Laws Relating to Newspaper Subscriptions and Arrearages.

The following is the law relating to newspapers and subscribers.

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary, are considered wishing to continue their subscription.
2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals, the publishers may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid.
3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the office to which they are directed, they are held responsible until they have settled their bills, and ordered them discontinued.
4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publishers, and the papers are sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.
5. The Courts have decided that "refusing to take periodicals from the office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.
6. Any person who receives a newspaper and makes use of it, whether he has ordered it or not, is held in law to be a subscriber.
7. If subscribers pay in advance, they are bound to give notice to the publisher, at the end of their time, if they do not wish to continue taking it; otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it on, and the subscriber will be responsible until an express notice, with payment of all arrears, is sent to the publisher.

☞ Republicans, in SMALL CAPS; Democrats, in Roman; Greenback, in Italics.

Huntingdon county has contributed heavily to the Centennial attendance, but if the Plate Glass Works are located at this place by foreign capitalists it will prove a good investment.

The usual number of Saturday night drunks were on hand, and as usual, when decent people were a-bed, they disturbed the quiet of the town by their fiendish howling through the streets.

We noticed a turkey, in Walker township, on Saturday last, sitting on a fence rail reading Grant's Thanksgiving Proclamation to a dozen or more fine, fat gobblers standing in the road.

L. E. Edwards, esq., of the Girard Avenue House, Philadelphia, put in an appearance to vote on Tuesday last. He says the house with which he is connected has been crowded constantly.

Coal oil has "riz" to ten cents per quart. Courtships are now conducted with a very exaggerated idea of economy, as the young people put out the lights and sit in the dark every chance they get.

We have the finest stock of wedding stationery this side of sundown, and we are prepared to get up wedding invitations in a style unsurpassed anywhere. Call and see specimens and hear prices. tf

James H. Boring, esq., who has been on the Centennial police force for the past six months, was in town on Tuesday last, having come home to vote. Jim is a Republican in whom there is no guile.

The Item hoax was the success of the period. It is astonishing now to hear how many suspected it was a hoax from the first. Items sold so fast on Sunday morning that it took two men to hand them out.

The township road leading from the Fourth street bridge to the hill, is in terrible condition, but by a little labor and expense it could be made quite passable. Fill up the ruts and mudholes before the cold weather comes.

We are pleased to learn that our old friend, Richard Wills, esq., of Warriorsmark township, who was so severely injured, at Ironsville, a week or two ago, is slowly recovering, and soon "Richard will be himself again."

Porter township—the Gibraltar of Republicanism—covered herself with glory on the occasion of the Republican mass meeting, in this place, on Saturday last. Three times three for the gallant Republicans of Porter.

John W. Welch, esq., has written a poem entitled "White Dove of the Juniata" which will appear in successive issues of the JOURNAL. It is a very readable production and will add much to the fame of this local writer.

We inform our venerable contemporary, the Lewistown Gazette, that there was no "premeditation" in sending it two papers with blank insides. It was the devil's work, and hereafter we will see that a similar error does not occur.

At no other season of the year are coughs and colds so prevalent as at the present time, and every sufferer should check his complaint at once by the use of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, and thus prevent it from leading to serious lung affections.

A young man down town, who called on his lady love the other evening, was startled to see a red ring about her neck, and thinking her throat was cut, was about to run for a doctor when her merry laugh detained him. She wore a collar of cardinal red.

A saloon keeper, in this place, was complaining of the dullness of his trade on Saturday, and boasting that on the day previous he had put five kegs of beer on tap. It is only necessary to state that the Democratic meeting was held on Friday and that of the Republicans on Saturday

There was a liberal display of bunting along the route of the Republican parade on Saturday. The JOURNAL office presented a handsome appearance with its profusion of flags from attic to cellar, and was highly complimented by the crowds that thronged the sidewalks during the day.

Dr. J. C. Fleming & Co., have sold their drug store to Mr. Frank West, of Hollidaysburg. Mr. West is no novice in the business having kept a drug store in Hollidaysburg for a number of years. We are sorry to lose the Doctor from amongst us, and we hope his lines may be cast in pleasant places.

The law, prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors on election day, did not seem to have a salutary effect in this place, as we noticed quite a large number of inebriated persons on that day. But in a large majority of the cases they were professional "dead beats," who always manage to get outside of a large amount of whiskey at somebody else's expense.

An exchange very justly remarks:—"Whenever a strolling pedler, book agent, patent corn doctor, or any one of the many humbugs come around, people crowd up anxiously and buy goods at two prices but the same men will jew a merchant down to the bottom price on a ten cent trade, and then get mad because he don't make them a present worth a dollar."

The Harrisburg Telegraph says that a number of railroad officials met in Altoona last week for the purpose of arranging a winter schedule for the running of freight and passengers. It is rumored that all the train agents will be discharged some time in November, as the necessity for their employment will be over as soon as the Centennial closes. In this event the conductors will be required to attend to the duties, which were relinquished at the time the appointment of the agents was made.

The following gentleman have been elected directors of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association for the year 1877: S. N. McCoy, Thos. McCorde, Grenville; J. A. McKee, A. J. Brisbin, Lewistown; D. Heiter, John Hamilton, Newton Hamilton; F. D. Stevens, Mt. Union; C. W. Ashcom, Hopewell; James Lowther, Altoona; Jonathan Boynton, Clearfield; J. F. Steiner, Philipsburg; F. M. Bell, Tyrone; K. M. King, Huntingdon. The directors elected will meet in this place to-morrow, (Saturday,) to organize.

A rather important suit was brought to a conclusion in Philadelphia some days ago. In November, 1868, H. Barnett Levan purchased a ticket from Harrisburg to Philadelphia. The train on which he took passage was so crowded that he was unable to find a seat in one of the ordinary cars. He then found a seat in a sleeping cars. The conductor demanded one dollar and a half extra which he refused to pay. He was then put off the train eight miles from Lancaster, which distance he walked. He was afflicted with a disease which rendered standing injurious to him, and the long walk aggravated the disease. The jury awarded Mr. Levan $8,500 damages.

NEW PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH AT PETERSBURG.—On Monday of last week the following committee appointed by the Presbytery of Huntingdon Rev. Jno. C. Kelley, of Spruce Creek; Rev. A. Nelson Hollifield, of Huntingdon and Calvin Stewart, an Elder of Birmingham Church, visited Petersburg, for the purpose of organizing a Presbyterian church at that place if in their judgment it was expedient. The Rev. A. Nelson Hollifield preached at 2 o'clock—after the sermon, the congregation which was present in large force, was given an opportunity to express their views on the question of organization. After hearing all parties interested the committee unanimously decided to organize the Church, and proceeded to do so by entering upon the roll of the new organization the names of fifty-three persons who had been dismissed from the Bethel Church. David Sheasly, Michael Weyer, Samuel K. Wharton, (formerly Elders at Bethel Church) and William McFadden were elected Ruling Elders. The Rev. Mr. Hollifield preached again in the evening and after the sermon, Mr. McFadden was ordained and he, together with the gentlemen elected in the afternoon, were duly installed over the new organization.

It is supposed that this church, together with Bethel Church, will constitute one charge, under the Pastorate of the present incumbent, Rev. J. C. Wilhelm.

Montgomery has the largest assortment of Men's and Boys' ready made clothing that is to be found in town. Bought for cash and will be sold for cash at prices to suit the times.

JOTTINGS FROM CASSVILLE.—Rev. J. D. Brown, late missionary to India, gave the people of Cassville and vicinity a rare treat, in the shape of a series of lectures, three in number, under the auspices of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Cassville charge.

First, on Saturday night, a lecture before the Society showing the nature, the necessity and importance of woman's work for women, as well as pointing out the hand of God, first, in turning woman's heart, with an earnest longing for the salvation of her heathen sisters, strengthening and prospering her labor of love, and at the same time opening the doors of heathen homes for her to enter.

The second lecture was on Sabbath morning, an address to the children composed of the united Sabbath Schools of the town. Subject: Missionary work and the workers.

On Monday evening Rev. Brown delivered his illustrated lecture on India. Each lecture grew in interest, and although the weather was very unfavorable his last lecture drew a very large audience for the place.

The lecturer not only won laurels for himself as a lecturer, but opened the eyes of many who were blind to the cause of missions, and made friends of unrightous mammon for his Master.

All were delighted and profited. When Mr. Brown comes this way again he is sure of a hearty welcome. Credit is due to the missionary ladies who were awake to the interest of their master.—They arranged this plan, and carried it out, without the loss of a dollar to the Treasury, or the Lecturer, and at the same time sowed so much precious seed. A SUCCESSFUL "SELL."—The Philadelphia City Item, of Sunday last, published a highly sensational account of a burglary that was not committed at the Centennial. The substance of the statement, which occupied over a page of that paper, was that a gang of thieves, numbering one hundred and seven, had driven a tunnel from the Hunter's Home to the Main Building on the Exposition grounds, and had abstracted about fifty millions dollars worth of diamonds and other goods on exhibition. The Item is to be had at the JOURNAL Store every Sunday morning, and when our package was opened on this morning, and the flaming head lines were observed, the excitement reached fever heat. Although our standing order had been duplicated the papers went like "hot cakes" and we could have disposed of as many more. The story was well worded, and outside of a number of absurd improbabilities and a few impossibilities was excellently written.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT.—Health and Beauty—how to secure them.—Female Irregularities.—Beauty is as indispensible to the happiness of woman, as is health to her existence, the loss of charms being regarded as a greater affliction than death itself. Holloway's Pills and Ointment have done more towards preserving it, and reliving the various disorders incidental to the sex, than all other advertised medicines united. Thousands of lovely females have had their constitutions ruined and beauty blighted by drastic apperients, pernicious stimulants and poisonous lotions. The mild, soothing, and restorative influence of Holloway's great internal and external remedies, in all complaints of women, are now generally admitted, whether in the Spring-time of womanhood, or in the Autumn, or turn of life. 184

A TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.—A terrible accident occurred at Rough and Ready station on the Huntingdon and B. T. R. R., on Tuesday morning, by which a little daughter of Mr. Wm. Bigler, flagman and watchman at that station, lost her life. It appears that Mr. Bigler loaded his gun to go hunting in the morning, and had just came out of the house with his gun when a gentleman came along who wanted to take the train. Mr. Bigler set his gun against the house, and started to the station, but had barely reached there when he was overtaken by one of his boys, who stated that his sister had shot herself. Hastening back he found the little girl in the agonies of death, the ball having passed through her bowels. Just how it happened we did not learn, but very likely she must have thrown the gun down and by that means it was discharged.—Mountain Voice.

DANIEL DERONDA.—This new book by George Eliot, the famous author of "Adam Bede," "Middlemarch," etc., has created a profound sensation in the literary world. It is truly a noble work,—the fullest and broadest expression that the spirit of this age has found in literature, and George Eliot will probably be considered by posterity the greatest, certainly the broadest, writer of our generation. A noble character that "Deronda" modern literature has not produced. The Boston Journal pronounces DANIEL DERONDA "the literary event of the year." The London Globe calls it "an event in the history of literature." The Christian Intelligencer: "The story is profoundly absorbing." Scribner's Monthly says: "There are books which can only be measured by the largest standard, and such a work is George Eliot's new novel, DANIEL DERONDA."

The publishers of the popular "LAKESIDE LIBRARY" editions of standard authors have issued a cheap edition of "Daniel Deronda," complete in two volumes, unabridged and unaltered, price, only 20 cents each, by mail 25 cents. Sold by all Newsdealers, or sent postpaid by DONNELLEY, LOYD & Co., Publishers, Chicago, Ill. For sale at the JOURNAL Store at 20 cents per volume.

An Unanswerable Argument.

The strongest argument which can be urged against the advisability of administering such corrosive and nerve-destroying poisons as arsenic and quinine for intermittent and remittent fevers, is the vastly superior success in the prevention and cure of such diseases of a medicine which is the very antipode of the above named drugs, both in respect of its composition and the results wrought by it. Such a medicine is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a purely vegetable preparation, which not only eradicates with wonderful promptitude every trace of fever and ague, and kindred types of malarious diseases, from the system, but is a certain preventive of all maladies begotten of miasma-tainted air and water. These results mineral anti-febrile remedies do not effect with certainty, and their continued use entails consequences highly pernicious to the system. The Bitters, on the contrary, not only afford speedy relief, but establish health on a permanent basis. [nov9-1m

Wonderful in its Results,

There is no Medicine that has accomplished so much as Shiloh's Consumption Cure. It has established the fact that Consumption can be cured, while for Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, Hoarseness, Whooping Cough, and all Lung diseases it has no equal. No medicine was ever sold on such favorable terms. If it was unreliable it would be the greatest folly to guarantee it. It costs nothing to try it as it can be returned if it does not give satisfaction after using two-thirds of a bottle. Call at my store and get a sample bottle, 10 cents or a regular size 50 cents or $1.00. If your Lungs are sore or Chest or Back lame use Shiloh's Belladonna Plaster which seldom fails to give relief. "HACKMETACK" a new and delightful Perfume is sold by JOHN READ & SONS, Huntingdon, Pa. Elsewhere by all dealers. oct20eow-6m.
