"OUR LITTLE BOY."

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Stebbins, Belchertown, Mass. write: "Our little boy was terribly afflicted with Scrofula, Salt Rheum and Erysipelas ever since he was born, and nothing we could give him helped him until we tried CUTICURA REMEDIES, which gradually cured him, until now he is as fair as any child."

"WORKS TO A CHARM."

J. S. Weeks, esq., Town Treasurer, St Albans, Vt., says in a letter dated May 28: "It works to a charm on my baby's face and head. Cured the head entirely, and has nearly cleared the face of sores. I have recommended it to several, and Dr. Plant has ordered it for them."

"A TERRIBLE CASE."

Charles Eayre Hinkle, Jersey City Heights, N. J., writes: "My son, a lad of twelve years, was completely cured of a terrible case of Eczema by the CUTICURA REMEDIES. From the top of his head to the soles of his feet was one mass of scabs." Every other remedy and physicians had been tried in vain.

FOR PALE, LANGUID,

Emaciated children, with pimply, sallow skin, the CUTICURA REMEDIES will prove a perfect blessing, cleansing the blood and skin of inherited impurities and expelling the germs of scrofula, rheumatism, consumption and severe skin diseases.

CAN'T SWALLOW BLAINE

A REPUBLICAN'S PITHY ARRAIGNMENT

Ex-Gov. Pound Gives Some Pointed Reasons Why He Will Support Cleveland and Hendricks.

A letter from ex Congressman Pound, of Chippewa Falls, Wis., in which the writer says he will oppose Mr. Blaine and support Governor Cleveland for the presidency, is made public. In his letter Mr. Pound says:

After much earnest and solicitous deliberation I deem it to be my duty, while abating naught of loyalty to the Republican party, but rather to promote its true purpose and strengthen it for future good work, to support the Democratic nominee, Governor Cleveland, for president at the approaching election. My judgment disagrees with, and my conscience rebels against, the action of the Republican convention in the nomination of Mr. Blaine, and without arrogating for myself wisdom superior to a majority of representative Republicans convened to voice the determination of my party, I am compelled to obey my own best judgment and sense of duty in this single and extraordinary instance. Being a life long Republican and the recipient of many distinguished honors, state and national, it is due my political associates, so often my cordial supporters, and myself that he reasons for departure from conventional co-operation be frankly stated.

Mr. Blaine, in my opinion, embodies most in American politics that is menacing to public morals and integrity in government. With a long public career, mainly distinguished for a sort of declamatory and puglistic statecraft, he is not the inspiration of a single valuable policy or the author of an important statue, but on the contrary, has often suggested and supported unwise and bad and opposed good legislation. With a record clouded by suspicion and accusation of jobbery and corruption undefended, he brings to us personal antagonisms which have torn and weakened our party in the past, invading the administration of the lamented Garfield with demands of personal vengeance so virulent as to inflame the spirit of assassination and culminating in the defeat of Judge Folger and consequent election of Grover Cleveland governor of the Empire state.

Too Wealthy for an Honest Statesman.

But returning to the candidate. Himself a speculator, enjoying a fortune too great to have been acquired by honest industry, legimate business enterprise or his country's service at $5 000 a year, he sympathizes with and profits by speculative stock jobbing and gambling methods of acquiring wealth—methods which have wrought ruin, disgrace and business disasters beyond computation, schooled youth and persuaded middle age to avoid honest and useful industry, made suicide and insanity commonplace, unsettled values, placed the fruit of honest toil in the power of the Goulds and Armours to bear down or bull up in the markets as whim or interest may dictate; methods which recently gave us but an exaggerated illustration of their iniquitous consequences in the Grant & Ward $15,000,000 failure and robbery.

Reference to Blaine's congressional record relating to subsidies, class legislation, corporate exactions, etc., will readily satisfy the honest inquirer of his uniform support of monopolies and indifference to the common weal. Little wonder that he omits in his letter to refer to or explain the cause of the great disparity in the distribution of this marvellous increase of wealth accumulated during the period he chooses for comparison; that he fails to note the fact that the one three hundredth part of the $44,000,000,000 is held by one man, while others rank little below and his own palatial residence, commanding a rental of $11,000 a year, suggesting more than an average per capita of wealth. Little wonder that he is silent on the subject of inter state commerce, the regulation of which is demanded by all producers and legitimate traders. Great corporate interests command non-interference.

A Significant Silence.

The disingenuousness of his letter of acceptance is further betrayed by its significant silence touching the events of the past three years. Bringing down his historic figures to the present would have revealed the action involved in his statements, would have shown a marvelous shrinkage in nominal values, would have noted the downfall of business prosperity and business morals and would have pictured as few can do so graphically as he the furnace fires dying out, the wheels of factories standing still, wages reduced, beggary usurping the place of labor, bank and business failures, creditors and depositors wantonly defrauded, homes lost and crookedness in public affairs. Mr. Blaine is objectionable furthermore for the company he keeps, for the friends he has made. Will the chief promoters of his nomination be his chief advisers if elected? There's the rub.

With no pronounced issues between the two great parties, we can safely afford to yield temporary executive control at this time to an honest man, though he be a Democrat. And if grave questions of public policy were at issue they cannot be determined by the executive. This is the prerogative of Congress, the lawmaking branch, heretofore for a time and now under Democratic control. It is vastly more important to good government that the Republican party be restored to supremacy in Congress that the administration of law be entrusted to an unworthy partisan surrounded by bad counsel. While Mr. Blaine is known to be unworthy, Governor Cleveland has demonstrated his fitness and worthiness for the position by his fidelity, ability and integrity in the discharge of his executive duties as mayor of Buffalo and governor of the great state of New York, and in my opinion a very large majority of intelligent and unprejudiced voters believe he should be elected. If one-half of the Republican voters who agree in this opinion have the courage of their convictions and vote conscientiously he will be triumphantly elected. The scandals affecting the domestic lives of all candidates should be committed to the political ghouls and hyenas.

While it is my fixed purpose to support Cleveland and Hendricks, it is no less my determination to support all fit and worthy nominees of the Republican party for county, state and congressional positions.

ABOUT MATRIMONY.

Interesing Experiences Related by a Clergymen Concerning the Nuptial Tie.

Generally speaking, marriages pass off very smoothly, and frequently with very pretty effects. The brides are credited with a careful study for many days before hand. Sometimes there has been a rehearsal. I have known brides, when the grooms have failed to make the proper responses, prompt them immediately and with the greatest facility. The most common mistake of the bride is to take off only one of her gloves, whereas both hands are brought into requisition in the service. As for the men, they commit all kinds of blunders and bunging. I have known a man at that very nervous and trying moment follow a clergyman within the communion rails, and prepare to take a place opposite him. I have known a man, when the minister stretched out his hand to unite those of the couple, take it vigorously in his own and give it a hearty shake. Sometimes more serious difficulties occur. Some ladies have had an almost unconquerable reluctance to use the word "obey;" one or two, if their own statements are to be accepted, have ingeniously constructed the word "nobey." The word, however, has still to be formally admitted into the language. There was one girl, who was being married by a very kindly old clergyman, who absolutely refused to utter the word "obey." The minister suggested that, if she were unwilling to utter the word aloud, she should whisper it to him; but the young lady refused to accept even this kind of compromise. Further, however, than this the clergyman refused to accommodate her; but when he was forced to dismiss them all without proceeding any further, the recalcitrant young person consented to "obey." The difficulty, however, is not always made on the side of the lady. On one occasion the bridegroom wished to deliver a little oration qualifying his vow and describing in what sense and to what extent he was using the words of the formula. He was, of course, given to understand that nothing of this kind could be permitted. There was one man who accompanied the formula with sotto voce remarks, which must have been exceedingly disagreeable to the officiating minister. He interpolated remarks after the fashion of Burchell's "Fudge!" "With this ring I thee wed; that's superstition." "With my body I thee worship; that's idolatry." "With all my worldly goods I thee endow; that's a lie." It is a wonder that such a being was not conducted out of church by the beadle. This puts one in mind of an anecdote that is told of a man who in his time was a cabinet minister.

There was a great discussion of the question whether a man can marry on three hundred a year. "All I can say," said the great man "is that when I said, 'with all my worldly goods I thee endow,' so far from having three hundred pounds, I question whether, when all my debts were paid I had three hundred pence." "Yes my love," said his wife; "but then you had your splendid intellect." "I didn't endow you with that, ma'am," sharply retorted the right honorable husband.

Doctors are getting more and more into the habit of prescribing proprietary medicines in their practice, especially that known as HUNT'S [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY for diseases of the kidneys, liver and bladder. They know from experience that is of more value in such diseases than any prescription they can write. m28-1wTT,Th&S&w

Hardened Liver.

Five years ago I broke down with kidney and liver complaint and rheumatism.

Since then I have been unable to be about at all. My liver became hard like wood; my limbs were puffed up and filled with water.

All the best physicians agreed that nothing could cure me. I resolved to try Hop Bitters; I have used seven bottles; the hardness has all gone from my liver, the swelling from my limbs, and it has worked a miracle in my case; otherwise I would have been now in my grave. J. W. MORRY, Buffalo, Oct. 1, 1881.

Poverty and Suffering.

"I was drugged down with debt, poverty and suffering for years, caused by a sick family and large bills for doctoring.

I was completely discouraged, until one year ago, by the advice of my pastor, I commenced using Hop Bitters, and in one month we were all well, and none of us have seen a sick day since, and I want to say to all poor men, you can keep your families well a year with Hop Bitters for less than one doctor's visit will cost. I know it."—A WORKINGMAN.

None genuine without a bunch of green Hops on the white label. Shun all the vile, poisonous stuff with "Hop" or "Hops" in their name. aug4-Tu,Th&S1m

"Grunt It Out."

The above is an old saw as savage as it is senseless. You can't "grunt out" dyspepsia, nor liver complaint, nor nervousness if they once get a good hold. They don't remove themselves in that way. The taking a few doses of Burdock Blood Bitters is better than "grunting it out." What we can cure it's not enough. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street.

A Remarkable Escape.

Mrs. Mary A. Dailey, of Tunkhannock, Pa., was afflicted for six years with Asthma and Bronchitis, during which time the best physicians could give no relief. Her life was despaired of, until in last October she procured a Bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, when immediate relief was felt, and by continuing its use for a short time she was completely cured, gaining in flesh 50 lbs. in a few months.

I Wish Everybody to Know.

Rev. George H. Thayer, an old citizen of this vicinity known to every one as a most influential citizen and christian minister of the M. E. church, just this moment stopped in our store to say, "I wish everybody to know that I consider that both my self and wife owe our lives to Shiloh's Consumption Cure."
