Two Splendid Farms For Sale.

THE subscriber will sell at Private Sale the two following discribed farms, to wit:

No. 1. is situated on the north west of Carlisle adjoining the inhabited part of said borough, Containing 140 Acres of first rate lime stone land, having thereon erected a new large bank barn, a large hey house, a large Cattle stable, also a comfortable dwelling house & other out buildings. The land is in a high state of cultivation, and all under good post & rail fence.—It is bounded on the North by the heirs of Sam'l. Alexander dec'd., on the East by John Noble, Wm. D. Seymour & others, on the West by John Moore, David Grier, &c., and on the South by the Public road leading from Carlisle to Waggoners bridge.

No. 2. is situated in North Middleton Tp., 4½ miles from Carlisle on the Harrisburg & Carlisle Turnpike road about 1½ miles from Middlesex mills, bounded as follows, on the North by the Conodogunit Creek, on the West by Irvin's heirs, on the East by John Noble & Jesse Zigler, and on the South by Abr. Hetrick and the Harrisburg Turnpike road. Containing 225 acres, about 100 acres of limestone and the residue is black slate, about 160 acres of the tract cleared, under good fence and in a good state of cultivation, the balance is very heavily timbered; a large portion of the farm is meadow land. The improvements are a large Stone Dwelling house, a large log & frame barn, a stone Spring-house, and other out buildings, an apple orchard and a large quantity of other fruit trees.

No. 3. Is a small tract of land about a ¼ mile west of No. 1., on the Baker road leading from Carlisle to Waggoner's bridge, containing 26 acres of first rate limestone land, bounded by said road on the north, by John Noble on the south, Brown's heirs on the east, and by Baker on the west.

The subscriber will also sell a number of outlots to suit purchasers. The above property will be sold on reasonable terms.

HAPPINESS.

What Can Make us Happy?

"Reason's whole pleasure, all the joys of sense, Lie in these three words—Health, Peace and Competence." [POPE.]

But when we have pains, affliction or anguish of diseases, is not our pleasure, our joy, and our happiness thereby destroyed? Why let our sick fellow-being suffer? Does not Christ say: "With the same measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again?"—Math. 7, 2. "Who is a wise man and endowed with knowledge among you, let him show out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom."—James 3, 13.

Dr. P. C. CARDDER, whose medicines are entirely composed or made of wholesome roots, plants and hydropathy (the water cure) good in all diseases, (no poison of any sort.) Office adjoining Mr. Charles Flesger, East Pomfret st., near South Hanover St., Carlisle, Cumberland county, Pa.

His Character by Respectable Neighbors, &c.

[Copy of a letter from the Rev. C. H. Leinbach to Mr. H. H. Etter, of the Warm Springs.]

Respected Sir:—Allow me to introduce to your friendly notice, Dr. Carddor of New York. I have known Dr. C. for 16 years; he has done business for me with sobriety, honesty and accuracy; therefore I do believe him to be perfectly sober, honest and trustworthy. Any favors you may see proper to confer on him, will be highly appreciated by his numerous friends, and by none more highly than your sincere friend and humble servant.

C. H. LEINBACH.

Landisburg, Pa., July 15, 1851.

[Copy of a letter from George Spahr, Esq., County Treasurer.]

I do certify, that the medical advice of Dr. P. C. Carddor has surpassed any other which I have hitherto had in the cure of severe fever in my family. I would therefore recommend him to such persons who may be afflicted with aforesaid disease or otherwise.

GEORGE SPAHR.
