TWO EPITAPHS.

["Memento mori!" "Gedenke zu Leben."]

"Think of Death!" the gravestones say—
"Peace to Life's mad striving!"
But the church-yard daisies,—"Nay,
Think of Living!"

"Think of Life!" the sunbeams say,
O'er the dial flying;
But the slanting shadows,—"Nay,
Think of Dying!"

"Think of Death!" the night birds say,
On the storm-blast driving;
But the building swallows—"Nay,
Think of Living!"

"Think of Life!" the broad winds say,
Through the old trees sighing:
But the whirling leaf dance,—"Nay,
Think of Dying!"

"Think of Death!" the sad bells say,
Fateful record giving;
Clash the merry Yule-peal,—"Nay,
Think of Living!"

Dying, Living, glad, or loth,
On God's Rood relying;
Pray He fit us all for both,—
Living, Dying!

The Names of Articles of Dress.

Many distinctive articles of dress and personal use have taken their names from noted persons. Thus we have the Derby hat and scarf, the Byron collar, the Wellington boots, the Prince Albert coat, and the victorine, a peculiar fur cape named after Queen Victoria. Queen Elizabeth's name is given to a peculiar high lace ruff and that of Madam Sontag to the comfort able knit jacket so much worn by ladies in cold weather. Louis Kossuth distinguished his visit to this country by introducing into general use the soft felt hats which were then called Kossuth hats. The Gainsborough hat took its name from the artist Gainsborough, and the Reuben hat from the great Flemish painter. The names of Mme. Pompadour and Marie Antoinette are associated with peculiar styles of ladies' dress, and that of Mrs. Lantry, the Jersey Lilly, with a light fitting waist now worn by ladies, called the jersey. Lord Brougham gave his name to a species of cab, and Lord Lansdowne is remembered by the Lansdowne collar

Hunting Wild Elephants.

A number of young English nobles, including the Earl of Mayo and Lord Ronald Gower, have been hunting wild elephants in the Teral, a forest preserved for the purpose at the foot of the Himalayas. When the hunters have found a herd of a hundred or so of wild elephants two hundred coolies are telegraphed for to do the "beating." They surround the herd, and, by gradually narrowing the circle and making all sorts of frightful noises, frighten the elephants into a narrow space in the centre, where a stockade has been built and an intrenchment dug, so that they cannot get away. The difficulty is in getting the elephants tied down, as they are very wild and dangerous at first. The hunting party have about fifty tame elephants with them, and these play a prominent part in forcibly civilizing their wild brethren. The poor coolies often get killed in this work, and are always very reluctant to go.

Letter from J. Malcolm Smith, Clerk of Winchester County, New York, for Nine Years.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., May 7, 1883.

I have for many years been troublet at times with muscular rheumatism and pleuretic pains, and have always found Allcock's Porous Plasters to be quick and efficient in affording relief.

In December last I had an attack of Pneumonia, which left one of my lungs in a weak and extremely sensitive condition, accompanied at times with severe pain. The application of one plaster relieved the pain in a short time, and I have worn one almost constantly since, as a protection to the weakened lung.

I have used Allcock's Porous Plasters for myself and family for over twenty-five years, always with speedy beneficial results, and I do not hesitate to recommend them for their mild counter-irritant qualities, and for their efficiency in relieving soreness of the lungs and pains of a rheumatic and neuralgic character.

J. MALCOLM SMITH.

Be sure to obtain "Allcock's" Porous Plasters, as all others are worthless imitations.

Use Day's Horse and Cattle Powder in all cases of general debility among your animals. For pneumonia it is without a rival. In this disease the substance of the lung is inflamed, and the animal must be treated with great care. Price twenty-five cents per package of pound, full weight.

The New Tricycle.

This machine is propelled by steam, and will carry two people twenty miles in an hour, it is said. It is quite an invention but does not compare with Burdock Blood Bitters, which will carry the invalid along the road to health to beat all. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street.

American Art.

Photographs, Engravings, etc., can be exquisitely colored with with liquid Art Colors made from Diamond Dyes. Full directions for this beautiful art work, with a handsome colored cabinet photo sent to any address for 10 cents. WELLS & RICHARDSON & CO., Burlington, Vt.

No Deception Used.

It is strange so many people will continue to suffer day after day with Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Constipation, Sour Stomach, General Debility, when they can procure at our store SHILOH'S VITALIZER, free of cost if it does not cure or relieve them. Price, 75 cents. Sold by H. B. Cochran, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster. fed14-eod5

What Is It Good For?

Let us tell you what Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is good for. It is death to rheumatism and neuralgia. It will cure a burn, bite or pain, and is equally good for sprains. For sale by H. B. Cochran druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street.

NEVER FAILS.

SAMARITAN NERVINE.

"YOU CLAIM TOO MUCH for SAMARITAN NERVINE," says a skeptic. "How can one medicine be a specific for EPILEPSY, DYSPEPSIA, ALCOHOLISM, OPIUM EATING, RHEUMATISM, SPERMATORRHŒ, or SEMINAL WEAKNESS and fifty other complaints?" We claim it a specific, simply because the virus of all diseases arises from the blood. Its Nervine, Resolvent, Alterative, and Laxative properties meet all the conditions herein referred to. It's known world wide as

THE GREAT

Nerve Conqueror.

It quiets and composes the patient—not by the introduction of opiates and drastic catharties, but by the restoration of activity to the stomach and nervous system, whereby the brain is relieved of morbid fancies, which are created by the causes above referred to.

To clergymen, Lawyers, Literary Men, Merchants, Bankers, Ladies, and all those whose sedentary employment causes nervous prostration, irregularities of the blood, stomach, bowels or kidneys, or who require a nerve tonic, appetizer or stimulant, SAMARITAN NERVINE is invaluable. Thousands proclaim it the most wonderful invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system. $1.50. Sold by all Druggists. The DR. S. A. RICHMOND MED. CO., Proprietors, St. Joseph, Mo.
