AN EARL'S TEAR.

[Lord Derby, in an article in the Nineteenth Century, said: "Although I have seen many stage Juliets, and although I happen to be easily moved by stage pathos, Miss Anderson's is the only one that has ever drawn a tear from me." Whereupon some clever person personated the following:]

Light lie the flowers those lavish hands deigned
Royally to strew,
Through twenty pages of the Nineteenth Century Review;
What though a hundred birelings hacks from Grub street float and fleer,
An earl's best pocket handkerchief has "wiped away a tear."

Shame on the irresponsible incompetence of spite!
Who cares, when an ex-viceroy weeps, what curs may bark or bite?
The Times may bray, the Standard snarl, the Saturday may sneer—
An earl has turned his head aside and "wiped away a tear."

And thou, fair stranger, when are crossed those leagues of barren foam,
Thy latest prophet's praise shall sing thy grace and beauty home;
So say, "The mob were stolid and the critics rather queer;
But still, I triumphed, for an earl has wiped away a tear."

HEARTS AND FLOWERS.

My lady's cheek is soft and red,
My lady holds her graceful head
On high,
And why?
She knows not yet of care or woe;
She only lives to bud and blow—
My foolish Lady Jacqueminot.

My lady's cheeks less soft and red,
My lady bowed her weary head,
And why?
She's nigh
A heart that once was light as snow;
But hearts and flowers die, you know,
When broken, Lady Jacqueminot.

Mr. Cleveland at Greystone.

President-elect Cleveland, accompanied by Hon. Daniel Manning, boarded the 9 o'clock train at the Grand Central depot, New York, Sunday morning, and took a seat among the passengers. Mr. Cleveland had been recognized as he passed through the depot, and the railroad employes and many passengers pushed toward the car, anxious to catch a glimpse of and if possible shake hands with the president-elect. When the train arrived at Yonkers, Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Manning were received at the depot by the Hon. Samuel J. Tilden's private secretary, Mr. Smith. As Mr. Cleveland stepped from the car the hackmen and hangers on about the station raised their hats and pressed forward to shake hands with him but he was hurried to Mr. Tilden's coach and the party were rapidly carried to Greystone, the residence on North Broadway of Mr. Tilden. At Greystone the guests were welcomed by Mr. Tilden and his nieces, and after short general conversation an adjournment was taken to Mr. Tilden's study where he and his guests could converse free from interruption. At 2 o'clock dinner was announced. Mr. Tilden occupied the head of the table, with the president-elect on his right and Mr. Manning on his left. Nearly two hours were spent in the dining room, and after a short walk about the grounds the gentlemen repaired to the study, where they spent the remainder of the afternoon.

A Boy Kills His Grandmother.

Frank Abner, 15 years of age, has been lodged in jail at Metropolis, Ill., on the charge of having murdered his grandmother. He has confessed the crime, telling his story substantially as follows: "On Monday evening he was chopping wood for his grandmother, with whom he lived, when an older boy, named Trumbull Watson, came along and induced Abner to go into an adjacent woods and play, saying in reply to the prisoner's objections that his grandmother would whip him, 'If she says anything to you just knock her in the head.' Mrs. Ross administered a reprimand, but did not whip the truant, who went to bed surly and with muttered threats. About midnight he arose, took an axe from the shed, went to his grandmother's bedside, and buried the weapon in her brain, killing her instantly."

The Worst Snow-Storm of the Season.

Decidedly the worst snow-storm thus far this season set in at Chicago about 8 o'clock Sunday night. The flakes are falling very fast, driven in blinding gusts from the north, and, being very wet, cling to everything they touch. If it continues trains will be greatly delayed or blockaded before morning. Inquiry at ten o'clock showed that the telegraph wires had not experienced any trouble to speak of, though it was anticipated from the sticky character of the snow. Advice from other points indicate that the storm area is large. It is snowing at Omaha and sleeting at Springfield, Ill.

Keeping an Old-Time Vow.

Richard Wall, of Haverstraw, New York, vowed twenty-four years ago that when the next Democratic president was elected he would walk all the way from Haverstraw to Washington to see the inauguration. In accordance with that vow he started from Haverstraw early on Saturday afternoon on his tramp to Washington, which he expects to reach on March 3d.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

AN OLD SOLDIER'S

EXPERIENCE.

CALVERT, TEXAS, May 3, 1882.

"I wish to express my appreciation of the valuable qualities of

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

AS A COUGH REMEDY.

"While with Churchill's army, just before the battle of Vicksburg, I contracted a severe cold, which terminated in a dangerous cough. I found no relief till on our march we came to a country store, where, on asking for some remedy, I was urged to try AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

"I did so, and was rapidly cured. Since then I have kept the PECTORAL constantly by me for family use, and I have found it to be an invaluable remedy for throat and lung diseases."

J. W. WHITNEY.

Thousands of testimonials certify to the prompt cure of all bronchial and lung affections, by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. Being very palatable, the youngest children take it readily.

HEADACHE

in either its nervous, bilious or congestive form, arising from obstruction, congestion or torpidity of the liver. When I say that Dr. Leslie's

SPECIAL

Prescription will cure the most obstinate cases of Sick Headache, I mean just what I say, and that is, that it not merely relieves but cures, no matter how long the case may have been standing.

POSITIVELY

I have testimonials from persons who have been afflicted for twenty years, being confined to bed two or three days at a time every two weeks, that have been permanently cured by two bottles of Dr. Leslie's Special

BRANDY.

Brandy as a Medicine.

The following article was voluntarily sent to MR. H. E. SLAYMAKER, Agent for REIGART'S OLD WINE STORE, by a prominent practicing physician of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice. It is commended to the attention of those afflicted with

INDIGESTION AND DYSPEPSIA.

BRANDY AS A MEDICINE.

This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulant was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of greater potency in the cure of some of the destructive diseases which sweeps away their annual thousands of victims. With a purely philanthropic motive, we present to the favorable notice of invalids—espec ially those afflicted with that miserable disease, Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than BRANDY.

The aged, with feeble appetite, and more or less debility, will find this simple medicine, when used properly,

A SOVEREIGN REMEDY

For all their ills and aches. Be it, however, strictly understood that we prescribe and use but one article, and that is

Regart's Old Brandy,

Sold by our enterprising friend, H. E. SLAYMAKER. This brandy has stood the test for years, and has never failed, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preference over all other Brandies—no matter with how many jaw breaking French titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspepsia specifies, would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure any such case or cases. In proof of the curative power of

REIGART'S OLD BRANDY

In cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon numbers of witnesses—one case in particular we will cite:

A hard working farmer had been afflicted with an exhausting Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour eructations constantly—no appetite—in fact he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used Mctiraun's Root Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now, preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed earnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try

REIGART'S OLD BRANDY

In his case, he looked up with astonishment; but after hearing of his wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was all taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which he choose to eat. He still keeps it and uses a little occasionally; and since he has this medicine, he has been of very little pecuniary benefit to the doctor.—A Practising Physician.
