Lancaster Intelligencer.

FRIDAY EVENING APRIL 23, 1880.

Fish or No Fish.

The tendency to judge conscientious efforts by results is common among parents. Johnny who had run away from school to go fishing was greeted at the gate by his father who briskly inquired, "Well, sonny, where have you been?"

"Been fishing."

"Did you catch anything?"

"Caugh them!" and Johnny held up a beautifully assorted string of fish of all sizes except large ones.

"Ah! that's right sonny. Take 'em out in the back yard and dress 'em. We'll have a good breakfast."

Encouraged by kind words, as all boys are, Johnny once more slid away from school and all that the teacher would say and do on account of his absence the day before, and tried angling again. Meeting his father on his return he was greeted with, "Hello, sonny, where've you been?"

"Been fishing."

"What did you catch?"

"Na-a-a-thing."

"March yourself, march yourself into the house. I'll teach you to run away from school and go fishing, when you know you can't catch anything." There was howl sauce, but no fish for breakfast next morning.—New Haven Register.

Now Save the Rags.

The most noticeable, perhaps, of all the advances during the late boom have been in the price of rags; which have more than doubled in value, and are now worth three and a half cents per pound. At this price, and even at much less, it will pay to save them and sell them. The same is true of old paper of nearly every kind, as by cleaning they are reconverted into white paper by the manufacturers.

In consequence of the scarcity of rags and old paper, the price of print, or paper for news purposes, has gone up from six and a-half to ten cents at wholesale. If this price keeps up, there will be a general raise in the subscription price, as has indeed in many instances already occurred.

Almost any family can make enough in a year by selling rags and old paper, to pay for all their reading matter.

Given up by Doctors.

"Is it possible that Mr. Godfrey is up and at work, and cured by so simple a remedy?"

"I assure you it is true that he is entirely cured, and with nothing but Hop Bitters; and only ten days ago his doctors gave him up and said he must die!"

"Well-a-day! That is remarkable! I will go this day and get some for my poor George—I know hops are good." a15-2wd&w

Malaria Destroyed.

G. A. J. Gadbois, of Brockville, Canada, certifies that he was prostrated by a malarial disease contracted in Texas, and was quickly and completely cured by the use of Warner's Safe Pills and Safe Bitters. He adds: "I shall never travel in that climate without your Safe Pills and Bitters as a part of my outfit." a15-2wd&w
