THE NEGRO RACE.—Bayard Taylor, writing from Nubia, Upper Egypt, says:

"Those friends of the African race who point to Egypt as a proof of what that race has accomplished, are wholly mistaken. The only negro features represented in Egyptian sculpture are those of slaves and captives taken in Ethiopian wars of the Pharoahs. The temples and pyramids throughout Nubia, as far as the Dareef and Abysinia, all bear the hieroglyphy of monarchs, and there is no evidence in all the valley of the Nile, that the negro race ever attained a higher degree of civilization than is at present exhibited at Congo and Ashantee. I mention this, not from any feeling hostile to that race, but simply to controvert an opinion very prevalent in some parts of the United States."

THE "PROPHET'S FAMILY."—A correspondent of the Missouri Republican writes, that last summer he was at Nauvoo and conversed with Mr. Bitoman, who is married to Joe Smith's widow. He says:

I sat at the table with the family, consisting of Mr. Bitoman and wife and three sons of Joe Smith, the eldest about 23 or 24, the second about 20; the third a lad of some 12 or 13 yrs. From Mr. Bitoman I learned that not one of the family believed in Mormonism, and that his wife—formerly Mrs. Smith—had always been opposed to it as well as the boys. Mrs. Bitoman is a masculine, intelligent looking lady of 45 to 47 years. She is a native of New York.

A schoolmaster in Cornwall, England, advertising his establishment, says:

"Every boarder must be supplied with a Bible, a prayer book, a knife and fork, three towels, and a silver desert spoon; all of which except the books, become the proprietor's perquisite on the pupil's quitting school."

The conscientious pedagogue seems to think that the Bible and prayer book may be well for the pupil; he prefers however, the steel and silver.

Married.

On the 10th ult., by the Rev. Dr. Webster, Capt. SAMUEL THOMORS, to Mrs. CAROLINE E. JEWETT, all of the city of Baltimore.

On the 2nd inst., by the Rev. J. Evans, Mr. FRANCIS DILLER, of Hopewell township, to Miss MARY BURKHOLDER, of Frankford township.

Died.

On the 20th of January, in Philadelphia, Miss ELMIRA CATHARINE, daughter of Captain John Goodyear, in the 20th year of her age.

On the 5th instant, at the residence of his father, in Westpennsborough township, WILLIAM B., son of Martin and Ellen Carothers, aged 24 years, 10 months and 28 days.

I want to go home, was my husband's request,
He bid us farewell, and hoped we'd meet him in heaven at rest;
A stranger and pilgrim no more will he roam—
O, husband, dear husband, you're gone to your home.

The angels were waiting your soul to convey
From this dreary world, to the bright realms of day,
'Tis your affections my spirit doth love,
For Christ is your saviour in heaven above.

The trifles of earth could not lure you to stay,
Its joys and its sorrows must soon pass away,
You were weary of earth—no longer would roam
Dearest husband thy loss we deeply feel since thou hast gone home.

For a time we must part, till in heaven we meet,
Your slumbering body the Saviour will keep,
Till it wakes in his likeness, and will joyfully rise,
To praise him forever at home in the skies.

Hoover's Liquid Hair Dye.

THE testimony of Prof. Booth and Dr. Brinckle having previously been published, the following is now added:

From Prof. McCloskey, formerly Professor of Theory and Practice of Medicine in the Female Medical College of Pennsylvania, and late Professor of Surgery in the American College of Medicine, &c.

PHILA., Nov. 27, 1856.

Mr. Joseph E. Hoover—A trial of your Liquid Hair Dye will convince the most skeptical, that it is a safe, elegant, and efficacious preparation. Unlike many others, it has in several instances proved serviceable in the cure of some cutaneous eruptions on the head, and I have no hesitation in commending it to those requiring such an application. Very respectfully,

J. F. X. McCLOSKEY, M. D.

475 Race St., above 13th.

Hoover's Writing Inks, including Hoover's Writing Fluid, and Hoover's Indelible Inks, still maintain their high character, which has always distinguished them, and the extensive demand first created, has continued uninterrupted until the present.
