the amount of $300.

Keep a diary, but if you commence one, don't give it up. Diaries for 1869 for sale at Lewis' Book Store.

Huntingdon is no longer "insignificant" since it has the prospect of giving a United States Senator. So be it.

Our new Sheriff has his hands full. He is going every day. We would rather hear of him having less office business to attend to

The railroad company have reduced the working hours of the employees in the shops at Altoona, to nine hours per day, with a corresponding reduction of wages.

We direct attention to the advertisment of the public sale on to-morrow, of valuable household and kitchen furniture by Mrs. L. C. Hall. Go and get bargains.

J. W. and W. P. Furey, editors of the Lock Haven Democrat, have been acquitted of the charge of libel brought against them by W. A. Furman.

On the 21st ult., Mr. Eli Crawford, of Susquehanna township, Juniata county, attempted to shoot a hog with a revolver, but the contents were discharged in his son's arm.

Our exchanges had more than the usual number of marriage notices last week. The month of December is always popular among the marriageable, especially about Christmas.

It is a singular fact, and one which has provoked cursory comments, that water on the sidewalks of Huntingdon always freeze with the slippery side up.

The Altoona Vindicator says "scarcely an evening passes without some villain grossly insults those females who are compelled to pass through the streets at night."

If you want to "turn people's heads" go late into church. If you want to make church members punctual, turn the seats to face the door.

The colored folks will hold a festival in their church on Wednesday and Thursday evenings for the benefit of their pastor. Everybody with money in their pockets are invited to be there.

The Lewistown Building Association has collapsed under a pressure of taxes. As we have not heard anything about the Huntingdon Association we suppose it has expired from the same cause.

This is the season of the year when many a poor family needs help—not alms—but remunerative employment. It is much better to help the poor to help themselves, than to bestow alms and make paupers of them.

The different religious congregations in this place, in conformity with a resolution of request of the I. O. G. T., will devote their regular evenings of prayer meeting this week to the special subject of temperance. The public are invited.

There is a fair prospect of a revival of business in Huntingdon early in the spring.—The furniture manufactory is to commence operations and some of our business men intend to increase their capacities. This is what we like to see.

Three men were recently arrested in Chambersburg for fishing with stir-nets.—We have the first instance to record where any man or party of men h ve been arrested for fishing with netsin the Juniata, although there is a law to prevent it.

The temperance men of Illinois have resolved to organize a political party opposed to the manufacture and sale of intoxicating drinks. That is one way of getting opposition, and once get opposition and there is a show for action.

If the first twelve days in January prognosticate the weather for the twelve months of the year, as some people suppose, we are going to have a changeable spring, a hot summer, a rainy fall, and a changeable winter, with plenty of snow.

Rev. Father Gallagher of the Catholic church of this place, bade farewell to his congregation on Sunday last. He has been instrumental in doing much good while here and vastly improved the appearance of the church. He goes to Pittsburgh, and Father Murphy succeeds him.

The people continue to patronize Enterprise Headquarters. New and fresh Groceries, Fruits, &c., &c., arrive at Massey & Co's. almost every day. "Small profits, quick sales, and half the profits given away every month," is the principle of doing business at Enterprise Headquarters. Everybody gains—nobody loses. The presents given away cost customers nothing.

☞ The members of the Union Republican County Committee are requested to meet in the Court House at Huntingdon, on Thursday, January 14, 1869, at two o'clock, P. M. A full attendance is desired, as business of importance will be brought before the Committee.

Appalling Accident.

The Johnstown Tribune says: On last Monday a party of men under the supervision of Mr. Benj. Jose went into an abandoned ore drift of the Cambria Iron Co on Prospect Hill, for the purpose of removing some old rails forming a part of the track of the drift. The drift had been abandoned for about four years. When the main body of the party had advanced about 20 or 30 yards, an explosion of "fire damp" took place, the gas being ignited from a lamp in the cap of Joseph Boltz, who was about 100 yards ahead of his companions. Frank Boltz, Conrad Teeter and Frederick Metzger received injuries from the effects of which they have since died. James George, Wm. Wills, Frederick McIntyre and Patrick McAleer also received severe injuries. It is thought that one of them cannot survive. All the injured men, except Metzker, were heads of families.

New Firm.

We call attention to the advertisment of A. R Stewart & Co., dealers in Hardware, of this place, in this issue. The "Co." represents our young friend Frank W. Stewart, who is well known to our citizens without any recommendation from us. He is a promising (he would rather have cash than promises, though,) young man, and his knowledge of business as clerk qualifies him for the position he now occupies. We welcome him again to our community, and bespeak for the firm a liberal share of patronage. Give them a call at the sign of the padlock.

CALISAYA BARK.—It is said that Messrs. Drake & Co., (proprietors of the Plantation Bitters) are the largest importers of Calisaya Bark in this country, and that, with the exception of an occasional sale, all they import is used in the compounding of their celebrated Plantation Bitters,—to which they undoubtedly are indebted for their wonderful health-restoring properties. As a Tonic and Appetizer they are not surpassed, and we cheerfully recommend them. All first-class druggists keep them for sale.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price.

JAMES STEEL, ESQ.

James Steel, Esq., the subject of this notice, was born on the 10th of January, 1796, in the borough of Huntingdon, and was the son of the late Gen. William Steel. His mother was the sister of James Entrekin, Esq., the elder, late of Coffee Run, deceased. He obtained his elementary education at the Latin school of the Rev. John Johnston of this place, where nearly all the boys of the town were taught at that time, who aspired to knowledge higher than the common subscription schools then furnished. He read law with the late Robert Allison, Esq., and for several years after his admission to the bar, remained in the office of his preceptor, engaged in its general practice. He was a good scrivener, did a large amount of this kind of business, and was well acquainted with legal forms, instruments and proceedings. Though possessed of excellent and entertaining conversational powers, he never accustomed himself to public speaking. For fourteen years after his admission to the bar, he associated with the gayest of society, as well as the most intelligent; and it afforded him great pleasure in his after life, to relate the many happy and witty incidents, which came under his observation, in his association with the lively and polished society, of which Huntingdon was at that time the center. He was three times elected Prothonotary of the county and filled the office with credit to himself and satisfaction to the people, from 1839 to the close of the year 1848. At the time of his death he was Assistant Assessor for Huntingdon County, under the Internal Revenue Laws of the United States.

In 1832 he connected himself with the Methodist Church; and through life, while his means lasted, he was one of its financial pillars. He loved its mode of worship and was peculiarly at home, in those great outbursts of the soul, of which that church furnishes such notable examples. No hallelujah was so lofty, that he did not delight to be borne on it, to the bosom of his Divine Master. He loved the simple manners of the common people and the common people loved him. A very few years before his death, when his adversities pressed heaviest upon him, and age and disease were summoning him to the tomb, he frequently walked on Sunday mornings, six or seven miles up Stone Creek, to hold Class meetings, and enjoy himself at the hospitable firesides of the good people of that neighborhood. He was a warm friend; a good neighbor; an agreeable and entertaining companion; a loving husband and father; and greater and better than all these, he was that noblest work of God—an honest man.

Huntingdon, Jan. 11, 1869.

In Memoriam.

A meeting of the members of the Bar of Huntingdon county was held in the office of Wm. Dorris, Esq., on December 28th, 1868. John G. Miles, Esq., was called to the Chair and John Scott, Esq., as Secretary.

John Williamson, Esq., announced the death of JAMES STEEL, Esq., in a few feeling and appropriate remarks, in the course of which he stated the fact that Major Steel had been admitted to the Bar on the 11th of August, 1818, upon motion of Robert Allison, Esq., his preceptor, after examination by a committee composed of Elias W. Hale, Thos Burnside, and John Tod, Esqs.

Upon motion of Mr. Williamson, R. Milton Speer, J. Sewell Stewart and Wm. P. Orbison, Esqs., were appointed a committee to prepare resolutions expressive of the feeling of the meeting. They submitted the following, which were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, Death has removed from our midst our brother James Steel, the oldest member of our Bar, we bow in humble submission to this dispensation of Providence and do resolve,

1st. That Major Steel, through a long life, proved himself a worthy and respected member of our profession, a useful and upright citizen, and a Christian gentleman.

2d. That having been called to fill several stations of public trust he was always found faithful and obliging in the discharge of duty, and he has left behind him a name for kind deeds that will not soon be forgotten.

3d. That in the social walks of life Major Steel was peculiarly gifted; with a most tenacious memory, a fluent expression and a warm heart he was the light of the social circle.

4th. That as a lawyer, citizen and friend we mourn his death, and condole with his family in their sore bereavement.

5th. That we will attend his funeral in a body and wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

6th. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to his family, and published in the county papers.

J. GEO. MILES, Chairman.
JOHN SCOTT, Secretary.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

TESTIMONY of a PROMINENT PHYSICIAN.

Dr. J. T. Baker, a skillful and widely known physician of twenty years standing in Lancaster, Pa., gives his opinion of a popular household remedy, in the following letter:

LANCASTER, PA., November, 23, 1868.

DR. S. H. HARTMAN & CO.—Dear Sirs: During the past eight years I have had frequent opportunities to test the effect of Mishler's Herb Bitters upon persons suffering from Dyspepsia, Loss of Nervous Energy, Sexual Weakness, Diarrhœa, &c. Remedies were prescribed by other physicians according to the Homœopathic, Allopathic and Hydropathic schools, and only a comparatively few permanent cures effected. On the other hand, I have never known the Bitters to fail producing the desired result, and I still use them in the treatment of such complaints, with the highest success. I have no hesitation in saying that I consider Mishler's Herb Bitters the most efficacious remedy ever discovered for diseases arising from a disordered Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Bowels, Lungs and Heart.

Yours truly,
J. T. BAKER, M. D.

TO THE PEOPLE OF HUNTINGDON COUNTY.

HUNTINGDON, December 23, 1868.

As there appears to be considerable trouble about who shall be appointed Post-Master in our town, and it being an office for which the person who may be appointed should contribute a liberal amount to some charitable purpose, I therefore offer myself as an applicant for the position of Post-Master at Huntingdon, Pa.; and I propose and will agree, giving my bond with the Commissioners of Huntingdon county for the fulfillment of the same, should I be appointed, to erect a Monument for deceased soldiers, for the sum of Two Thousand Dollars, provided I am allowed to hold the office for the term of four years. Soldiers in the county, or the friends of our deceased soldiers, will confer a favor by circulating a petition in my behalf, and send the same to me.
