Arrival of the Steamship America.

The steamship America, from Liverpool, arrived at Halifax on Saturday morning, at half past six o'clock. She brings fourteen days later intelligence.

Cotton exhibited little or no variation in price from the previous quotations.

Breadstuffs rather dull—Flour 23s to 24s.

Pork had advanced 1s per cwt.

The British Mediterranean Fleet had blockaded Greece.

There had been serious riots in Paris, and the commotion had produced a slight decline both in the French and English funds.

THE FLORIDA INDIANS.—The Savannah Republican, of the 18th, has later intelligence from Florida, confirming the accounts that the Indians have all concluded to remove peaceably to their homes in the far west, on the terms published in the Georgian, of Saturday last. Already 78 of their number have arrived at Fort Meade, on Pease creek, 46 miles south of Tampa, and others are expected to come in daily. It is now the general belief in Florida, that there will not be an Indian in that State on the 1st of June next.

The Whigs of New York, have called a meeting to sustain Mr. Clay's last resolutions, which literally repudiate the Wilmot Proviso. The call is signed by over 3,000 names. So much for the Whig professions of Free Soil in 1848.

☞ C. W. CARRIGAN, Esq., has retired from the Spirit of the Times, and is succeeded by Mr. J. CORFROTH.

MARRIED.

On the 21st inst. by the Rev. A. H. Kremer, Mr. CHRISTIAN REIGHTER, to Miss SARAH JANE DIXSON, both of Carlisle.

DIED.

In Dickinson township, on Sunday evening, the 17th inst., ELMIRA M'CLELLAND, daughter of Sarah E. and Dr. D. Coover, aged 1 year 10 months and 2 days.

The rosa that gently bows its head
At morning's early dawn,
When joy and beauty round are shed—
Alas! how quickly gone!

The rainbow fadeth fast away
From heaven's azure sky;
But life itself can n'eer decay,
Nor goodness ever die.

Eternal God! Elmira's now with thee,
From pain and sorrow riven;
"Suffer little children to come unto me,
For of such is heaven."

OWENS & RICHARDS,
FROM PHILADELPHIA.

THE undersigned would most respectfully inform the citizens of Carlisle and its vicinity, that they have opened a in Carlisle, in South Hanover street, a few doors south of the Court House, and nearly opposite A. & W. Bentz's store, where they will be happy to wait on those who may favor them with a call. Having purchased a large stock of Marble for cash, they are determined to sell lower than any other shop this side of Philadelphia. They have some most beautiful designs for and every thing else in their line of business, which they will be pleased to show to any person that may be wanting them.

Marble Yard

Monuments, Head Stones, Mantels,

They are also the authorized agents of Mr. Robert Wood, of Philadelphia, and will furnish from his manufactory all varieties of Iron Railing for the enclosing of Grave lots and all other purposes, at the shortest notice and at Philadelphia prices.

They will also finish or manufacture all kinds of building work, such as Sills, Steps, and Platforms, &c., at the shortest notice and on the most reasonable terms.

Having had great experience, and being employed in the best shops of Philadelphia, they are therefore enabled to manufacture the most fashionable work, and respectfully ask a share of the patronage of Carlisle and the surrounding country.

Saddles & Harness.

C. J. CARMONY, is thankful for past favors, and still soliciting his share of public patronage, respectfully announces to his customers and the public in general, that he still continues to pursue the Saddle and Harness Making in all its various branches, in South Hanover street, a few doors below Hannah's Hotel, and nearly opposite Bentz's store, in the Borough of Carlisle, where he will keep constantly on hand, or manufacture to order, every article in his line of business; such as

Saddles, Bridles, Martingales,

HARNESS, COLLARS, WHIPS, &c., of every description and variety. Also, Brichbands, Backbands, Housens, Cruppers, Blind-bridles, Girths single and double, and Halters of every kind, which he is determined to sell cheap, so that customers and others will find it to their advantage to purchase from him. Having, from experience, a practical knowledge of his business and a determination to use none but the best of materials, he feels no hesitency in recommending his work, confident that it will command a liberal share of public patronage.

Good Oak Wood will be taken in exchange for work.
